RÈGLEMENTS DES QUARANTAINES CANADIENNES.

PAR ARRÊTÉ EN CONSEIL DATÉ LE 12 DE JUIN 1907.

Administration.

Tout le service quarantenaire du Canada est sous le contrôle du Ministre de l'Agriculture, aidé du directeur général du service de santé public.

Chaque station de quarantaine est sous la charge immédiate d'un médecin de quarantaine spécialement nommé.

A chaque station de quarantaine maritime non organisée ou station de quarantaine de l'intérieur, le percepteur des douanes de l'endroit est l'officier de quarantaine pour les fins des présents règlements.

Stations de quarantaine.

Les stations de quarantaine du Canada, sont :—

Province de la Nouvelle-Ecosse—

(b) Sydney, le havre et la Pointe Edward ;
(c) Louisbourg et le havre ;

Et tout port intérieur sur la frontière canadienne, chaque tel port étant désigné Station de quarantaine intérieure non organisée.

DISPOSITIONS GÉNÉRALES.

Les officiers de quarantaine seront juges de paix.

1. Tout officier de quarantaine à une station de quarantaine en Canada, et tout percepteur des douanes en sa capacité d'officier de quarantaine, seront, pour les fins des présents règlements, juges de paix en vertu des dispositions de l'article 7 de l'Acte concernant la quarantaine, chap. 74 des Statuts revisés.

Personnes qui entrent au Canada.

2. Toute personne qui entre au Canada, que ce soit à un port de douane ou non, est réputée être soumise aux règlements.

(a) Une fois qu'une personne est libérée de ce cercle extérieur de quarantaine fédérale, elle est hors de la juridiction de ce ministère.

Catégories de passagers.

3. Pour les fins des présents règlements, les passagers sont divisés en deux classes : passagers de premières, et passagers d'entrepont. Les passagers d'entrepont sont ceux qui occupent des compartiments autres que ceux de premières et de secondes.

Maladies quarantenaires.

4. Les principales maladies quarantenaires sont : le choléra asiatique, la peste, la petite vérole, le typhus, et la fièvre jaune. Les maladies secondaires, sont la fièvre scarlatine, les fièvres entériques (typhoïdes), la diphthérie, la rougeole et la varicelle (petite vérole volante).

Autres maladies infectieuses.

La lèpre.

5. Il est du devoir de chaque officier de quarantaine de bien s'assurer de la présence ou de l'absence de la lèpre parmi les passagers ou l'équipage, et advenant la découverte de quelque cas de cette maladie, la personne atteinte n'aura pas la permission d'entrer en Canada, mais sera détenue aux frais du navire jusqu'à ce qu'elle soit remise à bord du même navire à son prochain voyage de retour, et si le navire manque de reprendre le dit lépreux, ce lépreux sera déporté par le gouvernement aux frais des propriétaires du vaisseau après un intervalle de quatorze jours à compter de la date du débarquement de cette personne, à moins que de bonnes raisons ne soient données pour un plus long délai.

Vaisseaux venant de l'étranger.

6. Tout navire arrivant d'un port en dehors du Canada à une station de quarantaine organisée sera inspecté par un officier de quarantaine dûment nommé, à l'endroit dûment fixé pour cette inspection, et il ne lui sera pas permis de faire une déclaration à la douane à aucun port du Canada tant qu'il n'aura pas reçu une patente de santé.

(a) Si un navire venant d'un port infecté et en destination d'un port en Canada qui est une station de quarantaine non organisée, a à passer une station de quarantaine organisée, il lui faudra arrêter à cette dernière station avant de continuer sa route.

Définition de "port infecté."

(b) D'après l'interprétation des présents règlements, un port ou pays infecté est un port ou pays où l'une quelconque des plus graves maladies susceptibles de la quarantaine désignées plus haut existe comme épidémie ou a été communiquée à une ou plusieurs personnes par la voie d'une personne ou d'effets d'habillement infectés ou autrement. Un port ou pays n'est pas considéré infecté lorsqu'il ne s'est déclaré qu'un simple cas ou un petit nombre de cas et que la maladie n'a pas été communiqué par ces cas.

Ile du Prince-Edouard.

(c) Les présents règlements s'appliqueront aux vaisseaux arrivant à un port quelconque dans la province de l'Ile du Prince-Edouard d'un port quelconque dans toute autre province du Canada que le Ministre aura déclaré infecté des principales maladies quarantenaires.

Cabotiers, etc.

(a) Les vaisseaux venant de l'Europe et touchant à des ports de Terre-Neuve en se rendant à un port canadien, seront réputés être des cabotiers en vertu du présent règlement.

Cabotage après acquit.

8. Un vaisseau qui se déclare à un port du Canada, et continue à un autre port du Canada sans d'abord retourner à l'étranger, sera censé être un vaisseau cabotier, et ne sera pas subordonné aux présents règlements.

Navires de guerre de Sa Majesté.

9. Tout navire de guerre de Sa Majesté ou tout transport portant des troupes de Sa Majesté, et n'ayant pas de maladie à bord, est exempt de l'inspection et de la détention quarantenaires ; mais dans le cas où il se présenterait à bord d'un tel vaisseau quelqu'une des principales maladies quarantenaires telles qu'énumérées à l'article 4, les présents règlements s'appliqueront comme dans le cas d'autres vaisseaux arrivant d'en dehors du Canada.

Pilotes.

10. Tout pilote qui monte à bord d'un vaisseau arrivant à un port du Canada, devra fournir au capitaine de ce vaisseau un exemplaire des règlements, sous peine de l'amende spécifiée plus loin.

Signaux de quarantaine.

11. Tout navire venant d'un port en dehors du Canada, et ayant besoin d'une inspection quarantenaire, devra, en arrivant de jour à un port quelconque du Canada hisser un pavillon jaune à l'avant comme signal distinct de quarantaine, de façon à informer l'officier de quarantaine que ses services sont requis, et tout navire arrivant la nuit exhibera un feu rouge à l'avant comme tel signal.

(a) Nul tel vaisseau ne dépassera les limites d'inspection quarantenaire avant d'avoir été visité et libéré par l'officier de quarantaine.

Personnes susceptibles de détention.

12. Toute personne qui sera à bord d'un vaisseau arrivant d'un port en dehors du Canada, à aucune station de quarantaine organisée, ou qui aura monté à bord d'un vaisseau après telle arrivée et avant que tel vaisseau n'ait été inspecté par un officier de quarantaine dûment nommé, sera passible des dispositions des articles 18 et 23, et nulle telle personne ne quittera ce vaisseau sans la permission du dit officier tant que le vaisseau n'aura pas été déclaré par cet officier exempt de maladie infectieuse. Toute personne qui enfreindra le présent règlement sera passible d'une amende n'excédant pas $400 et de l'emprisonnement pendant 6 mois.

Officiers du revenu et des douanes.

Le mot "personne" dans le présent règlement comprendra les officiers des douanes et du revenu, et autres officiers ou serviteurs de la Couronne étant ou allant à bord d'un vaisseau qui arrive ainsi, tant dans l'exécution de leur devoir qu'autrement.

Heures d'inspection.

13. Tout vaisseau sera inspecté immédiatement à son arrivée.

(a) Sauf que dans les temps d'épidémie de quelqu'une des principales maladies quarantenaires, ou pour complaire aux exigences spéciales d'un port quelconque, le ministre de l'Agriculture pourra ordonner que l'inspection ne se fasse que pendant les heures du jour.

L'officier de quarantaine s'assurera de la salubrité du navire.

14. Chaque officier de quarantaine devra s'assurer de la présence ou de l'absence d'une maladie infectieuse par une inspection personnelle des personnes à bord, ou par la déclaration assermentée du capitaine ou du chirurgien, en la formule ci-jointe, ou par les deux.

Liste des immigrants.

15. Chaque officier de quarantaine maritime, lorsqu'une maladie infectieuse est signalée à bord d'un vaisseau, doit avertir l'agent d'immigration du port de ce fait, de façon que ce fonctionnaire puisse compléter et expédier la liste des immigrants avec leur destination aux secrétaires des bureaux d'hygiène dans les provinces ou états auxquels ces immigrants sont destinés.

Avis aux passagers.

16. Pendant une période épidémique de quelqu'une des principales maladies quarantenaires, les passagers devraient être avertis par les agents de vapeurs de se dispenser, autant que possible, de bagage que l'eau pourrait gâter, dans le cas où il leur faudrait subir la désinfection—tels que les tissus dont les couleurs pourraient déteindre—vu que les propriétaires seront obligés de supporter tous les risques de dommages.

Avis aux armateurs.

17. Durant une période épidémique de quelqu'une des principales maladies quarantenaires, les vaisseaux devraient se dispenser, autant que possible, des tentures, rideaux, tapis, etc., de laine, et y substituer des couvertures non absorbantes.

(a) Chaque navire portant cargaison, et sujet à être désinfecté, devrait être muni d'un conduit en charpente uni, donnant un espace libre de 12 pouces partout à l'intérieur, placé dans la grande écoutille, pour un navire à voiles ; et un dans chaque écoutille d'un vapeur, divisé par des cloisons. La charpente de ce conduit serait posée avant le chargement, et s'étendrait de l'écoutille au fond de cale. Ce simple arrangement recevrait le tuyau de fumigation et éviterait de déranger la cargaison.

Détention.

18. Tout navire ayant de la maladie contagieuse à bord, ou venant d'un port ou pays infecté, sera sujet à être détenu à une station de quarantaine pour y être désinfecté, ainsi que ses passagers, son équipage et son pilote, et le bagage des passagers et la cargaison.

(a) Un navire pourra être détenu à la quarantaine, pour être désinfecté, aussi longtemps que la chose sera nécessaire ;

Période de détention.

(b) Le temps pendant lequel un navire, ses passagers, équipage, pilote, etc., pourra être détenu en quarantaine d'observation, est la période acceptée de l'incubation de la maladie contre laquelle on se garde à compter de la date constatée de la dernière exposition possible.

Vaisseaux arrivant à des ports autres que ceux de leur destination, avec de la maladie contagieuse à bord.

19. Lorsqu'un navire qui n'est pas primitivement à destination d'un port du Canada arrive dans un port de mer ayant à bord une maladie contagieuse ou infectieuse, et qu'il lui est permis de rester en quarantaine dans ce port ou dans le voisinage, le capitaine de ce navire doit payer au percepteur des douanes du port une capitation de deux piastres par personne à bord du navire au moment de son arrivée ; et cette somme est privilégiée sur le navire et doit être payée avant qu'il ne reçoive la permission de quitter le port. S.R., c. 74, art. 11.

Les vaisseaux pourront reprendre la mer à certaines conditions.

20. Le capitaine de tout tel navire aura, avant de rompre son chargement, le droit de retourner en mer avec son navire au lieu de mettre en quarantaine, et s'il exerce ce droit et que le navire ne soit pas arrivé à son port de destination, sa patente de santé lui sera remise, après que le médecin inspecteur y aura inscrit la durée et les circonstances de la détention, ainsi que la condition du navire au moment de reprendre la mer, mais avant que le capitaine du navire ne puisse exercer ce droit, le médecin inspecteur devra s'assurer que les malades à bord seront soignés pendant le reste du voyage, et si quelques-uns des malades préfèrent rester à ce port, le dit médecin en prendra soin. S.R., c. 74, art. 12.

Isolement.

21. Tout navire muni d'un hôpital isolé pour les hommes, et un autre pour les femmes, sur le pont supérieur, ventilé d'en haut en non par la porte seulement, pourra, s'il est prouvé à la satisfaction de l'officier de quarantaine que cet hôpital a été promptement et intelligemment employé, continuer sa route après avoir mis à terre les malades, et ceux que l'officier jugera avoir été exposés à l'infection, et après la désinfection des parties du navire qui sembleront le nécessiter ; néanmoins, tout navire qui arrivera avec quelque maladie infectieuse, sans être muni de ces hôpitaux spéciaux isolés et ventilés, ou, étant muni de ces hôpitaux, sans preuve satisfaisante qu'ils ont été promptement ou intelligemment employés, sera sujet à être détenu pour être désinfecté à une station de quarantaine.

Déplacement des vaisseaux, etc.

22. Tout vaisseau ainsi détenu par ordre de l'officier de quarantaine, sera sans délai ancré ou mouillé à l'endroit que fixera l'officier de quarantaine, et ses passagers, équipage, pilote, etc., seront retenus à bord, ou débarqués à la quarantaine, selon les ordres de l'officier de quarantaine.

Personne ne quittera le bord.

23. Et tant que ce navire est ainsi détenu, personne ne quittera le navire, ni n'aura de communication avec tel navire, sans la permission de l'officier de quarantaine.

Le Ministre sera averti.

24. L'officier de quarantaine qui détiendra un navire comme susdit, devra immédiatement avertir le Ministre de l'Agriculture, et donner la cause de cette détention.

Vaisseaux arrivant par le Saint-Laurent.

25. Dans le cas d'un navire portant les malles de Sa Majesté et arrivant par la voie du Saint-Laurent, le certificat d'acquit sera accordé par un officier de quarantaine à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre) ou à la Grosse-Isle, et dans le cas de tout autre navire à la Grosse-Ile seulement, à moins qu'une permission spéciale au contraire ne soit obtenue du ministre de l'Agriculture.

(a) S'il trouve une maladie quarantenaire à bord, l'officier de quarantaine à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre) détiendra l'acquit final de douane qui ne sera donné au vaisseau qu'après avoir été libéré de l'inspection quarantenaire à la Grosse-Ile.

(b) Mais si l'officier de quarantaine à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre) est d'avis que les malles et les personnes et leurs effets peuvent être débarqués à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre), l'officier de quarantaine donnera au vaisseau un acquit partiel ne couvrant que les malles et les personnes qui peuvent débarquer là avec leurs effets. (Voir Formule ci-annexée).

(c) Sauf que durant une période épidémique d'une des principales maladies quarantenaires la permission accordée à un paquebot-poste venant d'un port ou pays infecté, de débarquer des passagers à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre) pourra être suspendue par ordre du ministre de l'Agriculture.

(d) Et dans ces conditions les malles seules seront débarquées à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre), et le vaisseau continuera sa route à la Grosse-Ile pour inspection.

(f) L'officier de quarantaine à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre) télégraphiera à l'officier de quarantaine à la Grosse-Ile un état de l'action prise et de la maladie pour laquelle un acquit complet est retenu.

Vaisseaux à Halifax.

26. Relativement aux vaisseaux qui touchent à Halifax en se rendant à St. John, si, après inspection l'officier de quarantaine à Halifax trouve qu'un vaisseau est exempt de maladie, il donnera un acquit de douane complet, lequel sera valable au port de St. John, et le vaisseau pourra alors continuer sa route.

(a) S'il trouve une maladie quarantenaire à bord, l'officier de quarantaine à Halifax (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre) détiendra l'acquit final de douane qui ne sera donné au vaisseau qu'après avoir été libéré de l'inspection quarantenaire à St. John.

(c) L'officier de quarantaine télégraphiera à l'officier de quarantaine du port de St. John un état de l'action prise et de la maladie pour laquelle un acquit complet est retenu.

Remorqueurs à vapeur.

27. Tout remorqueur ou autre navire à vapeur qui aura remorqué ou autrement communiqué avec un navire de la classe de ceux sujets à la quarantaine ou l'inspection quarantenaire, sera, par ce fait, soumis aux mêmes règlements et exigences applicables au navire avec lequel il y aura eu communication.

(a) Si la communication entre le navire et le remorqueur à vapeur se borne à l'amarrage d'un câble, qui est ensuite relâché, l'officier de quarantaine pourra décider d'exempter ce remorqueur de la détention quarantenaire.

Guenilles.

28. Les guenilles venant d'un port ou pays où sévit une maladie infectieuse, pourront être prohibées, et le nom de tout port ou pays ainsi infecté sera, de temps à autre, publié dans la Gazette du Canada.

Nouvelles marchandises.

29. Les nouvelles marchandises en général pourront être acceptées sans question.

Vaccination.

30. Chaque passager sera tenu de prouver à la satisfaction de l'officier de quarantaine qu'il a été vacciné ou qu'il a déjà eu la petite vérole.

31. La production d'un endossement sur le billet de passage, signé par le chirurgien du vaisseau, à l'effet que le passager a été effectivement vacciné, et la déclaration assermentée du chirurgien à l'appui de la vérité de ce certificat ou endossement, seront considérés par l'officier de quarantaine comme preuve de cette vaccination et de cette protection. Toutefois, l'officier de quarantaine pourra, de temps à autre, faire un examen personnel des porteurs de ces certificats, afin de s'assurer de la manière que ces certificats ont été émis.

(a) Le chirurgien du vaisseau fera un examen de chaque passager d'entrepont afin de s'assurer que ce passager a été vacciné aussitôt que possible après le départ du vaisseau, et il inscrira le résultat de cet examen sur le billet de voyage du passager, comme suit :—

" Protégé par vaccination antérieure ou par la petite vérole."

" Vacciné à bord," ou

" Refusé d'être vacciné."

Vaisseau avec la petite vérole à bord.

(b) Si la petite vérole s'est déclarée sur un vaisseau, ou si un vaisseau arrive d'un port ou endroit qui a été déclaré infecté de la petite vérole par proclamation dans la Gazette du Canada, chaque passager à bord qui n'offre aucune preuve satisfaisante d'avoir été vacciné dans le cours des derniers sept ans, ou d'avoir eu la petite vérole durant cette période, sera vacciné par ou sous la surveillance de l'officier de quarantaine, ou détenu en observation.

Personnes qui refusent d'être vaccinées.

(c) Les personnes que l'officier de quarantaine juge avoir besoin d'être vaccinées, en vertu des présents règlements, et qui refusent de s'y soumettre, seront débarquées à la station de quarantaine pour y subir la détention d'observation, et l'entretien de ces personnes, et la paie et le soutien des gardiens que l'officier de quarantaine trouvera nécessaire de nommer pour surveiller et contrôler ces personnes durant leur détention sera une dette sur le vaisseau.

Détention des passagers.

(d) Dans le cas d'une personne venant d'un vaisseau exempt de malade la durée de détention sera de 18 jours, cette durée étant considérée la période ordinaire d'incubation datée de l'infection possible au port de partance, et dans le cas de personnes venant d'un vaisseau dans lequel la petite vérole s'est déclarée durant la traversée, la période de dix-huit jours datera de la date du débarquement à la quarantaine de la personne qui a refusé d'être vaccinée.

Vaccination avant l'embarquement.

Désinfection.

Les méthodes de désinfection aux stations de quarantaine du Canada, seront l'un ou l'autre des moyens ci-dessous :

Par le feu, l'eau bouillante, la vapeur, la formaldehide, le dioxyde de soufre, la solution de bichlorure mercurique, la solution d'acide carbolique, la formaline, la chlorure de chaux, le lait de chaux.

Feu.—Parfaitement efficace, mais rarement nécessaire, vu qu'il est pratiquement possible de désinfecter quoi que ce soit par des moyens moins destructifs.

Eau bouillante.—Les effets doivent être complètement immergés dans l'eau bouillante (100° C., 212° Fahr.) pendant trente minutes au moins.

La vapeur.—On doit employer la vapeur pour les infirmeries, les cabines, pour tous les petits compartiments où elle ne causera pas trop de dommage, et pour les entreponts cloisonnés où des tuyaux à vapeur sont installés comme protection contre le feu et les compartiments sont petits.

On doit aussi s'en servir sous pression dans le vide dans des chambres spéciales pour la désinfection de toutes hardes et effets qui ne seront pas susceptibles d'être gâtés par cela.

L'exposition à la vapeur durera au moins trente minutes, la vapeur sera d'au moins 100° C 212° Fahr., et d'au plus 115° C., 239° Fahr.

Les articles que la vapeur pourrait gâter, tels que le cuir, les fourrures, peaux, caoutchouc, malles, valises, chapeaux et casquettes, chaussures, livres reliés, soies, fines laines, et articles collés ne doivent pas être désinfectés au moyen de la vapeur les articles doivent être lavés avec une solution désinfectante de bichlorure mercurique, acide carbolique ou formaline. Et ceux qui seraient gâtés en les mouillant, doivent être désinfectés au moyen d'un agent gazeux, formaldehyde ou dioxyde de soufre.

Formaldehyde.—Les cabines de navires et salons et les articles que la vapeur pourrait avarier peuvent être désinfectés par du gaz formaldehyde.

Et voici comment—

(b) Méthode formaline-permanganate. Sept onces et demie de permanganate de potasse, pulvérisé ou en aiguilles fines et une chopine de formaline pour chaque 1,000 pieds cubes d'espace à désinfecter. Le permanganate doit être mis avant la solution de formaldehyde. Le vase dans lequel le mélange est fait doit être d'une grandeur considérable autrement l'écume débordera Un seau de fer-blanc de dix pintes peut servir, et si un vase à fond large est employé, il n'est pas nécessaire qu'il soit haut. Si le fond du vase est si large que le montant voulu de permanganate le couvre à peine, et que les côtés aient huit pouces de haut il n'y aura pas de débordement dû à l'écume ou au pétillement.

La chambre où est employée l'une ou l'autre de ces méthodes doit être fermée hermétiquement durant quatre heures.

Avec la chaleur sèche de la chemise et le vide partiel là où les appareils de formaldehyde sont attachés aux chambres pour la désinfection par la vapeur, une heure d'exposition. Cette méthode a une grande force pénétrante, et est applicable surtout pour les hardes, bagage, etc., qui ne peuvent subir la vapeur.

Le gaz formaldehyde ne fait pas de tort aux tissus ni à la plupart des couleurs.

On ne peut s'y fier pour tuer les rats, ni autre vermine ou les moustiques.

Les hardes, tissus et bagage propres et en bon état, mais soupçonnés d'infection, peuvent être désinfectés le plus efficacement et avec le moins d'avarie par le formaldehyde.

Si on le désire, l'odeur du formaldehyde peut être neutralisée par l'usage d'ammoniaque sous forme gazeuse ou liquide.

Gaz de dioxyde de soufre.

(a) En brûlant pas moins de 3 livres de soufre en canon, broyé fin, par 1,000 pieds cubes d'espace. Le soufre peut être brûlé dans des pots de fer plongés dans des vaisseaux remplis d'eau. L'ignition réussit mieux par l'alcool.

(b) Ou du dioxyde de soufre liquide peut être employé, six livres du gaz liquéfié pour chaque 1,000 pieds cubes d'espace.

(c) Ou le soufre peut être brûlé dans un fourneau spécial et le dioxyde de soufre répandu par un soufflet mécanique.

La fumigation au moyen du dioxyde de soufre est surtout applicable aux cales, entreponts et autres compartiments trop grands pour la vapeur ou le formaldehyde, et qui ne contiennent pas d'objets susceptibles d'être gâtés par ce moyen. Il blanchit les tissus ou les étoffes teints de teintures végétales ou anilines. Il détruit les effets de toile ou de coton en pourrissant la fibre par les acides formés. Il avarie la plupart des métaux. Il est promptement destructif de toutes formes de vie animale. Il est en conséquence précieux pour la destruction des rats, etc., dans les navires infectés de la peste, et des moustiques dans les vaisseaux infectés de la fièvre jaune.

Dans la fumigation au soufre l'exposition doit durer douze heures au moins.

Bichlorure mercurique.—Ce désinfectant est employé sous forme de solutions pas plus faibles que 1 dans 1,000 d'eau. Sa solubilité est augmentée par l'eau salée, ou en y ajoutant 2 parties par 1,000 de chlorure de soude (ou ammonium). Il sert à arroser, laver et tremper les surfaces libres, couloirs, murs, planchers, etc., où la désinfection par la vapeur ou le gaz ne peut servir. Il gâte les métaux polis. Il est incertain pour pénétrer les substances en présence de matières albumineuses, dejecta, sputa, etc.

Ces choses sont mieux désinfectées en les brûlant ou par la chlorure de chaux ou le lait de chaux.

Acide carboliqae.—En solution de 5 pour cent peut être employé au lieu de la solution de bichlorure mercurique pour les métaux polis, morceaux brillants, etc.

EN GÉNÉRAL.

Désinfection des malles.

32. Quand il est nécessaire de désinfecter les malles, on peut le faire au moyen de la vapeur surchauffée jusqu'à la sécheresse, le dioxyde de soufre ou le gaz formaldehyde. La perforation des lettres facilitera la pénétration.

Une méthode bien simple de désinfecter les malles dans leurs sacs ou boîtes, c'est le gaz formaldehyde. Un linge mou ou un paquet de déchet de coton net peut être placé dans chaque sac ou boîte, et le formaline répandu dessus dans la proportion de 1 oz. pour chaque pied cube d'espace d'air, laissant le sac ou la boîte fermé 5 ou 6 heures.

Linges salis.

Les tissus qui sont salis par les évacuations des malades ou sont d'autre manière supposés être profondément infectés, doivent être désinfectés par l'eau bouillante, ou par la vapeur, ou en les trempant dans l'une des solutions désinfectantes ci-dessus décrites.

Ustensiles.

Les ustensiles de cuisine et les articles de table doivent être désinfectés en les trempant dans de l'eau bouillante ou par la vapeur.

Fonds de cales.

Les fonds de cales des vaisseaux infectés doivent généralement être remplis d'eau de mer ou de rivière et ensuite traités par la vapeur, ou l'une des solutions désinfectantes en grandes quantités.

Désinfection du bagage.

33. En temps de choléra ou autre épidémie, le bagage des immigrants ou passagers sur un navire arrivant à un port du Canada, que ce navire vienne ou non d'un port ou pays infecté, pourra, par ordre du Ministre de l'Agriculture, être désinfecté dans chaque cas.

(a.) Lorsque cette désinfection est faite à une station auxiliaire, subséquemment à l'inspection et acquit à la station principale, l'acquit accordé par l'officier quarantenaire portera comme condition que les immigrants et leur bagage seront débarqués pour être désinfectés.

(b) L'officier surveillant cette désinfection comptera les immigrants à mesure qu'ils débarquent, et s'il trouve que le nombre s'accorde avec le nombre marqué sur l'acquit de l'officier de quarantaine, et a une preuve satisfaisante que tout leur bagage a été débarqué avec eux, il poinçonnera l'acquit à l'endroit marqué à cette fin, et cet acquit sera alors reçu à la douane.

FRAIS ET CHARGES.

34. Toutes les inspections quarantenaires, à l'exception de celles faites en vertu de l'article 46 (a), seront faites sans frais contre le navire.

35. Tous les frais encourus pour l'entretien des personnes en santé qui pourraient avoir été exposées à l'infection, ou qui ont refusé d'être vaccinées (voir article 31*c*) et sont détenues en quarantaine d'observation, seront à la charge du navire.

Provisions et serviteurs.

Entretien des malades.

36. Les personnes actuellement malades seront traitées et soignées dans les hôpitaux de quarantaine, aux frais du gouvernement.

Transport des passagers laissés en quarantaine.

37. S'il est permis à un navire de continuer en route et de laisser ses passagers en quarantaine, le transport subséquent de tels passagers de la quarantaine au port de destination sera à la charge du navire.

Désinfection gratuite.

38. Les appareils, les matériaux et la main-d'œuvre pour désinfection sont fournis par le gouvernement sans frais contre le navire

STATIONS DE QUARANTAINE MARITIMES NON ORGANISÉES.

39. Tout port maritime où il n'y a pas de station de quarantaine régulière, ni d'officier de quarantaine régulier permanemment ou temporairement employé par le Ministre, sera constitué en station de quarantaine maritime non organisée, pour les fins des présents règlements.

L'officier des douanes sera l'officier de quarantaine.

40. Chaque percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes à toute telle station de quarantaine maritime non organisée sera l'officier de quarantaine.

Quand l'inspection médicale est ordonnée.

41. Tout percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes en sa capacité d'officier de quarantaine à une station de quarantaine maritime non organisée en Canada, qui apprend ou a raison de soupçonner la présence d'aucune des principales maladies quarantenaires citées à l'article 4 des présents règlements, ordonnera qu'il soit fait une inspection médicale du navire, de l'équipage, des passagers, etc., sur lequel cette maladie quarantenaire existe ou est soupçonnée exister.

Le médecin sera officier de quarantaine.

42. Tout médecin faisant cette inspection par ordre de l'officier de quarantaine, sera, tant qu'il sera ainsi engagé, le médecin de quarantaine.

Vaisseaux venant d'un port infecté.

43. Tout navire arrivant d'un port infecté à une station de quarantaine maritime non organisée, ou à bord duquel serait survenu quelque décès d'une maladie infectieuse ou se serait déclarée quelque maladie infectieuse pendant la traversée, restera au large jusqu'à ce qu'il reçoive de l'officier de quarantaine la permission d'entrer.

Règlements applicables généralement.

44. Tous les règlements applicables aux stations de quarantaine maritime régulièrement organisées s'appliqueront aussi à chaque station de quarantaine maritime non organisée en tant que les circonstances le permettront.

Honoraire pour inspection médicale.

45. Si un navire arrive à une station de quarantaine maritime non organisée avec de la maladie sujette à quarantaine à bord, le capitaine paiera un honoraire de $5 pour chaque inspection médicale ordonnée par l'officier de quarantaine, et cet honoraire devra être payé avant que l'acquit de douane ne soit accordé.

Vaisseau exempt de maladie.

46. S'il ne se trouve pas de maladie à bord d'un navire arrivant à une station de quarantaine maritime non organisée et que l'officier de quarantaine a ordonné d'inspecter, les frais de cette inspection ne seront pas une charge contre le navire, mais seront défrayés par le gouvernement.

Compte.

Le vaisseau pourra être envoyé à la station.

47. Si la maladie trouvée à bord d'un navire, ou l'historique, les conditions, ou les circonstances d'un navire sont telles qu'il paraîtrait au percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes que les capacités d'isolation ou de désinfection existant à une station de quarantaine maritime non organisée, sont insuffisantes pour faire face à cette maladie, il en fera rapport immédiatement au ministre de l'Agriculture, lequel pourra, à sa discrétion, ordonner que le navire se rende à une station de quarantaine organisée afin d'obtenir une patente de santé avant de pouvoir faire une déclaration en douane. Et dans ce cas les frais de transfert du navire à la station de quarantaine maritime sera une dette contre le navire.

Ile du Prince-Edouard.

STATIONS DE QUARANTAINE NON ORGANISÉES DE L'INTÉRIEUR.

Ports de frontière de l'intérieur.

49. Chaque port de l'intérieur, sur la frontière du Canada, où il n'existe pas de station de quarantaine régulière, ni d'officier de quarantaine régulier permanemment ou temporairement nommé par le Ministre, sera, pour les fins des présents règlements constitué en station de quarantaine non organisée de l'intérieur.

Le percepteur des douanes sera officier de quarantaine.

50. Chaque percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes à tout tel port de frontière, sera l'officier de quarantaine.

Inspection médicale.

51. Tout percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes, en sa capacité d'officier de quarantaine à une station de quarantaine non organisée de l'intérieur en Canada, s'il est informé ou s'il a raison de soupçonner la présence d'une des principales maladies quarantenaires citées à l'article 4 des présents règlements, devra faire faire une inspection médicale du char, wagon, véhicule, bateau ou chose apportant cette maladie.

Percepteur pourra détenir le char, etc.

(a) Et ce percepteur ou sous-percepteur est autorisé à détenir ce char, wagon, véhicule, bateau ou chose, jusqu'à ce que cette inspection médicale ait été faite à sa satisfaction.

Médecin sera officier de quarantaine.

(b) Le médecin faisant cette inspection par ordre de l'officier de quarantaine sera, tant qu'il sera ainsi employé, l'officier de santé de quarantaine.

Vaccination.

52. Et cet officier de santé de quarantaine sera autorisé à faire vacciner les personnes qu'il jugera en avoir besoin, ou, si elles refusent d'être vaccinées, de les empêcher d'entrer en Canada.

Honoraire pour inspection médicale.

53. L'honoraire payable à ce médecin de quarantaine pour chaque telle inspection n'excédera pas la somme de $5, et dans le cas où il se découvrirait une maladie sujette à la quarantaine, cet honoraire sera payable par la compagnie ou propriétaire du char, wagon, véhicule, bateau ou chose apportant la maladie.

Compte.

(a) En soumettant un compte pour une inspection médicale ordonnée par lui, le percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes l'accompagnera d'un certificat énonçant les raisons de son action. (Voir Formule No 6 ci-annexée.)

Détention des véhicules infectés.

54. Le percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes en sa capacité d'officier de quarantaine devra, sur le rapport du médecin de quarantaine, s'il découvrait quelqu'une des principales maladies quarantenaires, faire détenir le char, wagon, véhicule, bateau ou chose apportant une personne atteinte de cette maladie infectieuse, jusqu'à ce que les exigences des présents règlements aient été remplies à sa satisfaction.

Personnes infectées n'entreront pas en Canada.

(a) Toute telle personne malade ne pourra pas entrer au Canada tant que le médecin de quarantaine ne jugera pas sûr de lui permettre ;

Le véhicule pourra s'en retourner.

(b) Tout char, wagon, véhicule, bateau ou chose apportant cette personne malade à la frontière pourra s'en retourner plutôt que de subir la détention quarantenaire ; ou

Isolement des personnes infectées.

(c) Le percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes, en sa capacité d'officier de quarantaine devra, à sa discrétion sur le rapport du médecin de quarantaine, faire enlever et isoler cette personne malade dans un char ou bateau mis à part dans ce but, ou dans une bâtisse convenable, assez éloignée des autres bâtiments pour prévenir tout contact ou infection.

Désinfection.

Règlements généralement applicables.

55. Tous les règlements applicables aux stations de quarantaine maritime organisées s'appliqueront aussi à chaque station de quarantaine de l'intérieur non organisé, en tant que les circonstances le permettent.

Cessation du trafic des passagers.

56. Dans le cas où l'une des principales maladies quarantenaires sévirait dans une partie des Etats-Unis par où passe une voie ferrée qui traverse la frontière du Canada, et dans le cas où il n'y aurait pas à ce point de la frontière d'arrangements et d'appareils propices pour enrayer la marche de cette maladie épidémique, le Gouverneur en conseil pourra, par arrêté publié dans la Gazette du Canada, basé sur un rapport, ordonner la cessation complète du trafic des passagers à cet endroit ; ou y apporter telle restriction que les circonstances justifieront.

LES OFFICIERS DE QUARANTAINE DONNERONT LES ORDRES NÉCESSAIRES—NE POURRONT RECEVOIR D'HONORAIRE NI DE GRATIFICATION.

57. Chaque officier de quarantaine est autorisé à donner tout ordre nécessaire, ou faire tout acte nécessaire pour l'exécution des présents règlements, et il est de son devoir de signaler toute infraction à ces règlements, immédiatement au ministre de l'Agriculture ;

Honoraires ou gratifications défendus.

Infractions.

(b) Toute personne qui connaîtra de quelque infraction aux présents règlements devra immédiatement en faire rapport au ministre de l'Agriculture.

AMENDES.

Pilotes.

58. Chaque pilote sera muni d'exemplaires imprimés les présents règlements, et il en donnera un au capitaine de tout navire venant d'un port en dehors du Canada, aussitôt en montant à bord, sous peine d'une amende de $50.

Officiers des douanes.

59. Chaque percepteur des douanes, ou officier des douanes, sera passible d'une amende de $400, et de l'emprisonnement pendant six mois, s'il permet la déclaration en douane d'un navire qui n'aura pas un acquit de quarantaine conformément aux prescriptions des présents règlements.

Capitaine, etc.

60. Chaque capitaine d'un navire sera passible d'une amende de $400 et d'un emprisonnement de six mois, s'il contrevient à aucun des susdits règlements. Le navire répondra de l'amende imposée au capitaine.

Chirurgien de navire.

61. Tout chirurgien de navire ou autre officier qui manquera de répondre avec exacte vérité aux questions contenues dans la formule ci-jointe, sera passible d'une amende de $400, ou d'un emprisonnement de six mois.

Honoraires ou gratifications.

62. Toute infraction au paragraphe a de l'article des présents règlements sera considérée être un manquement de devoirs entraînant la démission.

Lundi, le 10e jour de juin 1907.

PRÉSENT :

SON EXCELLENCE LE GOUVERNEUR GÉNÉRAL EN CONSEIL.

IL plaît au Gouverneur général en conseil, en vertu des dispositions de l'article 28, chapitre 75, Statuts revisés du Canada, 1906, d'ordonner que l'arrêté en conseil du 23e jour de juillet 1906, établissant des règleglements à l'effet d'extirper la maladie de la gale des bestiaux dans les provinces de la Saskatchewan et d'Alberta, soit et il est par le présent rescindé et remplacé par ce qui suit :

Il plaît en outre à Son Excellence en conseil, en vertu des dispositions de l'article 31, chapitre 75 des Statuts revisés du Canada, 1906, d'ordonner que les présents règlements soient publiés deux fois dans la Gazette du Canada.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,
Greffier du Conseil privé.

DOMINION DU CANADA.

RÈGLEMENTS CONCERNANT LA GALE DES BESTIAUX.

Attendu que la maladie de la gale des bestiaux existe parmi le bétail dans toutes les régions des provinces de la Saskatchewan et Alberta décrites comme étant bornées par la frontière internationale, les Montagnes Rocheuses et une ligne tirée comme suit :—

Une ligne depuis les Montagnes Rocheuses longeant la frontière nord de la Réserve des Assiniboines, jusqu'à la ligne entre les rangs 5 et 6 à l'ouest du 5e méridien, de là au nord longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la ligne entre les townships 28 et 29, de là à l'est longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la ligne du chemin de fer Calgary et Edmonton, de là au nord longeant le chemin de fer Calgary et Edmonton jusqu'à la ligne entre les townships 30 et 31, de là à l'est longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la ligne entre les rangs 26 et 27 à l'ouest du 4e méridien principal, de là au nord longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la ligne entre les townships 34 et 35, de là à l'est longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la rivière du Daim, de là au nord longeant la dite rivière du Daim jusqu'à la ligne entre les townships 38 et 39, de là à l'est longeant la dite ligne jusqu'au 4e méridien principal, de là au sud longeant le 4e méridien principal jusqu'à la rivière du Daim, de là longeant les rivières du Daim et Saskatchewan jusqu'à la ligne entre les rangs 7 et 8 à l'ouest du 3e méridien, de là au sud longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la ligne entre les townships 10 et 11, de là à l'est longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la ligne entre les rangs 20 et 21 à l'ouest du 2e méridien, de là au sud jusqu'à la ligne frontière internationale.

Et attendu qu'il est de la plus haute importance pour les intérêts des propriétaires de bétail et pour la conservation d'un marché profitable pour le bétail de l'ouest que la politique adoptée en 1904 soit continuée dans le but d'extirper la maladie en question ;

Qu'après mûre considération et une enquête soigneuse il a été décidé que la période entre le 1er de juin et le 15 août est la plus convenable et la plus facile pour le traitement dans le but susdit,—

A ces causes, il plaît au Gouverneur général en conseil, en vertu des dispositions de l'article 28 de la Loi des épizooties, chapitre 75 des Statuts revisés du Canada, 1906, d'ordonner que la région du pays ci-dessus décrite sera et elle est par le présent déclarée lieu infecté, et que toutes personnes possédant ou ayant la charge de bestiaux dans la région ci-dessus décrite, devront, durant la dite période, immerger ou autrement traiter les dits animaux à la satisfaction des officiers du ministère de l'Agriculture, pourvu que dans le cas où il sera démontré à la satisfaction des dits officiers que des animaux gardés enclos dans une étendue ou district bien défini dans la dite région ne sont pas atteints, et n'ont pas été exposés d'une façon quelconque à la contagion de la gale, ou ont été durant la dite période traités d'une manière satisfaisante et ensuite isolés de tous autres bestiaux, le directeur vétérinaire général pourra, en étant informé des faits, exempter cette étendue ou district du traitement compulsoire, mais cette disposition ne s'appliquera en aucun cas aux animaux gardés sur des ranches ouverts, ou sur du terrain non clôturé.

Un traitement satisfaisant consiste—

(a) En l'immersion pendant deux minutes au moins dans une solution de chaux et de soufre d'une force d'au moins dix livres de chaux et vingt-quatre livres de soufre pour cent gallons d'eau préparée d'après les prescriptions des officiers du ministère de l'Agriculture ; le fluide devant être appliqué à une température d'au moins 105 degrés et d'au plus 110 degrés Fahrenheit, et le traitement devant être renouvelé après un intervalle d'au moins dix et d'au plus quinze jours.

(b) En une immersion complète, ou saturation efficace au moyen de l'arrosage ou autrement, à la satisfaction de l'inspecteur en charge, d'une émulsion de pétrole cru, d'eau douce et de savon dur, préparée par le mélange préalable de ces ingrédients dans la proportion de—

Pétrole cru.....	2 gallons.
Eau douce chaude.....	½ gallon.
Savon dur	½ livre.

Le mélange ainsi formé sera subséquemment dilué dans au moins sept et au plus quinze fois son volume d'eau douce.

Le traitement de pétrole cru ou de kérosine sous toute forme, autre qu'une émulsion telle que ci-dessus décrite, ne sera pas reconnu par le ministère.

Lorsque la chose sera approuvée par l'inspecteur en charge du district dans lequel sont gardés les animaux à traiter, les personnes possédant ou en charge de trou-peaux d'au plus 30 têtes, pourront traiter leurs bestiaux à la main, et dans ce cas soit l'émulsion décrite plus haut soit la préparation ci-dessous sera employée :

Soufre	2 livres.
Huile de goudron	8 onces.
Huile de graine de lin crue	1 gallon

Si un propriétaire manque de traiter ou de faire une préparation satisfaisante pour le traitement de ses bestiaux le ou avant le 1er août, les dispositions de l'arrêté en conseil établi le 27 juin 1904, concernant le traitement compulsoire tel que décrit plus bas, sera mis en vigueur.

" Chaque inspecteur vétérinaire, et chaque personne dûment autorisée par un inspecteur vétérinaire, aura plein pouvoir d'ordonner que les animaux atteints de la gale ou soupçonnés en être atteints soient rassemblés pour inspection, et, si la chose est nécessaire, être détenus, isolés et traités en conformité des instructions de l'inspecteur vétérinaire."

Les frais encourus par ce rassemblement, isolation et traitement seront à la charge des propriétaires des animaux, et si l'inspecteur ou autre personne autorisée les a avancés, ils resteront, jusqu'à ce qu'ils soient payés, prélevables sur les dits animaux, sans préjudice toutefois du recouvrement de toute amende imposée pour violation des présents règlements.

Si ces frais ne sont pas payés sous vingt jours de la date où ils ont été encourus, l'inspecteur ou autre personne dûment autorisée pourra faire vendre les dits animaux à l'enchère publique, après avoir signifié au propriétaire dix jours d'avis par écrit de son intention de vendre, cet avis sera effectivement donné, si le propriétaire est connu, en le lui donnant en personne, ou en le lui envoyant par la poste à sa dernière adresse connue. Si le propriétaire est inconnu, cet avis sera effectivement donné en la publiant une fois dans un journal publié ou circulant dans le district où ces animaux sont détenus. Les produits de cette vente seront appliqués d'abord au paiement des dépenses raisonnables du rassemblement, de l'isolation, du traitement, de l'avis et de la conduite de la vente, et la balance, s'il y en a, sera remise au propriétaire des dits animaux à sa demande. Toute balance restant impayée sera remise au Ministre, et si elle n'est pas réclamée sous douze mois de la date de la vente, elle sera versée au crédit du Receveur général.

Il plaît en outre au Gouverneur général en conseil d'ordonner que nul bétail autre que celui consigné à Winnipeg ou à des endroits du Canada à l'est de Winnipeg, ne sera déplacé ni ne sera sorti de la région ci-dessus décrite, à moins d'être accompagné du certificat d'un inspecteur du ministère de l'Agriculture, énonçant que ce bétail a été examiné par lui et trouvé exempt de contagion de la gale, ou qu'il peut être expédié pour abatage immédiat tel que prescrit plus loin. Tout tel bétail, toutefois, sera, si l'inspecteur le juge à propos, détenu, immergé, arrosé ou autrement traité de la manière que le directeur général vétérinaire prescrira de temps à autre.

Nulle compagnie de chemin de fer n'acceptera ni ne chargera un envoi d'animaux à un point dans la dite région pour aucun endroit à l'ouest de Winnipeg ou pour être exporté aux Etats-Unis ou ailleurs vià aucun point sur la frontière internationale à l'ouest de Winnipeg, à moins que cet envoi ne soit accompagné du certificat d'un inspecteur.

Les animaux provenant de l'ouest de Winnipeg, que ce soit dans la région ci-dessus décrite ou non, consignés à Winnipeg ou à des endroits à l'est de Winnipeg, seront inspectés à Winnipeg, et nulle compagnie de chemin de fer ne relâchera ces animaux à Winnipeg ni ne chargera ces animaux pour être réexpédiés de là, avant que ces animaux n'aient été soumis en plein jour à un inspecteur du ministère de l'Agriculture et prononcés par lui exempts de la gale des bestiaux, et d'autres maladies contagieuses ou infectieuses.

Les animaux qui après inspection seront trouvés atteints de la gale des bestiaux ou autre maladies contagieuse ou infectieuse seront traités selon que l'ordonnera l'inspecteur.

Aux endroits où des bestiaux du dit district sont déchargés, ils seront placés dans des cours spéciales, et ces cours ne serviront à nulle autre fin et seront nettoyées et désinfectées quand un inspecteur l'ordonnera.

Tous les wagons et autres véhicules employés au transport de ces bestiaux seront nettoyés et désinfectés à la satisfaction d'un inspecteur aussitôt que possible après avoir été déchargés et avant d'être employés à un autre envoi.

Toutes les factures et connaissements qui accompagnent des envois de bestiaux provenant du dit district porteront à leur face lisiblement écrit ou étampé, un avis à l'effet que les dits wagons doivent être nettoyés et désinfectés immédiatement après avoir été déchargés.

Les animaux qui sont atteints ou ont été exposés à la contagion de la gale peuvent être expédiés pour abatage immédiat à des endroits dans la région plus haut décrite aux conditions suivantes :

A moins qu'ils ne soient chargés dans des cours spéciales et chutes réservées exclusivement à ces envois, toutes les cours et chutes employées par eux seront déclarées lieux infectés et ne seront pas une seconde fois employées à l'envoi de bétail sain sans avoir été nettoyées et désinfectées à la satisfaction de l'inspecteur ; on ne les laissera pas venir en contact avec d'autres animaux ; ils seront directement consignés qu'aux abattoirs dans la région plus haut décrite qui sont munis de cours et chutes privées ; ils ne seront pas déchargés à aucun point en route et ne seront pour aucune raison que ce soit déplacés vivants de l'abattoir ou des cours et lieux qui y sont attachés.

Les wagons qui transportent ces animaux seront nettoyés et désinfectés à la satisfaction d'un inspecteur immédiatement après avoir été déchargés.

Le transit d'animaux dans la dite région sera permis aux conditions suivantes :—

Les animaux pour transit par rail dans la dite région d'une partie du Canada à une autre partie, seront, aux endroits où le déchargement est nécessaire, placés dans des cours réservées à leur usage exclusif, et on ne devra pas permettre qu'ils viennent en contact avec des animaux qui proviennent de la dite région.

Les animaux importés des Etats-Unis dans la dite région, et en destination de points en Canada en dehors de la dite région, en conformité des règlements de quarantaine, et en vertu des dispositions de l'article immédiatement précédent, pourront passer sans délai inutile dans la dite région directement à leur destination sans autres restrictions. 50-2

HOTEL DU GOUVERNEMENT A OTTAWA.

Jeudi, le 9e jour de mai 1907.

PRÉSENT :

SON EXCELLENCE LE GOUVERNEUR GÉNÉRAL EN CONSEIL.

IL plaît au Gouverneur général en conseil de faire les règlements ci-dessous concernant la concession de droits miniers de houille appartenant à la Couronne dans les provinces du Manitoba, de la Saskatchewan et d'Alberta, le territoire du Yukon, les territoires du Nord-Ouest, la zone du chemin de fer dans la province de la Colombie-Britannique, et dans la région de trois millions et demi d'acres de terre acquise de la province de la Colombie-Britannique par le gouvernement fédéral en vertu des dispositions du chapitre 59 des Statuts revisés du Canada, 1906.

1. Les droits d'extraire de la houille appartenant à la Couronne dans les provinces du Manitoba, de la Saskatchewan et d'Alberta, le territoire du Yukon, les territoires du Nord-Ouest, la zone du chemin de fer dans la province de la Colombie-Britannique, et dans la région de trois millions et demi d'acres de terre acquise de la province de la Colombie-Britannique par le gouvernement fédéral en vertu du chapitre 59 des Statuts revisés du Canada, 1906, peuvent être affermés pour une durée de vingt-et-un ans, moyennant une rente annuelle de $1.00 par acre, payable annuellement d'avance.

2. Aucun requérant ne pourra prendre à bail plus que 2,560 acres.

3. Si la région demandée est située dans un territoire arpenté, elle sera composée de sections ou subdivisions légales de sections, mais les divers lopins composant la région devront être contigus, et toute l'étendue demandée ne devra pas excéder quatre milles dans sa plus grande dimension. Dans un territoire non arpenté, si la région demandée est située de telle manière qu'une description définie puisse être fournie par sections et subdivisions légales de sections, une demande de droits miniers de houille pourra être admise en vertu des dispositions du présent article.

5. Si les droits miniers de houille qu'un requérant désire affermer sont situés dans un territoire non arpenté, la demande sera déposée au bureau de l'agent des terres fédérales pour le district dans lequel sont situés les droits demandés, ou au bureau du sous-agent pour le dit district afin d'être transmises au ministère de l'Intérieur par l'agent, et en faisant sa demande le requérant sera libre de se conformer à l'un ou l'autre des articles numérotés 6 et 7 ci-dessous.

6. La demande devra contenir une description par tenants et aboutissants de la région demandée, et devra être accompagnée d'un plan indiquant la position de cette région relativement à quelque éminence topographique ou autre point connu. Le plan contiendra assez de données pour permettre que la situation de la région demandée soit bien définie dans les archives du ministère. Cette région devra être de forme rectangulaire, sauf là où la borne d'une région déjà délimitée est adoptée pour servir de borne commune à deux concessions, la longueur ne devant pas excéder quatre fois la largeur, et les lignes de bornage seront vrai nord et sud et vrai est et ouest.

La demande sera accompagnée de preuves appuyées d'un affidavit, à l'effet que les prescriptions suivantes ont été exactement remplies :—

(a) Que la région demandée a été dûment définie sur le terrain en plantant un poteau de bois d'au moins quatre pouces carrés, et sortant d'au moins quatre pieds de terre, à un angle ou coin de la dite région ;

(b) Sur ce poteau seront inscrits le nom du requérant, la date de la délimitation, l'angle représenté par le poteau, et la longueur et la direction des bornes de la région demandée. Ainsi : concession minière de A.B., angle N.E. (c'est-à-dire angle nord-est), ce claim s'étend trois milles à l'ouest et un mille au sud de ce poteau, selon le cas ;

(c) Qu'un avis écrit ou imprimé a été affiché sur une partie bien visible de la région demandée énonçant l'intention du requérant de demander, sous trente jours de la date de cet avis, un bail de droits miniers de houille au-dessous de la dite région.

7. Si le requérant désire suivre aussi près que possible un filon de houille qu'il a découvert au lieu d'adopter la procédure établie par le paragraphe précédent, il peut demander un bail pour extraire de la houille en dessous d'une région le long de ce filon, dont la longueur totale n'excèdera pas 21,120 pieds, et la longueur ne devra pas excéder quatre fois la largeur. Tous les angles devront être à angles droits, sauf là où la ligne de bornage d'une région déjà déterminée est adoptée commune à deux emplacements, mais les bornes ne seront pas nécessairement vrai nord et sud et vrai est et ouest.

Lorsque la région qu'un requérant désire a été délimité il marquera immédiatement la ligne entre le poteau No

(d) La demande sera accompagnée de preuves appuyées d'un affidavit, à l'effet que les prescriptions ci-dessus ont été exactement remplies :—

(Exemples des divers modes de tracer des concessions houillères en vertu l'article 7 des présents règlement)

8. Les demandes d'un bail de droits miniers locaux en dessous de terrains situés dans un territoire non arpenté seront déposées au bureau de l'agent des terres fédéraies pour le district dans lequel est située la région demandée, ou au bureau du sous-agent pour le district, sous trente jours à compter de la date à laquelle la région demandée est délimitée, autrement elle ne sera pas prise en considération.

Lorsque deux personnes ou plus réclament la même concession, ou des parties des mêmes concessions, le droit d'acquérir un bail appartiendra à celui qui prouvera à la satisfaction du Ministre qu'il était le premier en possession de la région en litige au moyen de la délimitation prescrite par les présents règlements, et qu'il a demandé un bail pour cette région sous le délai spécifié.

9. Aussitôt que l'arpentage d'un township a été confirmé, tous les baux miniers comprenant toute partie de ce township ainsi arpenté et confirmé seront rendus conformes au système géodésique fédéral, par la substitution d'un nouveau bail décrivant par sections, subdivisions légales de sections, ou parties régulières de subdivisions aussi près que possible, la région renfermée dans le bail, en tant qu'il s'agit du township ainsi arpenté.

La balance du bail qui restera dans le territoire non arpenté continuera d'être décrite comme dans le bail primitivement délivré, jusqu'à ce que cette dite partie soit incluse dans un arpentage confirmé.

10. Aussitôt que l'arpentage d'un township a été confirmé, tous les baux houillers comprenant une partie quelconque du township ainsi arpenté et confirmé seront assujétis au retrait du bail, sans compensation aux locataires, de toutes parties qui conformément à cet arpentage seront trouvées être la propriété de la Compagnie de la Baie d'Hudson.

11. Le bail ne comprendra que les droits miniers de houille, mais le locataire pourra, sur demande, acheter au taux de $10 l'acre toute étendue des droits de surface disponibles que le Ministre jugera nécessaires pour l'exploitation efficace et économique des droits miniers de houille accordés en vertu de ce bail.

12. Le locataire commencera des opérations actives sur sa concession sous un an de la date à laquelle il sera averti de le faire par l'officier compétent du ministère de l'Intérieur, et produira de ces opérations la quantité de houille spécifiée dans le dit avis. Cet avis ne sera pas donné avant l'expiration d'au moins un an à compter de la date du bail, et énoncera la quantité de houille que le locataire est tenu d'extraire et produire à la bouche du puits prête à être expédiée, mais cette quantité pourra toutefois être augmentée par avis de temps à autre, mais la quantité maximun à extraire ne devra jamais excéder dix tonnes par année pour chaque acre affermé. Si les opérations ne sont pas commencées dans le délai spécifié dans l'avis, ou si la quantité requise de houille n'est pas extraite durant chaque année, le bail sera passible d'être annulé à la discrétion du Ministre.

13. Le locataire ne devra pas céder, transférer ou sous-louer les droits décrits dans son bail, ou toute partie d'iceux, sans le consentement par écrit du Ministre.

14. Les limites souterraines d'une concession houillère correspondront en lignes verticales avec les lignes tirées à la surface.

15. Tous les baux de droits miniers de houille délivrés en vertu des présents règlements seront subordonnés à la condition que les colons réels auront droit d'acheter à la bouche du puits toute la houille dont ils peuvent avoir besoin pour leur propre usage, mais non pour vente ou trafic, à un prix n'excédant pas $1.75 par tonne, et le bail délivré pour droits houillers comportera cette stipulation.

16. Un honoraire de $5 devra accompagner chaque demande d'un bail, et cet honoraire sera remboursé si les droits demandés ne sont pas disponibles, mais non autrement.

17. Le bail sera en la forme prescrite par le ministre de l'Intérieur, conformément aux dispositions des présent règlements.

18. En sus de la rente, un droit régalien au taux de 5 cents par tonne de 2,000 livres, sera prélevé et perçu sur le rendement marchand de la mine, et il faudra que la personne qui exploite une mine fournisse à l'agent des terres fédérales un état assermenté, mensuellement, aux dates que fixera le ministre de l'Intérieur, de la quantité marchande de houille extraite, et qu'il paie le droit régalien au taux ci-dessus.

19. Chaque locataire de droits miniers de houille qui ne sont pas en voie d'exploitation fournira à l'agent des terres fédérales un état assermenté à cet effet au moins une fois par année.

20. Le défaut de payer le droit régalien, ou de fournir les états, dans les trente jours après que l'avis a été affiché à la mine, ou à un endroit bien visible sur la propriété au sujet de laquelle ce paiement est demandé par l'agent des terres fédérales, ou par ses ordres, entraînera l'annulation du bail, ou l'imposition d'une amende, au choix du ministre de l'Intérieur.

21. Toute tentative de frauder la Couronne en cachant une partie quelconque du revenu établi, ou en faisant de faux états du montant extrait, entraînera une amende ou l'annulation du bail au sujet duquel la fraude ou le faux état a été commise ou fait, au choix du Ministre. Quant aux faits concernant cette fraude, ou ces faux états ou non-paiement du droit régalien ou défaut de faire des rapports, la décision du Ministre sera définitive.

22. Lorsque le locataire des droits miniers de houille ne peut s'entendre avec le propriétaire des droits de surface, ou son agent, ou l'occupant du terrain, pour l'acquisition de la partie des droits de surface nécessaire à l'opération efficace et économique des droits acquis en vertu de son bail, l'étendue de la surface à acquérir, sa situation exacte, ou le montant de la compensation à adjuger, il pourra s'adresser au ministre de l'Intérieur pour avoir la permission de soumettre le différend en question à l'arbitrage, et en recevant cette permission par écrit il lui sera loisible de donner avis au propriétaire ou son agent ou à l'occupant de nommer un arbitre pour agir de concert avec un autre arbitre nommé par lui, à l'effet de fixer la compensation à laquelle le propriétaire ou occupant a droit. L'avis mentionné ici sera selon une formule qu'on peut obtenir de l'agent des terres fédérales pour le district dans lequel sont situés les terrains en question, et, lorsque possible, cet avis sera signifié en personne à tel propriétaire, ou son agent, s'il est connu, ou occupant ; et après avoir fait des efforts raisonnables pour signifier l'avis à la personne même, alors cet avis sera signifié en le laissant, ou l'envoyant par lettre enregistrée, à la dernière résidence du propriétaire, agent ou occupant ou en en affichant une copie dans le bureau de l'agent des terres fédérales pour le district dans lequel est situé le terrain en question. Cet avis sera signifié, si le propriétaire ou agent réside dans le district dans lequel sont situés les terrains, dix jours, s'ils sont en dehors du district et dans la province ou territoire, vingt jours, et s'ils sont en dehors de la province ou territoire, trente jours, avant l'expiration du temps fixé dans cet avis. Si le propriétaire refuse ou néglige de nommer un arbitre ou lorsque, pour quelque autre raison, le propriétaire ne nomme pas d'arbitre à l'époque fixée à cette fin dans l'avis prescrit par le présent article, l'agent des terres fédérales pour le district dans lequel les terrains en question sont situés devra, sur affidavit que cet avis est parvenu à la connaissance de ce propriétaire, agent ou occupant, ou que ce propriétaire, agent ou occupant élude volontairement la signification de cet avis, ou ne peut être trouvé, et que des efforts raisonnables ont été faits pour effectuer cette signification, et que l'avis a été laissé au dernier domicile de ce propriétaire, agent ou occupant, nommer un arbitre pour lui.

24. En faisant cette évaluation, les arbitres détermineront la valeur du terrain sans égard à la plus-value causée par la présence des minéraux en icelui.

25. Dans le cas où ces arbitres ne pourraient s'entendre, ils pourront choisir un tiers-arbitre, et lorsque les deux arbitres ne pourront s'entendre sur un tiers arbitre, l'agent des terres fédérales pour le district dans lequel sont situés les terrains en question, choisira ce tiers-arbitre.

26. La sentence de deux arbitres rendue par écrit, sera finale, et sera déposée au bureau de l'agent des terres fédérales pour le district où sont situés les terrains.

27. Les arbitres auront droit de recevoir une allocation de $5.00 par jour, ainsi que les frais de route et d'hôtellerie nécessaires tant qu'ils seront engagés dans l'arbitrage, et les frais de cet arbitrage seront supportés par parts égales par le locataire et le propriétaire des droits de surface.

SÉNAT.

Substance des règles et formes de procéder du Sénat concernant les bills de divorce.

Telles que revisées et mises en vigueur le 22 mars 1906.

Tout pétitionnaire en divorce doit annoncer son intention de demander un bill de divorce, par un avis spécifiant contre qui et pour quelle cause le divorce sera demandé ; il fait insérer cet avis, pendant trois mois au moins avant la prise en considération par le comité des divorces de sa pétition pour obtenir le bill, dans la Gazette du Canada et dans deux journaux—du district où il avait sa résidence habituelle à l'époque de sa séparation d'avec son conjoint, s'il résidait alors dans la province de Québec, le Manitoba, la Saskatchewan, l'Alberta, la Colombie-Britannique ou les Territoires du Nord-Ouest,—ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, s'il résidait dans une autre province ; et à défaut de ce nombre de journaux, l'avis doit se publier dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Dans les provinces de Québec et du Manitoba, les insertions doivent se faire dans un journal anglais et un journal français, s'il en existe des deux langues dans le district ; autrement, elles se font en anglais et en français au même journal. Si l'avis donné pour une session expire trop tard pour qu'il puisse être statué sur la pétition pendant cette session, la pétition pourra être présentée et accueillie à la session suivante sans nouvelle publication d'avis.

Une copie de cet avis et une copie de la pétition qui sera présentée doit, à la diligence du pétitionnaire et au moins deux mois avant la prise en considération de la pétition par le comité, être signifiée en main propre si cela est possible, à la personne contre laquelle le divorce sera demandé, ci-après appelée "partie défenderesse".

Si la résidence de la partie défenderesse n'est par connue, ou que la remise de l'avis ne peut être faite en ses mains, s'il est prouvé, d'une manière jugée satisfaisante par le comité, que tous les efforts raisonnables ont été faits pour opérer la signification en main propre, et, en cas d'inutilité de ces efforts, pour porter l'avis et la pétition à la connaissance de la partie défenderesse, ces diligences peuvent être tenues pour une suffisante notification.

Aucune pétition en divorce n'est reçevable après l'expiration des soixante premiers jours de la session.

Toute pétition en divorce doit être écrite lisiblement et porter la signature du pétitionnaire. Elle énonce sommairement le fait du mariage, en indiquant les noms au long, l'âge et l'état des parties, en quel temps, en quel lieu et par qui a été faite la célébration ; le domicile et la résidence de chacune des parties à l'époque du mariage, leur domicile conjugal, leur résidence et tout changement qui en aurait eu lieu ; les faits essentiels sur lesquels est fondée la demande de redressement et la nature du redressement demandé.

Les allégations de la pétition doivent être appuyées d'une déclaration du pétitionnaire, faite conformément à l'Acte de la preuve en Canada, 1893.

La copie de la pétition signifiée à la partie défenderesse portera en endos ou en annexe les renseignements suivants :

(1) La résidence du pétitionnaire à l'époque de la signification.

(2) Une adresse postale en Canada à laquelle les lettres et avis pour le pétitionnaire puissent être délivrés.

(3) Le nom et l'adresse de l'avocat, s'il y en a un, agissant pour le pétitionnaire.

(4) Si cet avocat n'a pas d'adresse à Ottawa, le nom et l'adresse de quelque agent le représentant à Ottawa, à qui tous avis et pièces puissent être signifiés.

(5) Si la partie défenderesse veut s'opposer à la demande en divorce et être entendue par le comité des divorces du Sénat, elle doit adresser un avis à cet effet au greffier du Sénat aux édifices du Parlement, Ottawa, dans les deux mois de la signification faite à la partie défenderesse et donner dans cet avis au greffier du Sénat :

(a) La résidence de la partie défenderesse à l'époque de l'envoi de l'avis.

(b) Une adresse postale en Canada à laquelle les lettres et avis pour la partie défenderesse puissent être délivrés.

(c) Le nom et l'adresse de l'avocat, s'il y en a un, agissant pour la partie défenderesse.

(d) Si cet avocat n'a pas d'adresse à Ottawa, le nom et l'adresse de quelque agent le représentant à Ottawa, à qui tous avis et pièces puissent être signifiés.

(6) Si la partie défenderesse ne notifie pas ainsi le greffier du Sénat, la pétition peut être prise en considération, et un bill de divorce basé sur cette pétition peut suivre son cours sans autre avis à la partie défenderesse.

(7) Lorsque la pétition est présentée par un mari pour obtenir le divorce contre sa femme, si celle-ci fait voir au comité d'une manière satisfaisante qu'elle peut opposer et qu'elle est prête à produire sous serment de bons moyens de défense contre les accusations portées dans la pétition, et qu'elle n'a pas l'argent nécessaire pour faire valoir ces moyens, le comité peut rendre un ordre que son mari ait à lui fournir la somme nécessaire pour qu'elle puisse présenter sa défense en retenant les service d'un conseil, payer ses frais de voyage et de séjour et ceux des témoins assignés de sa part à Ottawa.

La pétition en obtention d'un bill de divorce n'est prise en considération par le comité que lorsque le pétitionnaire a versé au bureau du greffier du Sénat une somme de $210.

La pétition, au moment de sa présentation au Sénat doit être accompagnée de la preuve de la publication d'avis et d'une déclaration établissant qu'une copie de l'avis de la pétition a été signifiée.

Une copie de toute pétition en obtention d'un bill de divorce, ou relative à quelque demande de divorce,—et une copie de tous documents et papiers accompagnant cette pétition, ou à produire devant le comité, devra être fournie par la personne au nom de laquelle la pétition, les documents ou les papiers seront présentés ou produits.

SAML. E. ST. O. CHAPLEAU,
Greffier du Sénat.

SENAT.

Avis de bills privés.

EXTRAIT DES RÈGLES DU SÉNAT.

107. Toute demande au Parlement, pour obtenir un bill privé, de quelque nature qu'il soit, doit être annoncée par avis inséré à la Gazette du Canada ; cet avis doit indiquer d'une manière claire et précise la nature et l'objet de la demande, être signé par les pétitionnaires ou en leur nom et contenir l'adresse des signataires ; et si elle a pour objet l'obtention d'un acte constitutif, il faut donner aussi dans l'avis le nom de la compagnie projetée.

Outre l'avis à insérer dans la Gazette du Canada, il doit en être publié un semblable, comme il suit :—

A. Lorsque la demande a pour objet l'obtention d'un acte constituant en corporation,—

1. Une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal,—dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité ou ville ou le principal village de chaque comté ou district par où passerait le chemin de fer ou le canal dont la construction est projetée ;

2. Une compagnie de télégraphe ou de téléphone,—dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité ou ville de chaque province ou territoire où elle se propose d'opérer ;

3. Une compagnie pour la confection de travaux quelconques, dont la confection ou l'exploitation intéresserait spécialement telle localité particulière ; ou une compagnie tendant à obtenir des droits ou privilèges exclusifs, ou l'autorisation de faire une chose dont l'opération pourrait porter atteinte aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui,—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit ou des endroits que l'acte demandé intéresse ;

4. Une compagnie de banque ; une compagnie d'assurance ; une compagnie de crédit ; une compagnie de prêt, ou une compagnie industrielle, sans pouvoirs exclusifs,—dans la Gazette du Canada seulement ;

5. Et si les travaux d'une compagnie (constituée ou à constituer) doivent être déclarés d'utilité générale pour le Canada, cette intention sera spécifiquement mentionnée dans l'avis ; et les requérants feront envoyer par lettre enregistrée une copie de cet avis au secrétaire de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale spécialement intéressée dans la construction ou l'exploitation de ces travaux, ainsi qu'au secrétaire de la province dans laquelle ces travaux sont ou seront situés ; et la preuve de l'accomplissement de cette prescription par les requérants devra s'établir par une déclaration statutaire.

B. Lorsque la demande a pour objet de modifier un acte existant,—

1. Afin de prolonger une ligne de chemin de fer ou un canal, ou de construire des embranchements qui s'y relient, l'avis sera le même, mutatis mutandis, que celui pour l'obtention d'un acte constituant en corporation une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal ;

2. Afin de proroger le délai fixé pour la confection ou l'achèvement d'une ligne de chemin de fer, d'un canal, d'une ligne télégraphique ou téléphonique, ou d'autres travaux quelconques déjà autorisés,—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit où la compagnie a son siège ou est autorisée à avoir son siège ;

3. Afin d'étendre les pouvoirs d'une compagnie (sans attribution de pouvoirs exclusifs) ; d'accroître ou de réduire le capital-actions d'une compagnie, ou d'augmenter ou modifier sa faculté d'émettre des obligations ou de faire des emprunts, ou d'effectuer des changements pouvant porter atteinte aux droits ou intérêts des actionnaires, obligataires ou créanciers de la compagnie,—dans un des principaux journaux du lieu de la situation de son siège.

c. Dans tous ces cas, les avis insérés soit à la Gazette du Canada ou dans les journaux, doivent se publier au moins une fois par semaine pendant cinq semaines consécutives ; et, lorsqu'ils se publient dans les provinces de Québec et du Manitoba, ils doivent être en langue anglaise et en langue française. Il faut envoyer au greffier du Sénat des exemplaires marqués de chaque numéro de tous les journaux contenant l'avis, avec, sur le pli de la feuille, les mots : "Avis de bill privé" ; ou l'on peut transmettre, au lieu des journaux, une déclaration statutaire que l'avis a été dûment publié.

Tout avis par lettre enregistrée sera déposé à la poste à temps pour parvenir au Secrétaire de la province et au greffier de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale cinq semaines au moins avant la considération de la pétition par le comité des Ordres permanents ; et une déclaration statutaire établissant le fait du dépôt à la poste sera transmise au greffier du Sénat.

108. Nulle pétition pour la constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou d'une compagnie de canal, ou pour l'extension de la ligne d'un chemin de fer ou d'un canal existant ou autorisé, n'est prise en considération par le comité des Ordres Permanents, à moins qu'il n'ait été déposé devant le comité une carte ou un plan indiquant le tracé proposé des travaux ainsi que les comtés ou les districts par où doit passer le chemin de fer, le canal, l'embranchement ou le prolongement qu'on veut construire.

109. Avant d'adresser au Sénat la pétition pour en obtenir la permission de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, la ou les personnes qui ont l'intention de faire cette pétition doivent, en donnant l'avis prescrit par les règles précédentes mentionner en même temps et de la même manière, les péages qu'elles se proposent de percevoir, l'étendue du privilège, la hauteur des arches, l'espace libre entre les culées ou les piles pour le passage des trains de bois et des bateaux ; en outre, mentionner si le pont sera mobile ou non, et indiquer les dimensions de la partie mobile.

110. Aucune pétition en obtention d'un bill privé n'est reçue par le Sénat après les trois premières semaines de la session ; aucun bill privé ne peut lui être présenté après les quatre premières semaines de la session ; aucun rapport d'un comité permanent ou spécial sur un bill privé n'est reçu après les six premières semaines de la session.

114. Toute personne qui voudra obtenir un bill privé, si elle se propose de le présenter au Sénat, devra déposer entre les mains du greffier de cette Chambre, huit jours avant la réunion du Parlement, une copie du bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme d'argent suffisante pour en payer la traduction, laquelle sera faite par les traducteurs du Sénat, et payer l'impression de 600 exemplaires anglais et de 200 exemplaires français ; elle aura pareillement à verser entre les mains du greffier du Sénat, aussitôt après la deuxième lecture du bill, et avant la prise en considération par le comité auquel il aura été renvoyé, une somme de $200, avec les frais d'insertion de l'acte au corps des Statuts ; et elle remettra au commis-greffier du comité un reçu constatant le versement de ces sommes.

Greffier du Sénat.

CANADIAN QUARANTINE REGULATIONS.

BY ORDER IN COUNCIL DATED 12TH JUNE, 1907.

Administration.

The whole of the Quarantine Service of Canada is controlled by the Minister of Agriculture. It is administered under him by the Director-General of Public Health.

Each Quarantine Station is in the immediate charge of a specially appointed medical quarantine officer.

At each unorganized maritime or inland quarantine station, the local Collector of Customs is the quarantine officer for the purposes of these regulations.

The Governor in Council may, however, from time to time appoint a temporary medical quarantine officer at any unorganized maritime or inland quarantine station, who shall supersede for the time being the Collector of Customs as the quarantine officer of the port.

THE QUARANTINE STATIONS.

The Quarantine stations of Canada are :—

Province of Quebec—
- (a.) Grosse Isle, in the River St. Lawrence, with Rimouski, the Louise Embankment and the Grand Trunk Wharf at Lévis, as sub-stations.

Province of Nova Scotia—
- (a.) Halifax, the Harbour and Lawlor's Island ;
- (b.) Sydney, the Harbour and Point Edward ;
- (c.) Louisbourg and the Harbour ;

Province of New Brunswick—
- (a.) St. John, the Harbour and Partridge Island ;
- (b.) Chatham, the Harbour and Middle Island ;

Province of Prince Edward Island—
- (a.) Charlottetown, the Harbour and Keppoch ;

Province of British Columbia—
- (a.) Victoria, the Harbour and William Head ;
- (b.) Vancouver and the Harbour ;
- (c.) Prince Rupert, the Harbour and the Kinnahan Islands.

Every other maritime port, each such port being designated an Unorganized Maritime Quarantine Station :

And every inland port on the Canadian frontier, each such port being designated an Unorganized Inland Quarantine Station.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Quarantine officers justices of the peace.

1. Every quarantine officer at a quarantine station in Canada, and every customs collector in his quality of quarantine officer, shall for the purpose of these regulations be a justice of the peace in virtue of the provisions of Sec. 7 of the Act respecting Quarantine, Chap. 74, Revised Statutes.

Persons entering Canada.

2. Every person entering Canada, whether through a customs port or otherwise, shall be held to be subject to these regulations.

(a.) Once a person has been released from this outer ring of Dominion quarantine, he or she passes from under the health jurisdiction of this Department.

Classes of passengers.

3. Passengers for the purpose of these regulations are divided into two classes, cabin and steerage. Steerage passengers are those occupying compartments other than those of first and second cabin.

Quarantinable diseases.

4. The graver quarantinable diseases are : Asiatic cholera, plague, smallpox, typhus fever and yellow fever. The minor : Chicken-pox, diphtheria, enteric fever (typhoid), measles and scarlet fever.

Other infectious diseases.

(a) In addition to the above recital, it is the duty of every quarantine officer to satisfy himself as to the presence or absence of any other contagious or infectious disease.

Leprosy.

5. It is the duty of every quarantine officer to satisfy himself as to the fact of the presence or absence of leprosy among the passengers or crew ; and in the event of any case of such disease being found, the person affected shall not be allowed to enter Canada, but shall be detained at quarantine at the vessel's expense until taken aboard by the same vessel when next outward and in the event of the vessel failing to take back the said leper, he or she shall be deported by the government at the expense of the owners of the vessel after an interval of fourteen days from the date of the landing of such person unless satisfactory reasons be given for further delay.

Vessels from outside of Canada.

6. Every vessel arriving from any port outside of Canada at any organized Quarantine Station shall be inspected by a duly appointed quarantine officer, at the place duly appointed for such inspection, and shall not be allowed to make customs entry at any port in Canada until it has received a clean bill of health from such officer at such place.

(a) If a vessel from an infected foreign port bound for a port in Canada, which is an unorganized Quarantine Station, has first to pass an organized Quarantine Station, it shall be held to call at such station before proceeding to its destination.

Definition of infected port.

(b) Within the meaning of these regulations an infected port or country is a port or country where any one of the graver quarantinable diseases above designated exists as an epidemic or has been communicated to one or more persons through the medium of an infected person, personal effects or otherwise. A port or country is not considered infected when a single case or a small number of cases has been reported, and the disease has not been communicated from such cases.

Prince Edward Island.

(c) These regulations shall also apply to vessels arriving at any port in the province of Prince Edward Island from any port in any other province of the Dominion of Canada that has been declared by the Minister to be infected with any of the graver quarantinable diseases.

Coasting vessels, &c.

7. Coasting vessels from Newfoundland and from ports in the United States contiguous to Canada and, in the case of Prince Edward Island, vessels from ports in other provinces of the Dominion of Canada, and free from infectious disease may, from time to time, be excepted from these regulations by order of the Minister of Agriculture.

(a) Vessels from Europe touching at Newfoundland ports on their way to a Canadian port will not be considered coastwise vessels under this regulation.

Coastwise after clearance.

8. After having made customs entry at any port in Canada a vessel, if she proceed to any other port in Canada without first again going abroad, shall be held and regarded as a coastwise vessel and so not subject to these regulations.

His Majesty's ships of war.

9. His Majesty's ships of war and transports arriving at any port in Canada in a healthy condition are excepted from quarantine inspection and detention; but in the event of the presence on board any such vessel of any of the graver forms of quarantinable diseases as designated in section 4, these regulations shall apply as in the case of other vessels arriving from outside of Canada.

Pilots.

10. It shall be the duty of every pilot on boarding a vessel arriving at any port in Canada to furnish the master of such vessel with a copy of the Regulations, under the penalty hereinafter prescribed.

Quarantine signals.

11. Every vessel from any port outside of Canada requiring quarantine inspection shall, on arrival at any port in Canada, display a yellow flag at the fore by day, for a distinctive quarantine signal, in order to inform the quarantine officer that his services are required, and any such vessel arriving by night shall display a red light at the fore for such signal.

(a) No such vessel shall proceed past the quarantine inspection ground until she has been visited and released by the quarantine officer.

Persons liable to detention.

12. Every person who shall be on board any vessel arriving from any port outside Canada at any Organized Quarantine Station or who shall have gone on board any vessel after such arrival and before such vessel has been inspected by a duly appointed quarantine officer, shall be liable to the provisions of sections 18 and 23, and no such person shall leave such vessel without the permission of such officer until such vessel shall have been declared by such officer free from infectious disease. Any person violating this Regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $400 and imprisonment for 6 months.

Customs and revenue officers.

The word 'person' as used in this Regulation shall be deemed to include Customs and Revenue officers and others or servants of the Crown being on or going on board any vessel so arriving either in the discharge of their duty or otherwise.

Hours of inspection

13. Every vessel shall be inspected immediately on arrival.

(a) With the exception that in periods of the epidemic prevalence of any of the graver quarantinable diseases, or to meet the special requirements of any particular port, the Minister of Agriculture may direct that inspection shall only take place between sunrise and sunset.

Quarantine officer to satisfy himself as to health of vessel.

14. Every quarantine officer shall satisfy himself as to the presence or absence of infectious disease by the personal inspection of those on board or by the sworn statement of the captain or surgeon, in the form hereto appended or by both.

Notification for schedules forward.

15. Every maritime quarantine officer shall, when infectious disease is found on any vessel, notify the immigration agent of the port of the fact so that that official may complete and forward the schedule lists of immigrants by destination to the secretaries of the boards of health in the provinces or states to which such immigrants are destined.

Advice to passengers.

16. Passengers during a period of the prevalence in epidemic form of any of the graver quarantinable diseases should be notified by steamship agents to dispense as far as possible with luggage that may be injured by wetting, in case of having to undergo disinfection—such as fabrics of which the dyes are likely to run—as the owners will be compelled to assume all risks of injury.

Advice to owners of vessels.

17. Vessels during a period of the prevalence in epidemic form of any of the graver quarantinable diseases should dispense as far as possible with woollen hangings, curtains, carpets, and upholstering, substituting non-absorbing coverings.

(a) Every vessel carrying cargo, and liable to be disinfected should have provided a plain frame shaft allowing a clear inside space of 12 inches each way, placed in the main hatch, in a sailing vessel; and one in each hatch of a steamship divided by bulkheads. The frame work in this shaft to be set before loading and to extend from the hatchway to the bottom of the vessel. This simple arrangement would receive the fumigating pipe and avoid shifting cargo.

Detention.

18. Every vessel with infectious disease on board, or coming from an infected port or country, shall be liable to be detained at a quarantine station for disinfection or observation, together with its passengers, crew, pilot, &c., luggage and cargo;

(a) A vessel may be detained at quarantine for disinfection during the time necessary for that purpose;

Period of detention.

(b) The time during which a vessel, its passengers, crew, pilot, &c., may be detained for quarantine of observation is the accepted period of the incubation of the disease quarantined against from the ascertained date of last possible exposure.

As to vessels arriving at ports to which they were not originally bound, with infectious disease on board.

19. When any vessel not originally bound for any port in Canada arrives at any seaport of Canada with contagious or infectious disease on board, and is allowed to remain in quarantine at or near such port, the master of such vessel shall pay to the collector of the customs at the port the sum of two dollars, head money, for each person on board the said vessel at the time of her arrival; and the said sum shall be a lien on the vessel, and shall be paid before she shall be allowed to leave the port. R.S., c. 74, s. 11.

Vessels may, on certain conditions, put to sea instead of being quarantined.

20. The master of any such vessel shall, before bulk is broken, have the right of putting to sea with such vessel, instead of allowing her to be quarantined, and if this right is exercised, and the vessel has not arrived at her port of destination, the bill of health shall be returned after the inspecting physician has mentioned thereupon the length and circumstances of the detention and the condition of the said vessel on her putting to sea: Provided always, that before the exercise of such right by the master of such vessel, the inspecting physician shall satisfy himself that the sick of the vessel will be taken care of during the remainder of the voyage; and if any of the sick prefer to remain at such port the said physician shall take care of them. R.S., c. 74, s. 12.

Isolation.

21. Every vessel provided with an isolated hospital for men and another for women, on the upper deck, ventilated from above and not by the door only, may, if the quarantine officer is furnished with satisfactory evidence that such hospital accommodation has been promptly and intelligently made use of, be allowed to proceed after the landing of the sick and those who in the judgment of the quarantine officer may have been immediately exposed to infection, and the disinfection of such parts of the vessel as he may judge to require it; any vessel, however, arriving with any infectious disease, without having such special isolated and ventilated hospital accommodation, or if having it, without satisfactory evidence that it has been promptly and intelligently made use of, shall be liable to be detained for disinfection at a quarantine station.

Moving of vessels, &c.

22. Any vessel detained by order of the quarantine officer shall forthwith be anchored or moored in such position as the quarantine officer shall direct, and its passengers, crew, pilot, &c., shall be retained on board or landed at quarantine as the quarantine officer shall direct.

No person to leave.

23. And whilst such ship is so detained no person shall leave the same, nor shall communication be allowed with such vessel without permission from the quarantine officer.

Quarantine officer to notify minister

24. The quarantine officer detaining any ship as aforesaid shall immediately notify the Minister of Agriculture, stating the cause of such detention.

Vessels arriving by the St. Lawrence.

25. In the case of a vessel carrying His Majesty's Mails and arriving by the St. Lawrence, clearance certificate shall be from a quarantine officer at Rimouski (or at any other port designated by the Minister) or at Grosse Isle, and in the case of every other vessel from Grosse Isle only, unless special permission to the contrary be obtained from the Minister of Agriculture ;

(a) In the event of his finding a quarantinable disease on board the quarantine officer at Rimouski (or at any other port designated by the Minister) shall withhold the final clearance for customs entry which shall only be given to the vessel when she has been released after quarantine inspection at Grosse Isle ;

(b) When, however, in the judgment of the quarantine officer at Rimouski (or at any other port designated by the Minister) mails and persons and their effects may be permitted to land at Rimouski (or at any other port designated by the Minister) from such a vessel a partial clearance shall be given by such quarantine officer covering only the mails and the persons allowed to land there with their effects. (Vide form appended hereto) ;

(c) With the exception that during a time of epidemic prevalence of one of the graver quarantinable diseases the permission to a mail steamer from an infected port or country to land passengers at Rimouski (or at any other port designated by the Minister) may be suspended by direction of the Minister of Agriculture ;

(d) And, in such conditions, the mails only to be landed at Rimouski (or at any other port designated by the Minister), and the vessel to proceed to Grosse Isle for inspection ;

(e) In the event of a graver quarantinable disease having occurred on board of a vessel during the voyage and where in the judgment of the quarantine officer the outer bags containing mail matter may have been exposed to infection, they shall be left on board the vessel for disinfection at Grosse Isle ;

(f) The quarantine officer at Rimouski (or at any other port designated by the Minister) shall telegraph a statement of action taken and the disease for which full clearance is withheld to the quarantine officer at Grosse Isle.

Vessels at Halifax.

26. With regard to vessels touching at Halifax on their way to St. John, when, after inspection, the quarantine officer at Halifax finds a vessel healthy he shall give a full customs clearance which shall be valid at the port of St. John, and the vessel shall then proceed there coastwise.

(a) In the event of his finding a quarantinable disease on board the quarantine officer at Halifax shall withhold the final clearance for customs entry which shall only be given to the vessel when she has been released after quarantine inspection at St. John ;

(b) When, however, in the judgment of the quarantine officer at Halifax mails and persons and their effects may be permitted to land at Halifax from such a vessel a partial clearance shall be given by the quarantine officer at Halifax covering only the mails and the persons allowed to land there with their effects. (Vide Form appended hereto.)

(a) The quarantine officer shall telegraph a statement of action taken and the disease for which the full clearance is withheld to the quarantine officer of the port of St. John.

Steam tugs.

27. Any steam tug or other vessel which shall have towed or otherwise communicated with any vessel of the class of vessels subject to quarantine or quarantine inspection shall thereby be held to the same regulations and requirements as apply to the vessel communicated with.

(a) If the communication between the vessel and the steam tug is confined to attachment of a rope, afterwards loosed, the quarantine officer may decide to release such tug from quarantine detention.

Rags.

28. Rags coming from a port or country in which infectious disease prevails may be prohibited, and the name of any port or country so infected shall, from time to time, be published in the Canada Gazette.

(a) Rags arriving from prohibited ports at a quarantine station shall be liable to be burnt or otherwise treated on the order of the Minister of Agriculture based on a report of the quarantine officer.

New merchandise.

29. New merchandise in general may be accepted without question.

Vaccination.

30. Every passenger shall be required to furnish evidence, to the satisfaction of a quarantine officer, of having been vaccinated, or having had the smallpox.

(a) Every person not showing satisfactory evidence of having been vaccinated, or of having had smallpox, shall be vaccinated by a quarantine officer or detained under observation.

31. The production of an endorsement on the passenger's ticket, signed by the ship's surgeon, to the effect that the passenger has been successfully vaccinated, and the ship's surgeon's testimony under oath verifying the truth of such certificates or endorsements, may be taken by a quarantine officer as evidence of such vaccination and protection. Such quarantine officer shall, however, from time to time, make personal examination of holders of such certificates to satisfy himself of the manner in which they have been issued.

(a) The ship's surgeon shall make examination of each steerage passenger as to his or her vaccinal protection as soon as possible after the vessel leaves the port of departure and shall endorse the result of such examination on the passenger's steamship ticket as follows :

" Protected by previous vaccination or smallpox."
" Vaccinated on board," or
" Refused vaccination."

Vessels with smallpox.

(b) In the event of smallpox having occurred on any vessel, or of the arrival of any vessel from any port or place which has been declared, by proclamation in the Canada Gazette, infected with smallpox, every person on board not showing satisfactory evidence of having been vaccinated within seven previous years, or of having had the smallpox within that period, shall be vaccinated by or under the supervision of the quarantine officer or detained under observation.

Persons refusing vaccination.

(c) Persons who are found by the quarantine officer to require vaccination under the above regulations and who refuse to submit to it shall be landed at the Quarantine Station subject to detention for observation, and the maintenance of such persons and the pay and the maintenance of such guards as it may be necessary for the quarantine officer to appoint to look after and control them during such detention shall be a charge against the vessel.

Detention of passengers.

(d) In the case of persons so detained from a healthy vessel the period of detention shall be 18 days, such being taken as the ordinary period of incubation dated from possible infection at the port of departure, and in the case of persons from a vessel in which smallpox has occurred during the voyage the eighteen day period of detention shall date from the landing at quarantine of the persons refusing vaccination.

Vaccination before embarkation.

(e) A vessel arriving at any quarantine station in Canada will be less liable to detention if the vaccination of all steerage passengers not showing proof of vaccination within seven years is insisted on before embarkation.

Disinfection.

Disinfection under the Quarantine Service of Canada shall be by one or more of the following means :—

Fire, boiling, steam, formaldehyde, sulphur dioxide, mercuric bichloride solution, carbolic acid solution, formalin, chloride of lime, milk of lime.

Fire.—Thoroughly efficient,but seldom necessary as practically everything can be disinfected by less destructive means.

Boiling.—Articles to be wholly immersed in water actually boiling (100° C., 212° Fahr.) for not less than thirty minutes.

Steam.—Steam should be used for ships' hospital cabins, for all small appartments where it will not do too much injury, and for divided steerages where steam pipes are provided as fire protection and the compartments are small.

It is also to be used under pressure with vacuum in special chambers for the disinfection of all clothing and effects that will not be injured thereby.

The exposure to the steam to be for not less than thirty minutes, the steam to be of the temperature of not less than 100° C., 212° Fahr., nor greater than 115° C., 239° Fahr.

Articles injured by steam, such as leather, furs, skins, rubber, trunks, valises, hats and caps, boots and shoes, bound books, silk, fine woollens and glued articles should not be disinfected by steam. For such articles washing with a disinfecting solution of mercuric bichloride, carbolic acid or formalin should be used. And for those which would be injured by wetting, disinfection by a gaseous agent, formaldehyde or sulphur dioxide.

Formaldehyde.—Such ships' cabins and saloons and articles as would be injured by steam may be disinfected by formaldehyde gas.

This may be evolved by :—

(a) The free sprinkling or spraying of formalin (40 per cent solution of formaldehyde) on sheets suspended in small closed compartments, 10 ounces per 1,000 cubic feet. One sheet will hold about 5 ounces without dripping.

(b) The formalin-permanganate method. Seven and a half ounces of potassium permanganate, powdered or in fine needles, and one pint of formalin for each 1,000 cubic feet of room space to be disinfected. The permanganate must be put in before the formaldehyde solution. The vessel in which the mixture is made should be of considerable size else the vigorous foaming will overflow. A flaring ten quart tin pail may be used, or if a wide bottom vessel be used it need not be high. If the bottom of the dish be so wide that the requisite amount of permanganate just conceals it and the sides be eight inches high there will be no overflow from foaming or spattering.

The room in either of these methods should be closed up tightly for four hours.

With dry heat from the jacket and partial vacuum where formaldehyde appliances are attached to the chambers for steam disinfection, one hour's exposure. This method has great penetrating power, and is specially applicable to clothing, luggage, &c., that cannot be steamed.

Formaldehyde gas does not injure fabrics nor most colours.

It cannot be depended upon to kill rats, or other vermin, or mosquitoes.

Clothing, textiles and luggage, clean and in good condition, but suspected of infection can be efficiently and least injuriously disinfected by formaldehyde.

Where desired the smell of the formaldehyde may be subsequently neutralized by the use of ammonia in liquid or gaseous form.

Sulphur dioxide gas.—(a) By burning not less than three pounds of finely broken rolled sulphur per 1,000 cubic feet of space. The sulphur may be burned in iron pots standing in vessels of water. Ignition is best accomplished by alcohol.

(b) Or liquified sulphur dioxide may be used, six pounds of the liquified gas for each 1,000 cubic feet of space.

(c) Or the sulphur may be burned in a special furnace and the sulphur dioxide blown in by a power fan.

Fumigation by sulphur dioxide is specially applicable to holds, steerages and other compartments too large for steam or formaldehyde, and which do not contain objects injured by it. It bleaches fabrics or materials dyed with vegetable and aniline dyes. It destroys linen or cotton goods by rotting the fibre through the acids formed. It injures most metals. It is promptly destructive to all forms of animal life. It is therefore specially valuable for the destruction of rats, &c., in plague ships, and of mosquitoes in yellow fever vessels.

In sulphur fumigation the time of exposure should be not less than twelve hours.

Mercuric bichloride.—This disinfectant is used in solutions not weaker than 1 to 1,000 of water. Its solubility is increased by using salt water, or by adding 2 parts per 1,000 of sodium (or ammonium) chloride. It is of use for the spraying, washing and drenching of free surfaces, alleyways, walls, floors, &c., where steam or gaseous disinfection cannot be used. It injuriously affects polished metals. It cannot be depended upon to penetrate substances in the presence of albuminous matters, dejecta, sputa, &c. These are best disinfected by burning or by-chloride of lime or milk of lime.

Carbolic Acid.—In solution of 5 per cent this may be used instead of the mercuric bichloride solution for polished metals, bright work, &c.

Formalin (a 40 per cent aqueous solution of formaldehyde gas).—This in 5 per cent solution may also be used as a substitute for the mercuric bichloride solution or carbolic acid. It is non-injurious to metals.

GENERAL.

Disinfection of the mails.

32. When it is necessary to disinfect the mails it can be done by steam superheated to dryness, sulphur dioxide or formaldehyde gas. Perforation of the letters facilitates penetration.

A simple method of disinfecting the mails in their bags or boxes is by formaldehyde gas. A soft towel or bunch of clean cotton waste may be placed in each bag or box and formalin poured upon it in the proportion of 1 oz. for every cubic foot of air space, leaving the bag or box closed for 5 or 6 hours.

JOHN J. McGEE,
50-4 Clerk of the Privy Council.

[1290]

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Monday, the 10th day of June, 1907.

PRESENT :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

HIS Excellency in Council is pleased, in virtue of the provisions of section 28, chapter 75, Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, to order that the Order in Council of the 23rd July, 1906, establishing Regulations with a view to the eradication of the disease of Mange in cattle, in the Provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta, shall be, and the same is hereby rescinded, and the annexed Regulations substituted therefor.

His Excellency in Council is further pleased, in virtue of the provisions of section 31, chapter 75, of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, to order that these Regulations be published twice in the Canada Gazette.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

DOMINION OF CANADA.

REGULATIONS RELATING TO MANGE.

Whereas the disease of Mange exists among cattle throughout those portions of the Provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta which may be described as bounded by the International Boundary, the Rocky Mountains and a line drawn as follows :—

A line from the Rocky Mountains along the northern boundary of the Stoney Indian Reserve to the line between Ranges 5 and 6 west of the 5th Meridian, thence north along that line to the line between Townships 28 and 29, thence east along that line to the line of the Calgary and Edmonton Railway, thence north along the Calgary and Edmonton Railway to the line between Townships 30 and 31, thence east along that line to the line between Ranges 26 and 27 west of the 4th Principal Meridian, thence north along that line to the line between Townships 34 and 35, thence east along that line to the Red Deer River, thence north along the Red Deer River to the line between Townships 38 and 39, thence east along that line to the 4th Principal Meridian, thence south along the 4th Principal Meridian to the Red Deer River, thence along the Red Deer and Saskatchewan Rivers to the line between Ranges 7 and 8 west of the 3rd Meridian, thence south along that line to the line between Townships 10 and 11, thence east along that line to the line between Ranges 20 and 21 west of the 2nd Meridian, thence south to the International Boundary line.

And whereas it is of the greatest importance to the interests of stock owners and to the preservation of a profitable market for western cattle that the policy adopted in 1904 with a view to the eradication of the disease in question should be continued.

That after careful inquiry and due consideration it has been decided that the period between 1st June and 15th August, is the most suitable and convenient for treatment with the above object,—

Therefore the Governor General in Council, in virtue of the provisions of Section 28 of The Animal Contagious Diseases Act, chapter 75, of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, is pleased to order that the above described tract of land shall be, and the same is hereby declared an infected place, and that all persons owning or being in charge of cattle within the above described tract must, except as hereinafter provided, during the said period dip or otherwise treat such cattle in a manner satisfactory to the officers of the Department of Agriculture, provision being made that where it can be clearly shown to the satisfaction of the said officers that cattle, kept under fence in any well-defined area or district within the said tract, are not affected with, and have not been in any way exposed to, the contagion of mange, or have been, during the present season, treated in a satisfactory manner and subsequently kept isolated from all other cattle, the Veterinary Director General may, on the facts being reported to him, exempt such area or district from such compulsory treatment, but this provision shall in no case apply to cattle kept on the open range, or on unfenced land.

Satisfactory treatment shall consist of :—

(a) Immersion for not less than two minutes in a solution of lime and sulphur of a strength of not less than 10 pounds of lime and 24 pounds of sulphur to 100 gallons of water prepared according to the directions of the officers of the Department of Agriculture, the fluid to be applied at a temperature of not less than 105 degrees nor more than 110 degrees Fahrenheit, and the treatment to be repeated after an interval of not less than ten, nor more than fifteen days.

(b) Complete immersion in, or thorough saturation by spraying or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the inspector in charge, with an emulsion of crude petroleum, soft water and hard soap, prepared by first mixing these ingredients in the proportion of :

Crude petroleum.....	2 gallons.
Hot soft water.....	½ gallon.
Hard soap.....	½ pound.

the mixture thus formed to be subsequently diluted with not less than seven, nor more than fifteen times its volume of soft water.

Treatment with crude petroleum or kerosene in any form, other than an emulsion as above prescribed, will not be recognized by the Department.

When approved by the inspector in charge of the district in which the cattle to be dealt with are kept, persons owning or controlling herds of not more than thirty head may be permitted to treat their animals by hand, in which case either the emulsion described above or the following preparation shall be used :—

Sulphur.....	2 pounds.
Oil of tar.....	8 ounces.
Raw linseed oil.....	1 gallon.

In the event of any owner failing to treat or to make satisfactory preparation for the treatment of his cattle on or before 1st August, the provisions of the Order in Council dated 27th June, 1904, regarding compulsory treatment as quoted below, shall be enforced :—

"Every Veterinary Inspector, and every person duly authorized by a Veterinary Inspector, shall have full power to order animals affected or suspected of being affected with mange to be collected for inspection, and, when necessary, to be detained, isolated or treated in accordance with the instructions of the Veterinary Director General."

The expenses of and incidental to such collection, isolation and treatment shall be borne by the owners of the animals, and if advanced by the inspector or other authorized person, shall, until paid, be a charge upon the said animals, without prejudice however to the recovery of any penalty for the infringement of these regulations.

If such expenses are not paid within twenty days of the time when they have been incurred, the inspector or other duly authorized person may proceed to sell the said animals by public auction after giving to the owner ten day's notice in writing of such intention to sell, which notice may be effectually given, where the owner is known, by delivering the same to him personally or by sending it by mail addressed to him at his last known place of residence. Where the owner is unknown, such notice may be effectually given by publication in one issue of a newspaper published or circulating in the district where such animals are detained. The proceeds of such sale shall be applied first in payment of the reasonable expenses of the collection, isolation, treatment, giving of notice and conduct of sale, and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner of the said animals on demand. Any balance not so paid shall be remitted to the Minister, and if not claimed within twelve months from the date of sale shall be paid to the credit of the Receiver General."

The Governor General in Council is further pleased to order that no cattle other than those consigned to Winnipeg or to points in Canada east of Winnipeg, shall be removed or be allowed to move out of the above described tract unless they are accompanied by the certificate of an inspector of the Department of Agriculture stating that they have been examined by him and have either been found free from contagion of Mange, or that they may be shipped for immediate slaughter as hereinafter provided. Any such cattle, however, shall, if deemed advisable by the Inspector, be detained, dipped, sprayed or otherwise treated in such manner as the Veterinary Director General may from time to time prescribe.

No railway company shall accept or load at any point within the said tract any shipment of cattle destined for any point west of Winnipeg or for export to the United States or elsewhere via any point on the International Boundary, west of Winnipeg, unless such shipment is accompanied by the certificate of an Inspector as above provided.

Cattle originating west of Winnipeg, whether within the above described tract, or not, consigned to Winnipeg, or to points east thereof shall be inspected at Winnipeg, and no railway company shall release such cattle at Winnipeg or load such cattle for re-shipment therefrom until they have been submitted by daylight, to an Inspector of the Department of Agriculture and certified by him to be free from Mange and other contagious or infectious diseases.

Cattle found on inspection to be affected with Mange or other contagious or infectious disease shall be dealt with as may be ordered by the Inspector.

At points where cattle originating in the said district are unloaded, they shall be placed in special yards, and such yards shall be used for no other purpose and shall be cleansed and disinfected when so ordered by an Inspector.

All cars and other vehicles used for the carriage of cattle originating within the said tract shall be cleansed and disinfected to the satisfaction of an Inspector as soon as possible after being unloaded and before being used for any other shipment.

All way bills and bills of lading accompanying shipments of cattle originating within the said tract shall have plainly written or stamped across the face thereof a notification that the said cars are to be cleansed and disinfected immediately after being unloaded.

Cattle affected with or which have been exposed to the contagion of Mange may be shipped for immediate slaughter to points within the above described tract under the following conditions :—

Unless loaded through special yards and chutes reserved exclusively for such shipments, all yards and chutes used by them shall be declared infected places and shall not be again used for the shipment of healthy stock until cleansed and disinfected to the satisfaction of the Inspector ; they shall not be allowed to come in contact with other animals ; shall be consigned direct only to such slaughter houses within the hereinbefore described tract as are provided with private yards and chutes ; shall not be unloaded at any point en route, and shall under no pretext whatever be removed alive from the slaughter house or the yards and premises immediately connected therewith.

Cars conveying such cattle shall be cleansed and disinfected to the satisfaction of an Inspector immediately after being unloaded.

The transit of cattle through the said tract is permitted subject to the following regulations :—

Cattle for transit by rail through the said tract from one part of Canada to another shall, at points where unloading is necessary, be placed in yards reserved for their exclusive use, and shall not be permitted to come in contact with cattle which have originated within the said tract.

Cattle imported from the United States into the said tract destined for points in Canada outside thereof may, under compliance with the Quarantine Regulations, and with the provisions of the next preceding section hereof, be permitted to pass without unnecessary delay through the said tract direct to their destination without further restrictions. 50–2

Classification as it reads at present :	Classification as it is proposed to read :
Page 5.--Rule 1, clause (5). Long palace horse cars not exceeding 50 feet in length, if used in the transportation of merchandise, will be considered as a 40 foot car. If exceeding 50 feet to be subject to the additional percentage as per clause (3).	This section of Rule 1 has been eliminated entirely.
Rule 2*a*,—Special Ruling Circular No. 1 : Mixed freight will not be forwarded at C. L. rate, but each description must be weighed and charged for as per Classification, except as otherwise provided for herein ; but when a number of different articles of the same class in C. L. (except live stock, petroleum oil, in bbls., crude or refined, including lubricating oil, benzine, gasoline, naphtha and varnish, in bbls. ; also turpentine in bbls.) are shipped at one time, by one shipper to one consignee and destination, on one bill of lading, in carloads, they shall all be taken at the rate per 100 lbs. for such class in carloads. If the articles provided with an L.C.L. and C.L. classification are of more than one class, the carload weight and minimum carload weight of the article in the highest class shall apply on all the articles that make up the carload—actual weight to be charged if over the minimum weight—excepting that when any straight shipment of one class equals or exceeds the minimum C.L. weight, C.L. rate for such lot may apply, and the other articles take the L.C.L. class rate to which they belong. In cases of mixed cars of 5th class and higher freight, having a minimum of less than 20,000 lbs., such as furniture or vehicles, the minimum for the mixed car will be 20,000 lbs. at the highest class rate.	Rule 2.—Section (b). When a number of different articles of the same class in carloads (except petroleum, lubricating oil, benzine, gasoline, naphtha, varnish and turpentine in barrels—unless enumerated under one distinctive heading—and live stock) are tendered on the same day by one consignor or owner to one consignee at one destination on one bill of lading, making up a full carload, they shall all be taken at the rate per 100 lbs. for such class in carloads. When the articles shipped are provided with a carload rating and are of more than one class, the highest carload rate and highest minimum weight shall apply on all the articles that make up the carload—actual weight to be charged if over the minimum weight—excepting that when any straight shipment of one class equals or exceeds the minimum C.L. weight, then the C.L. rate for such lot will apply, and the other articles will take the L.C.L. class rate to which they belong. In the case of a mixed carload of 5th and higher class freight, having a minimum of less than 20,000 lbs., the minimum weight for the mixed car shall be 20,000 lbs. at the highest class rate.
Page 1.—Supp. 8, Rule 2, Section 1 : When any straight shipment of one class, or a shipment under one distinctive heading, equals or exceeds the minimum C.L. weight, C.L. rate for such lot will apply, and the other articles will take the L.C.L. rate of the class to which they belong.	Page 3, Class 13.—Rule 2, Section (c) : When a shipment of one commodity, or a shipment of different articles under one distinctive heading and subject to the same carload rating, equals or exceeds the minimum carload weight, then the C.L. rating for such lot will apply, and any other article not of the same class, or not under the same distinctive heading, loaded in the same car (or cars), will take the L.C.L. rate of the class to which it belongs.
Page 7.—Rule 7 : All articles marked at O.R. in this classification, must be so receipted for by Agents, and the words Owners' Risk written in full on the shipping notes and receipts. Articles marked Released must also be so receipted for and shippers or owners must duly execute a release in duplicate on the company's forms. Provided, however, that in cases where shippers decline to accept such receipts endorsed "owner's risk", or to sign such releases, the goods may be received for shipment on ordinary shipping notes and receipts without above endorsation at 50 per cent in addition to the rates which would be charged if shipped at owner's risk and (or) released, with the exception of plate or mirror glass, which will be as specified herein.	Page 4,—Rule 7 : (a). Articles by this Classification shown as to be carried at Owner's Risk of Weather (i.e., O.R.W.), of Breakage (i.e., O.R.B.), or otherwise, as the case may be, shall, unless otherwise required by the shipper, be carried at owner's risk as so specified and defined, and no special notation to that effect shall be necessary on the bill of lading, but no such limitation, expressed or otherwise, shall relieve the carrier from liability from any loss or damage which may result from any negligence or omission on the part of the company, its agents or employés. (b). Should the shipper decline to ship at "Owner's Risk" as specified and defined in this classification any article shown as to be so carried, the articles will be carried subject to the terms and conditions of the bill of lading approved by the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada, in which case twenty-five per cent over and above the rates which would be payable if such articles were shipped at "Owner's Risk", will be charged ; (c). Articles marked to be released will be accepted for carriage at the rates specified only when a release in the form approved by the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada has been executed by the shipper ; (d). Provided that this rule shall not apply to live stock which will be carried only on the terms and conditions specified in the classification.
Page 7.—Rule 10 : Any shipment which, in the judgment of the receiving Agent, would not bring, at forced sale the amount of the freight charges at destination, must be prepaid, or charges guaranteed.	Page 5.—Rule 10 : Charges must be prepaid on any shipment which, in the judgment of the agent at shipping station, will not realize the amount thereof at forced sale.
Page 8, Rule 15 :— When fruit, vegetables and other property liable to damage by frost, are shipped in winter (Nov. 1st to April 30th, except as per note below) one man will be passed free with one or more cars to care for the fires and protect the property from freezing. No return pass to be given. The stoves, if returned, to be charged same as "empties returned." When shippers put stoves in cars, agents must see that all reasonable precaution is taken against damage to the car or train, and receipts in all such cases must be given at "owner's risk of fire." Passes will not be given to men in charge of trees or shrubbery.	Page 5, Rule 14 :— When fruit, vegetables and other perishable property, in carloads, liable to damage by frost, are shipped between November 1st and April 30th, and stoves are placed in cars by shippers to protect the property from freezing, one man may be passed free with one or more cars to care for the fires. No free or reduced return transportation will be given. Agents must see that all reasonable precaution is taken against damage to the car, and receipts in all such cases must be given at "owner's risk of fire."
Note—Perishable freight for Manitoba and the Northwest must be prepaid between October 10th and May 20th.	Page 6, Rule 15 :— The following clause has been added :— "The transportation company reserves the right to refuse to accept shipments in insecure packages."

Classification as it reads at present:	Classification as it is proposed to read:
Page 10, Rule 20:— (a) Agents at points of shipment will take careto assure themselves that contents of packages or cars are actually what they purport to be; if they have reason to suspect that an attempt is being made to deceive the carrier, or avoid proper classification, they will require an examination of the goods, or other sufficient evidence that they are correctly described, before or after receipting for same.	Page 6, Rule 17:— (b) If upon inspection it is ascertained that the articles shipped are not those described in the bill of lading, the charges must be paid upon the articles actually shipped, and at the rates and under the rules provided for by this classification, and subject to the provisions of subsection "c" of this rule.
(b) When articles are shipped under false names in order to deceive the carrier, or to avoid this classification, agents at destination will collect charges according to proper classification, plus fifty per cent in addition to the rate which would have been charged had the property been correctly described.	(c) If any person or company shall knowingly or wilfully by false classification, false weight, false representation of the contents of any package, or false report of weight, or by any other device or means, whether with or without the consent or connivance of any agent or agents of the transportation company, with the intention of obtaining transportation for goods at less than the regular tolls then authorized and in force, such person or company shall, in addition to the regular tolls then authorized, or in force, be liable to pay to the transportation company a further toll of fifty per cent of the regular charge. (See section 400 of the Railway Act, Chap. 37, R.S.C. 1906.)
Page 9, Rule 16:— Freight on flat cars must not be loaded to exceed eleven feet six inches in extreme height above the top of the rail, and nine feet in extreme width (except by special authority) and should be well secured by iron rods, wire, or wooden bars passing over the load and connecting the upper ends to the stakes in such a manner as to prevent spreading. When these conditions are not complied with the company reserve the right to either refuse the freight, or to remove any excess from the car and forward it on another car, at full rates as per classification.	This rule has been eliminated.
Page 10, Rule 22:— Prepayment of freight charges must not be accepted upon any shipment, unless the agent is satisfied that the article upon which the payment is tendered is correctly described in the shipping note.	This rule has been eliminated.
Page 11, Rule 26:— All property shipped in carloads or less, handled by shippers or consignees, will be subject to the car service, car storage and switching charges of the forwarding and delivering carriers.	This rule has been eliminated.
Page 3, Supp. 8, Rule 30:— Small consignments of one class, or including articles of several classes, will be charged at actual weight, according to the classification of each article, but no single shipment will be taken for less than 100 lbs., first class, minimum charge 35 cents.	Page 7, Rule 20:— Small consignments of one class, or including articles of several classes, between two stations on one line, will be charged at actual weight according to the classification of each article, but no single shipment will be taken for less than 100 lbs., first class, minimum charge 35 cents.

If the residence of the respondent is not known or personal service cannot be effected, then, if it be shown to the satisfaction of the Committee that all reasonable efforts have been made to effect personal service, and, if unsuccessful, to bring such notice and petition to the knowledge of the respondent, what has been done may be deemed and taken by the Committee as sufficient service.

(a) The respondent's residence at the time of sending such notice.

(b) A Post Office address in Canada at which letters and notices for the respondent may be delivered.

(c) The name and address of the solicitor, if any, acting for the respondent.

(d) If such solicitor's address is not at Ottawa, the name and address of some agent for him at Ottawa upon whom all notices and papers may be served.

(6) That, if the respondent does not so notify the Clerk of the Senate, the petition may be considered, and a bill of divorce founded thereon may be passed, without any further notice to the respondent.

(7) When the petition is one by a husband for a divorce from his wife, that, if the wife shows to the satisfaction of the Senate Committee on Divorce that she has, and is prepared to establish upon oath, a good defence to the charges made by the petition, and that she has not sufficient money to defend herself, the Committee may make an order that her husband shall provide her with the necessary means to sustain her defence, including the cost of retaining Counsel and the travelling and living expenses of herself and of witnesses summoned to Ottawa on her behalf.

No petition for a bill of Divorce shall be considered by the Committee unless the applicant has paid into the hands of the Clerk of the Senate the sum of two hundred and ten dollars, ($210.)

The petition when presented to the Senate shall be accompanied by the evidence of the publication of the notice, and by declaration in evidence of the service of a copy of the notice and of a copy of the petition.

RÈGLEMENTS DES QUARANTAINES CANADIENNES.

PAR ARRÊTÉ EN CONSEIL DATÉ LE 12 DE JUIN 1907.

Administration.

Tout le service quarantenaire du Canada est sous le contrôle du Ministre de l'Agriculture, aidé du directeur général du service de santé public.

Chaque station de quarantaine est sous la charge immédiate d'un médecin de quarantaine spécialement nommé.

A chaque station de quarantaine maritime non organisée ou station de quarantaine de l'intérieur, le percepteur des douanes de l'endroit est l'officier de quarantaine pour les fins des présents règlements.

Le Gouverneur en conseil peut, toutefois, nommer de temps à autre un médecin de quarantaine temporaire à toute station de quarantaine maritime non-organisée, ou station de quarantaine de l'intérieur, qui remplacera pour le temps le percepteur des douanes comme officier de quarantaine du port.

Stations de quarantaine.

Les stations de quarantaine du Canada, sont :—

Province de Québec—

(a.) Grosse-Ile, dans le fleuve Saint-Laurent, avec Rimouski, la levée Louise et le quai du Grand-Tronc à Lévis, comme stations auxiliaires.

Province de la Nouvelle-Ecosse—
(a) Halifax, le havre et l'île Lawlor ;
(b) Sydney, le havre et la Pointe Edward ;
(c) Louisbourg et le havre ;
Province du Nouveau-Brunswick—
(a) St. John, le havre, et l'île aux Perdrix ;
(b) Chatham, le havre et Middle Island ;
Province de l'Ile du Prince-Edouard—
(a) Charlotteton, le havre et Keppoch ;
Province de la Colombie-Britannique—
(a) Victoria, le havre et William Head ;
(b) Vancouver et le havre ;
(c) Prince Rupert, le havre et les îles Kinnahan ;
Tout autre port de mer, chaque tel port étant désigné Station de quarantaine maritime non organisée.

Et tout port intérieur sur la frontière canadienne, chaque tel port étant désigné Station de quarantaine intérieure non organisée.

DISPOSITIONS GÉNÉRALES.

Les officiers de quarantaine seront juges de paix.

1. Tout officier de quarantaine à une station de quarantaine en Canada, et tout percepteur des douanes en sa capacité d'officier de quarantaine, seront, pour les fins des présents règlements, juges de paix en vertu des dispositions de l'article 7 de l'Acte concernant la quarantaine, chap. 74 des Statuts revisés.

Personnes qui entrent au Canada.

2. Toute personne qui entre au Canada, que ce soit à un port de douane ou non, est réputée être soumise aux règlements.

(a) Une fois qu'une personne est libérée de ce cercle extérieur de quarantaine fédérale, elle est hors de la juridiction de ce ministère.

Catégories de passagers.

3. Pour les fins des présents règlements, les passagers sont divisés en deux classes : passagers de premières, et passagers d'entrepont. Les passagers d'entrepont sont ceux qui occupent des compartiments autres que ceux de premières et de secondes.

Maladies quarantenaires.

4. Les principales maladies quarantenaires sont : le choléra asiatique, la peste, la petite vérole, le typhus, et la fièvre jaune. Les maladies secondaires, sont la fièvre scarlatine, les fièvres entériques (typhoïdes), la diphthérie, la rougeole et la varicelle (petite vérole volante).

Autres maladies infectieuses.

La lèpre.

5. Il est du devoir de chaque officier de quarantaine de bien s'assurer de la présence ou de l'absence de la lèpre parmi les passagers ou l'équipage, et advenant la découverte de quelque cas de cette maladie, la personne atteinte n'aura pas la permission d'entrer en Canada, mais sera détenue aux frais du navire jusqu'à ce qu'elle soit remise à bord du même navire à son prochain voyage de retour, et si le navire manque de reprendre le dit lépreux, ce lépreux sera déporté par le gouvernement aux frais des propriétaires du vaisseau après un intervalle de quatorze jours à compter de la date du débarquement de cette personne, à moins que de bonnes raisons ne soient données pour un plus long délai.

Vaisseaux venant de l'étranger.

6. Tout navire arrivant d'un port en dehors du Canada à une station de quarantaine organisée sera inspecté par un officier de quarantaine dûment nommé, à l'endroit dûment fixé pour cette inspection, et il ne lui sera pas permis de faire une déclaration à la douane à aucun port du Canada tant qu'il n'aura pas reçu une patente de santé.

(a) Si un navire venant d'un port infecté et en destination d'un port en Canada qui est une station de quarantaine non organisée, a à passer une station de quarantaine organisée, il lui faudra arrêter à cette dernière station avant de continuer sa route.

Définition de "port infecté."

(b) D'après l'interprétation des présents règlements, un port ou pays infecté est un port ou pays où l'une quelconque des plus graves maladies susceptibles de la quarantaine désignées plus haut existe comme épidémie ou a été communiquée à une ou plusieurs personnes par la voie d'une personne ou d'effets d'habillement infectés ou autrement. Un port ou pays n'est pas considéré infecté lorsqu'il ne s'est déclaré qu'un simple cas ou un petit nombre de cas et que la maladie n'a pas été communiqué par ces cas.

Ile du Prince-Edouard.

(c) Les présents règlements s'appliqueront aux vaisseaux arrivant à un port quelconque dans la province de l'Ile du Prince-Edouard d'un port quelconque dans toute autre province du Canada que le Ministre aura déclaré infecté des principales maladies quarantenaires

Cabotiers, etc.

7. Les cabotiers de Terre-Neuve et de ports des Etats-Unis contigus au Canada, et dans le cas de l'Ile du Prince-Edouard, les vaisseaux de ports dans d'autres provinces du Canada, et exempts de maladie contagieuse pourront, de temps à autre, être exemptés des présents règlements par ordre du Ministre de l'Agriculture.

(a) Les vaisseaux venant de l'Europe et touchant à des ports de Terre-Neuve en se rendant à un port canadien, seront réputés être des cabotiers en vertu du présent règlement.

Cabotage après acquit.

8. Un vaisseau qui se déclare à un port du Canada, et continue à un autre port du Canada sans d'abord retourner à l'étranger, sera censé être un vaisseau cabotier, et ne sera pas subordonné aux présents règlements.

Navires de guerre de Sa Majesté.

9. Tout navire de guerre de Sa Majesté ou tout transport portant des troupes de Sa Majesté, et n'ayant pas de maladie à bord, est exempt de l'inspection et de la détention quarantenaires ; mais dans le cas où il se présenterait à bord d'un tel vaisseau quelqu'une des principales maladies quarantenaires telles qu'énumérées à l'article 4, les présents règlements s'appliqueront comme dans le cas d'autres vaisseaux arrivant d'en dehors du Canada.

Pilotes.

10. Tout pilote qui monte à bord d'un vaisseau arrivant à un port du Canada, devra fournir au capitaine de ce vaisseau un exemplaire des règlements, sous peine de l'amende spécifiée plus loin.

Signaux de quarantaine.

11. Tout navire venant d'un port en dehors du Canada, et ayant besoin d'une inspection quarantenaire, devra, en arrivant de jour à un port quelconque du Canada hisser un pavillon jaune à l'avant comme signal distinct de quarantaine, de façon à informer l'officier de quarantaine que ses services sont requis, et tout navire arrivant la nuit exhibera un feu rouge à l'avant comme tel signal.

(a) Nul tel vaisseau ne dépassera les limites d'inspection quarantenaire avant d'avoir été visité et libéré par l'officier de quarantaine.

Personnes susceptibles de détention.

12. Toute personne qui sera à bord d'un vaisseau arrivant d'un port en dehors du Canada, à aucune station de quarantaine organisée, ou qui aura monté à bord d'un vaisseau après telle arrivée et avant que tel vaisseau n'ait été inspecté par un officier de quarantaine dûment nommé, sera passible des dispositions des articles 18 et 23, et nulle telle personne ne quittera ce vaisseau sans la permission du dit officier tant que le vaisseau n'aura pas été déclaré par cet officier exempt de maladie infectieuse. Toute personne qui enfreindra le présent règlement sera passible d'une amende n'excédant pas $400 et de l'emprisonnement pendant 6 mois.

Officiers du revenu et des douanes.

Le mot "personne" dans le présent règlement comprendra les officiers des douanes et du revenu, et autres officiers ou serviteurs de la Couronne étant ou allant à bord d'un vaisseau qui arrive ainsi, tant dans l'exécution de leur devoir qu'autrement.

Heures d'inspection.

13. Tout vaisseau sera inspecté immédiatement à son arrivée.

(a) Sauf que dans les temps d'épidémie de quelqu'une des principales maladies quarantenaires, ou pour complaire aux exigences spéciales d'un port quelconque, le ministre de l'Agriculture pourra ordonner que l'inspection ne se fasse que pendant les heures du jour.

L'officier de quarantaine s'assurera de la salubrité du navire.

14. Chaque officier de quarantaine devra s'assurer de la présence ou de l'absence d'une maladie infectieuse par une inspection personnelle des personnes à bord, ou par la déclaration assermentée du capitaine ou du chirurgien, en la formule ci-jointe, ou par les deux.

Liste des immigrants.

15. Chaque officier de quarantaine maritime, lorsqu'une maladie infectieuse est signalée à bord d'un vaisseau, doit avertir l'agent d'immigration du port de ce fait, de façon que ce fonctionnaire puisse compléter et expédier la liste des immigrants avec leur destination aux secrétaires des bureaux d'hygiène dans les provinces ou états auxquels ces immigrants sont destinés.

Avis aux passagers.

16. Pendant une période épidémique de quelqu'une des principales maladies quarantenaires, les passagers devraient être avertis par les agents de vapeurs de se dispenser, autant que possible, de bagage que l'eau pourrait gâter, dans le cas où il leur faudrait subir la désinfection—tels que les tissus dont les couleurs pourraient déteindre—vu que les propriétaires seront obligés de supporter tous les risques de dommages.

Avis aux armateurs.

17. Durant une période épidémique de quelqu'une des principales maladies quarantenaires, les vaisseaux devraient se dispenser, autant que possible, des tentures, rideaux, tapis, etc., de laine, et y substituer des couvertures non absorbantes.

(a) Chaque navire portant cargaison, et sujet à être désinfecté, devrait être muni d'un conduit en charpente uni, donnant un espace libre de 12 pouces partout à l'intérieur, placé dans la grande écoutille, pour un navire à voiles ; et un dans chaque écoutille d'un vapeur, divisé par des cloisons. La charpente de ce conduit serait posée avant le chargement, et s'étendrait de l'écoutille au fond de cale. Ce simple arrangement recevrait le tuyau de fumigation et éviterait de déranger la cargaison.

Détention.

18. Tout navire ayant de la maladie contagieuse à bord, ou venant d'un port ou pays infecté, sera sujet à être détenu à une station de quarantaine pour y être désinfecté, ainsi que ses passagers, son équipage et son pilote, et le bagage des passagers et la cargaison.

(a) Un navire pourra être détenu à la quarantaine, pour être désinfecté, aussi longtemps que la chose sera nécessaire ;

Période de détention.

(b) Le temps pendant lequel un navire, ses passagers, équipage, pilote, etc., pourra être détenu en quarantaine d'observation, est la période acceptée de l'incubation de la maladie contre laquelle on se garde à compter de la date constatée de la dernière exposition possible.

Vaisseaux arrivant à des ports autres que ceux de leur destination, avec de la maladie contagieuse à bord.

19. Lorsqu'un navire qui n'est pas primitivement à destination d'un port du Canada arrive dans un port de mer ayant à bord une maladie contagieuse ou infectieuse, et qu'il lui est permis de rester en quarantaine dans ce port ou dans le voisinage, le capitaine de ce navire doit payer au percepteur des douanes du port une capitation de deux piastres par personne à bord du navire au moment de son arrivée ; et cette somme est privilégiée sur le navire et doit être payée avant qu'il ne reçoive la permission de quitter le port. S.R., c. 74, art. 11.

Les vaisseaux pourront reprendre la mer à certaines conditions.

20. Le capitaine de tout tel navire aura, avant de rompre son chargement, le droit de retourner en mer avec son navire au lieu de mettre en quarantaine, et s'il exerce ce droit et que le navire ne soit pas arrivé à son port de destination, sa patente de santé lui sera remise, après que le médecin inspecteur y aura inscrit la durée et les circonstances de la détention, ainsi que la condition du navire au moment de reprendre la mer, mais avant que le capitaine du navire ne puisse exercer ce droit, le médecin inspecteur devra s'assurer que les malades à bord seront soignés pendant le reste du voyage, et si quelques-uns des malades préfèrent rester à ce port, le dit médecin en prendra soin. S.R., c. 74, art. 12.

Isolement.

21. Tout navire muni d'un hôpital isolé pour les hommes, et un autre pour les femmes, sur le pont supérieur, ventilé d'en haut en non par la porte seulement, pourra, s'il est prouvé à la satisfaction de l'officier de quarantaine que cet hôpital a été promptement et intelligemment employé, continuer sa route après avoir mis à terre les malades, et ceux que l'officier jugera avoir été exposés à l'infection, et après la désinfection des parties du navire qui sembleront le nécessiter ; néanmoins, tout navire qui arrivera avec quelque maladie infectieuse, sans être muni de ces hôpitaux spéciaux isolés et ventilés, ou, étant muni de ces hôpitaux, sans preuve satisfaisante qu'ils ont été promptement ou intelligemment employés, sera sujet à être détenu pour être désinfecté à une station de quarantaine.

Déplacement des vaisseaux, etc.

22. Tout vaisseau ainsi détenu par ordre de l'officier de quarantaine, sera sans délai ancré ou mouillé à l'endroit que fixera l'officier de quarantaine, et ses passagers, équipage, pilote, etc., seront retenus à bord, ou débarqués à la quarantaine, selon les ordres de l'officier de quarantaine.

Personne ne quittera le bord.

23. Et tant que ce navire est ainsi détenu, personne ne quittera le navire, ni n'aura de communication avec tel navire, sans la permission de l'officier de quarantaine.

Le Ministre sera averti.

24. L'officier de quarantaine qui détiendra un navire comme susdit, devra immédiatement avertir le Ministre de l'Agriculture, et donner la cause de cette détention.

Vaisseaux arrivant par le Saint-Laurent.

25. Dans le cas d'un navire portant les malles de Sa Majesté et arrivant par la voie du Saint-Laurent, le certificat d'acquit sera accordé par un officier de quarantaine à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre) ou à la Grosse-Isle, et dans le cas de tout autre navire à la Grosse-Ile seulement, à moins qu'une permission spéciale au contraire ne soit obtenue du ministre de l'Agriculture.

(a) S'il trouve une maladie quarantenaire à bord, l'officier de quarantaine à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre) détiendra l'acquit final de douane qui ne sera donné au vaisseau qu'après avoir été libéré de l'inspection quarantenaire à la Grosse-Ile.

(b) Mais si l'officier de quarantaine à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre) est d'avis que les malles et les personnes et leurs effets peuvent être débarqués à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre), l'officier de quarantaine donnera au vaisseau un acquit partiel ne couvrant que les malles et les personnes qui peuvent débarquer là avec leurs effets. (Voir Formule ci-annexée).

(c) Sauf que durant une période épidémique d'une des principales maladies quarantenaires la permission accordée à un paquebot-poste venant d'un port ou pays infecté, de débarquer des passagers à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre) pourra être suspendue par ordre du ministre de l'Agriculture.

(d) Et dans ces conditions les malles seules seront débarquées à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre), et le vaisseau continuera sa route à la Grosse-Ile pour inspection.

(e) Si l'une des principales maladies quarantenaires se déclare à bord d'un vaisseau dans le cours de sa traversée, et que l'officier de quarantaine a lieu de croire que les sacs extérieurs contenant les matières postales ont été exposés à l'infection, ces sacs seront laissés à bord du vaisseau pour être désinfectés à la Grosse-Ile.

(f) L'officier de quarantaine à Rimouski (ou à tout autre port désigné par le Ministre) télégraphiera à l'officier de quarantaine à la Grosse-Ile un état de l'action prise et de la maladie pour laquelle un acquit complet est retenu.

Vaisseaux à Halifax.

26. Relativement aux vaisseaux qui touchent à Halifax en se rendant à St. John, si, après inspection l'officier de quarantaine à Halifax trouve qu'un vaisseau est exempt de maladie, il donnera un acquit de douane complet, lequel sera valable au port de St. John, et le vaisseau pourra alors continuer sa route.

(b) Mais si l'officier de quarantaine à Halifax est d'avis que les malles et les personnes et leurs effets peuvent être débarqués à Halifax, un acquit partiel sera donné au vaisseau par l'officier de quarantaine ne couvrant que les malles et les personnes qui peuvent débarquer là avec leurs effets. (Voir formule ci-annexée.)

(c) L'officier de quarantaine télégraphiera à l'officier de quarantaine du port de St. John un état de l'action prise et de la maladie pour laquelle un acquit complet est retenu.

Remorqueurs à vapeur.

27. Tout remorqueur ou autre navire à vapeur qui aura remorqué ou autrement communiqué avec un navire de la classe de ceux sujets à la quarantaine ou l'inspection quarantenaire, sera, par ce fait, soumis aux mêmes règlements et exigences applicables au navire avec lequel il y aura eu communication.

(a) Si la communication entre le navire et le remorqueur à vapeur se borne à l'amarrage d'un câble, qui est ensuite relâché, l'officier de quarantaine pourra décider d'exempter ce remorqueur de la détention quarantenaire.

Guenilles.

28. Les guenilles venant d'un port ou pays où sévit une maladie infectieuse, pourront être prohibées, et le nom de tout port ou pays ainsi infecté sera, de temps à autre, publié dans la Gazette du Canada.

Nouvelles marchandises.

29. Les nouvelles marchandises en général pourront être acceptées sans question.

Vaccination.

30. Chaque passager sera tenu de prouver à la satisfaction de l'officier de quarantaine qu'il a été vacciné ou qu'il a déjà eu la petite vérole.

(a) Toute personne qui ne donnera pas une preuve satisfaisante d'avoir été vaccinée ou d'avoir eu la petite vérole, sera vaccinée par un officier de quarantaine, ou, dans le cas de refus, sera débarquée à la station de quarantaine, pour y subir une quarantaine d'observation.

31. La production d'un endossement sur le billet de passage, signé par le chirurgien du vaisseau, à l'effet que le passager a été effectivement vacciné, et la déclaration assermentée du chirurgien à l'appui de la vérité de ce certificat ou endossement, seront considérés par l'officier de quarantaine comme preuve de cette vaccination et de cette protection. Toutefois, l'officier de quarantaine pourra, de temps à autre, faire un examen personnel des porteurs de ces certificats, afin de s'assurer de la manière que ces certificats ont été émis.

(a) Le chirurgien du vaisseau fera un examen de chaque passager d'entrepont afin de s'assurer que ce passager a été vacciné aussitôt que possible après le départ du vaisseau, et il inscrira le résultat de cet examen sur le billet de voyage du passager, comme suit :—

" Protégé par vaccination antérieure ou par la petite vérole."

" Vacciné à bord," ou

" Refusé d'être vacciné."

Vaisseau avec la petite vérole à bord.

(b) Si la petite vérole s'est déclarée sur un vaisseau, ou si un vaisseau arrive d'un port ou endroit qui a été déclaré infecté de la petite vérole par proclamation dans la Gazette du Canada, chaque passager à bord qui n'offre aucune preuve satisfaisante d'avoir été vacciné dans le cours des derniers sept ans, ou d'avoir eu la petite vérole durant cette période, sera vacciné par ou sous la surveillance de l'officier de quarantaine, ou détenu en observation.

Personnes qui refusent d'être vaccinées.

(c) Les personnes que l'officier de quarantaine juge avoir besoin d'être vaccinées, en vertu des présents règlements, et qui refusent de s'y soumettre, seront débarquées à la station de quarantaine pour y subir la détention d'observation, et l'entretien de ces personnes, et la paie et le soutien des gardiens que l'officier de quarantaine trouvera nécessaire de nommer pour surveiller et contrôler ces personnes durant leur détention sera une dette sur le vaisseau.

Détention des passagers.

(d) Dans le cas d'une personne venant d'un vaisseau exempt de malade la durée de détention sera de 18 jours, cette durée étant considérée la période ordinaire d'incubation datée de l'infection possible au port de partance, et dans le cas de personnes venant d'un vaisseau dans lequel la petite vérole s'est déclarée durant la traversée, la période de dix-huit jours datera de la date du débarquement à la quarantaine de la personne qui a refusé d'être vaccinée.

Vaccination avant l'embarquement.

(e) Un navire qui arrive à une station de quarantaine en Canada sera moins sujet d'être détenu si la vaccination de tous les passagers d'entrepont qui n'offrent aucune preuve d'avoir été vaccinés dans les derniers sept ans, est exigée avant l'embarquement.

Désinfection.

Les méthodes de désinfection aux stations de quarantaine du Canada, seront l'un ou l'autre des moyens ci-dessous :

Par le feu, l'eau bouillante, la vapeur, la formaldehide, le dioxyde de soufre, la solution de bichlorure mercurique, la solution d'acide carbolique, la formaline, la chlorure de chaux, le lait de chaux.

Feu.—Parfaitement efficace, mais rarement nécessaire, vu qu'il est pratiquement possible de désinfecter quoi que ce soit par des moyens moins destructifs.

Eau bouillante.—Les effets doivent être complètement immergés dans l'eau bouillante (100° C., 212° Fahr.) pendant trente minutes au moins.

La vapeur.—On doit employer la vapeur pour les infirmeries, les cabines, pour tous les petits compartiments où elle ne causera pas trop de dommage, et pour les entreponts cloisonnés où des tuyaux à vapeur sont installés comme protection contre le feu et les compartiments sont petits.

On doit aussi s'en servir sous pression dans le vide dans des chambres spéciales pour la désinfection de toutes hardes et effets qui ne seront pas susceptibles d'être gâtés par cela.

L'exposition à la vapeur durera au moins trente minutes, la vapeur sera d'au moins 100° C 212° Fahr., et d'au plus 115° C., 239° Fahr.

Les articles que la vapeur pourrait gâter, tels que le cuir, les fourrures, peaux, caoutchouc, malles, valises, chapeaux et casquettes, chaussures, livres reliés, soies, fines laines, et articles collés ne doivent pas être désinfectés au moyen de la vapeur les articles doivent être lavés avec une solution désinfectante de bichlorure mercurique, acide carbolique ou formaline. Et ceux qui seraient gâtés en les mouillant, doivent être désinfectés au moyen d'un agent gazeux, formaldehyde ou dioxyde de soufre.

Formaldehyde.—Les cabines de navires et salons et les articles que la vapeur pourrait avarier peuvent être désinfectés par du gaz formaldehyde.

Et voici comment—

(a) Un arrosage libéral de formaline (solution 40 pour cent de formaldehyde) sur des draps suspendus dans les petits compartiments, 10 onces par 1,000 pieds cubes. Un drap contiendra environ 5 onces sans dégoutter.

(b) Méthode formaline-permanganate. Sept onces et demie de permanganate de potasse, pulvérisé ou en aiguilles fines et une chopine de formaline pour chaque 1,000 pieds cubes d'espace à désinfecter. Le permanganate doit être mis avant la solution de formaldehyde. Le vase dans lequel le mélange est fait doit être d'une grandeur considérable autrement l'écume débordera Un seau de fer-blanc de dix pintes peut servir, et si un vase à fond large est employé, il n'est pas nécessaire qu'il soit haut. Si le fond du vase est si large que le montant voulu de permanganate le couvre à peine, et que les côtés aient huit pouces de haut il n'y aura pas de débordement dû à l'écume ou au pétillement.

La chambre où est employée l'une ou l'autre de ces méthodes doit être fermée hermétiquement durant quatre heures.

Avec la chaleur sèche de la chemise et le vide partiel là où les appareils de formaldehyde sont attachés aux chambres pour la désinfection par la vapeur, une heure d'exposition. Cette méthode a une grande force pénétrante, et est applicable surtout pour les hardes, bagage, etc., qui ne peuvent subir la vapeur.

Le gaz formaldehyde ne fait pas de tort aux tissus ni à la plupart des couleurs.

On ne peut s'y fier pour tuer les rats, ni autre vermine ou les moustiques.

Les hardes, tissus et bagage propres et en bon état, mais soupçonnés d'infection, peuvent être désinfectés le plus efficacement et avec le moins d'avarie par le formaldehyde.

Si on le désire, l'odeur du formaldehyde peut être neutralisée par l'usage d'ammoniaque sous forme gazeuse ou liquide.

Gaz de dioxyde de soufre.

(a) En brûlant pas moins de 3 livres de soufre en canon, broyé fin, par 1,000 pieds cubes d'espace. Le soufre peut être brûlé dans des pots de fer plongés dans des vaisseaux remplis d'eau. L'ignition réussit mieux par l'alcool.

(b) Ou du dioxyde de soufre liquide peut être employé, six livres du gaz liquéfié pour chaque 1,000 pieds cubes d'espace.

(c) Ou le soufre peut être brûlé dans un fourneau spécial et le dioxyde de soufre répandu par un soufflet mécanique.

La fumigation au moyen du dioxyde de soufre est surtout applicable aux cales, entreponts et autres compartiments trop grands pour la vapeur ou le formaldehyde, et qui ne contiennent pas d'objets susceptibles d'être gâtés par ce moyen. Il blanchit les tissus ou les étoffes teints de teintures végétales ou anilines. Il détruit les effets de toile ou de coton en pourrissant la fibre par les acides formés. Il avarie la plupart des métaux. Il est promptement destructif de toutes formes de vie animale. Il est en conséquence précieux pour la destruction des rats, etc., dans les navires infectés de la peste, et des moustiques dans les vaisseaux infectés de la fièvre jaune.

Dans la fumigation au soufre l'exposition doit durer douze heures au moins.

Bichlorure mercurique.—Ce désinfectant est employé sous forme de solutions pas plus faibles que 1 dans 1,000 d'eau. Sa solubilité est augmentée par l'eau salée, ou en y ajoutant 2 parties par 1,000 de chlorure de soude (ou ammonium). Il sert à arroser, laver et tremper les surfaces libres, couloirs, murs, planchers, etc., où la désinfection par la vapeur ou le gaz ne peut servir. Il gâte les métaux polis. Il est incertain pour pénétrer les substances en présence de matières albumineuses, dejecta, sputa, etc.

Ces choses sont mieux désinfectées en les brûlant ou par la chlorure de chaux ou le lait de chaux.

Acide carbolique.—En solution de 5 pour cent peut être employé au lieu de la solution de bichlorure mercurique pour les métaux polis, morceaux brillants, etc.

EN GÉNÉRAL.

Désinfection des malles.

32. Quand il est nécessaire de désinfecter les malles, on peut le faire au moyen de la vapeur surchauffée jusqu'à la sécheresse, le dioxyde de soufre ou le gaz formaldehyde. La perforation des lettres facilitera la pénétration.

Une méthode bien simple de désinfecter les malles dans leurs sacs ou boîtes, c'est le gaz formaldehyde. Un linge mou ou un paquet de déchet de coton net peut être placé dans chaque sac ou boîte, et le formaline répandu dessus dans la proportion de 1 oz. pour chaque pied cube d'espace d'air, laissant le sac ou la boîte fermé 5 ou 6 heures.

Linges salis.

Les tissus qui sont salis par les évacuations des malades ou sont d'autre manière supposés être profondément infectés, doivent être désinfectés par l'eau bouillante, ou par la vapeur, ou en les trempant dans l'une des solutions désinfectantes ci-dessus décrites.

Ustensiles.

Les ustensiles de cuisine et les articles de table doivent être désinfectés en les trempant dans de l'eau bouillante ou par la vapeur.

Fonds de cales.

Les fonds de cales des vaisseaux infectés doivent généralement être remplis d'eau de mer ou de rivière et ensuite traités par la vapeur, ou l'une des solutions désinfectantes en grandes quantités.

Désinfection du bagage.

33. En temps de choléra ou autre épidémie, le bagage des immigrants ou passagers sur un navire arrivant à un port du Canada, que ce navire vienne ou non d'un port ou pays infecté, pourra, par ordre du Ministre de l'Agriculture, être désinfecté dans chaque cas.

(a.) Lorsque cette désinfection est faite à une station auxiliaire, subséquemment à l'inspection et acquit à la station principale, l'acquit accordé par l'officier quarantenaire portera comme condition que les immigrants et leur bagage seront débarqués pour être désinfectés.

(b) L'officier surveillant cette désinfection comptera les immigrants à mesure qu'ils débarquent, et s'il trouve que le nombre s'accorde avec le nombre marqué sur l'acquit de l'officier de quarantaine, et a une preuve satisfaisante que tout leur bagage a été débarqué avec eux, il poinçonnera l'acquit à l'endroit marqué à cette fin, et cet acquit sera alors reçu à la douane.

FRAIS ET CHARGES.

34. Toutes les inspections quarantenaires, à l'exception de celles faites en vertu de l'article 46 (a), seront faites sans frais contre le navire.

35. Tous les frais encourus pour l'entretien des personnes en santé qui pourraient avoir été exposées à l'infection, ou qui ont refusé d'être vaccinées (voir article 31*c*) et sont détenues en quarantaine d'observation, seront à la charge du navire.

Provisions et serviteurs.

Entretien des malades.

36. Les personnes actuellement malades seront traitées et soignées dans les hôpitaux de quarantaine, aux frais du gouvernement.

Transport des passagers laissés en quarantaine.

37. S'il est permis à un navire de continuer en route et de laisser ses passagers en quarantaine, le transport subséquent de tels passagers de la quarantaine au port de destination sera à la charge du navire.

Désinfection gratuite.

38. Les appareils, les matériaux et la main-d'œuvre pour désinfection sont fournis par le gouvernement sans frais contre le navire

STATIONS DE QUARANTAINE MARITIMES NON ORGANISÉES.

39. Tout port maritime où il n'y a pas de station de quarantaine régulière, ni d'officier de quarantaine régulier permanemment ou temporairement employé par le Ministre, sera constitué en station de quarantaine maritime non organisée, pour les fins des présents règlements.

L'officier des douanes sera l'officier de quarantaine.

40. Chaque percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes à toute telle station de quarantaine maritime non organisée sera l'officier de quarantaine.

Quand l'inspection médicale est ordonnée.

41. Tout percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes en sa capacité d'officier de quarantaine à une station de quarantaine maritime non organisée en Canada, qui apprend ou a raison de soupçonner la présence d'aucune des principales maladies quarantenaires citées à l'article 4 des présents règlements, ordonnera qu'il soit fait une inspection médicale du navire, de l'équipage, des passagers, etc., sur lequel cette maladie quarantenaire existe ou est soupçonnée exister.

Le médecin sera officier de quarantaine.

42. Tout médecin faisant cette inspection par ordre de l'officier de quarantaine, sera, tant qu'il sera ainsi engagé, le médecin de quarantaine.

Vaisseaux venant d'un port infecté.

43. Tout navire arrivant d'un port infecté à une station de quarantaine maritime non organisée, ou à bord duquel serait survenu quelque décès d'une maladie infectieuse ou se serait déclarée quelque maladie infectieuse pendant la traversée, restera au large jusqu'à ce qu'il reçoive de l'officier de quarantaine la permission d'entrer.

Règlements applicables généralement.

44. Tous les règlements applicables aux stations de quarantaine maritime régulièrement organisées s'appliqueront aussi à chaque station de quarantaine maritime non organisée en tant que les circonstances le permettront.

Honoraire pour inspection médicale.

45. Si un navire arrive à une station de quarantaine maritime non organisée avec de la maladie sujette à quarantaine à bord, le capitaine paiera un honoraire de $5 pour chaque inspection médicale ordonnée par l'officier de quarantaine, et cet honoraire devra être payé avant que l'acquit de douane ne soit accordé.

Vaisseau exempt de maladie.

46. S'il ne se trouve pas de maladie à bord d'un navire arrivant à une station de quarantaine maritime non organisée et que l'officier de quarantaine a ordonné d'inspecter, les frais de cette inspection ne seront pas une charge contre le navire, mais seront défrayés par le gouvernement.

Compte.

Le vaisseau pourra être envoyé à la station.

47. Si la maladie trouvée à bord d'un navire, ou l'historique, les conditions, ou les circonstances d'un navire sont telles qu'il paraîtrait au percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes que les capacités d'isolation ou de désinfection existant à une station de quarantaine maritime non organisée, sont insuffisantes pour faire face à cette maladie, il en fera rapport immédiatement au ministre de l'Agriculture, lequel pourra, à sa discrétion, ordonner que le navire se rende à une station de quarantaine organisée afin d'obtenir une patente de santé avant de pouvoir faire une déclaration en douane. Et dans ce cas les frais de transfert du navire à la station de quarantaine maritime sera une dette contre le navire.

Ile du Prince-Edouard.

STATIONS DE QUARANTAINE NON ORGANISÉES DE L'INTÉRIEUR.

Ports de frontière de l'intérieur.

49. Chaque port de l'intérieur, sur la frontière du Canada, où il n'existe pas de station de quarantaine régulière, ni d'officier de quarantaine régulier permanemment ou temporairement nommé par le Ministre, sera, pour les fins des présents règlements constitué en station de quarantaine non organisée de l'intérieur.

Le percepteur des douanes sera officier de quarantaine.

50. Chaque percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes à tout tel port de frontière, sera l'officier de quarantaine.

Inspection médicale.

51. Tout percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes, en sa capacité d'officier de quarantaine à une station de quarantaine non organisée de l'intérieur en Canada, s'il est informé ou s'il a raison de soupçonner la présence d'une des principales maladies quarantenaires citées à l'article 4 des présents règlements, devra faire faire une inspection médicale du char, wagon, véhicule, bateau ou chose apportant cette maladie.

Percepteur pourra détenir le char, etc.

(a) Et ce percepteur ou sous-percepteur est autorisé à détenir ce char, wagon, véhicule, bateau ou chose, jusqu'à ce que cette inspection médicale ait été faite à sa satisfaction.

Médecin sera officier de quarantaine.

(b) Le médecin faisant cette inspection par ordre de l'officier de quarantaine sera, tant qu'il sera ainsi employé, l'officier de santé de quarantaine.

Vaccination.

52. Et cet officier de santé de quarantaine sera autorisé à faire vacciner les personnes qu'il jugera en avoir besoin, ou, si elles refusent d'être vaccinées, de les empêcher d'entrer en Canada.

Honoraire pour inspection médicale.

53. L'honoraire payable à ce médecin de quarantaine pour chaque telle inspection n'excédera pas la somme de $5, et dans le cas où il se découvrirait une maladie sujette à la quarantaine, cet honoraire sera payable par la compagnie ou propriétaire du char, wagon, véhicule, bateau ou chose apportant la maladie.

Compte.

(a) En soumettant un compte pour une inspection médicale ordonnée par lui, le percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes l'accompagnera d'un certificat énonçant les raisons de son action. (Voir Formule No 6 ci-annexée.)

Détention des véhicules infectés.

54. Le percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes en sa capacité d'officier de quarantaine devra, sur le rapport du médecin de quarantaine, s'il découvrait quelqu'une des principales maladies quarantenaires, faire détenir le char, wagon, véhicule, bateau ou chose apportant une personne atteinte de cette maladie infectieuse, jusqu'à ce que les exigences des présents règlements aient été remplies à sa satisfaction.

Personnes infectées n'entreront pas en Canada.

(a) Toute telle personne malade ne pourra pas entrer au Canada tant que le médecin de quarantaine ne jugera pas sûr de lui permettre ;

Le véhicule pourra s'en retourner.

(b) Tout char, wagon, véhicule, bateau ou chose apportant cette personne malade à la frontière pourra s'en retourner plutôt que de subir la détention quarantenaire ; ou

Isolement des personnes infectées.

(c) Le percepteur ou sous-percepteur des douanes, en sa capacité d'officier de quarantaine devra, à sa discrétion sur le rapport du médecin de quarantaine, faire enlever et isoler cette personne malade dans un char ou bateau mis à part dans ce but, ou dans une bâtisse convenable, assez éloignée des autres bâtiments pour prévenir tout contact ou infection.

Désinfection.

(d) Et cet officier de quarantaine pourra faire désinfecter le char, wagon, véhicule, bateau ou chose apportant cette personne malade, au moyen de formaldehyde, dioxyde de soufre, ou tout autre mode de désinfection prescrit par les présents règlements adapté aux circonstances du cas.

Règlements généralement applicables.

55. Tous les règlements applicables aux stations de quarantaine maritime organisées s'appliqueront aussi à chaque station de quarantaine de l'intérieur non organisé, en tant que les circonstances le permettent.

Cessation du trafic des passagers.

56. Dans le cas où l'une des principales maladies quarantenaires sévirait dans une partie des Etats-Unis par où passe une voie ferrée qui traverse la frontière du Canada, et dans le cas où il n'y aurait pas à ce point de la frontière d'arrangements et d'appareils propices pour enrayer la marche de cette maladie épidémique, le Gouverneur en conseil pourra, par arrêté publié dans la Gazette du Canada, basé sur un rapport, ordonner la cessation complète du trafic des passagers à cet endroit ; ou y apporter telle restriction que les circonstances justifieront.

HOTEL DU GOUVERNEMENT A OTTAWA.

IL plaît au Gouverneur général en conseil, en vertu des dispositions de l'article 28, chapitre 75, Statuts revisés du Canada, 1906, d'ordonner que l'arrêté en conseil du 23e jour de juillet 1906, établissant des règleglements à l'effet d'extirper la maladie de la gale des bestiaux dans les provinces de la Saskatchewan et d'Alberta, soit et il est par le présent rescindé et remplacé par ce qui suit :

Il plaît en outre à Son Excellence en conseil, en vertu des dispositions de l'article 31, chapitre 75 des Statuts revisés du Canada, 1906, d'ordonner que les présents règlements soient publiés deux fois dans la Gazette du Canada.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,
Greffier du Conseil privé.

DOMINION DU CANADA.

RÈGLEMENTS CONCERNANT LA GALE DES BESTIAUX.

Attendu que la maladie de la gale des bestiaux existe parmi le bétail dans toutes les régions des provinces de la Saskatchewan et Alberta décrites comme étant bor-

nées par la frontière internationale, les Montagnes Rocheuses et une ligne tirée comme suit :—

Une ligne depuis les Montagnes Rocheuses longeant la frontière nord de la Réserve des Assiniboines, jusqu'à la ligne entre les rangs 5 et 6 à l'ouest du 5e méridien, de là au nord longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la ligne entre les townships 28 et 29, de là à l'est longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la ligne du chemin de fer Calgary et Edmonton, de là au nord longeant le chemin de fer Calgary et Edmonton jusqu'à la ligne entre les townships 30 et 31, de là à l'est longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la ligne entre les rangs 26 et 27 à l'ouest du 4e méridien principal, de là au nord longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la ligne entre les townships 34 et 35, de là à l'est longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la rivière du Daim, de là au nord longeant la dite rivière du Daim jusqu'à la ligne entre les townships 38 et 39, de là à l'est longeant la dite ligne jusqu'au 4e méridien principal, de là au sud longeant le 4e méridien principal jusqu'à la rivière du Daim, de là longeant les rivières du Daim et Saskatchewan jusqu'à la ligne entre les rangs 7 et 8 à l'ouest du 3e méridien, de là au sud longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la ligne entre les townships 10 et 11, de là à l'est longeant la dite ligne jusqu'à la ligne entre les rangs 20 et 21 à l'ouest du 2e méridien, de là au sud jusqu'à la ligne frontière internationale.

Et attendu qu'il est de la plus haute importance pour les intérêts des propriétaires de bétail et pour la conservation d'un marché profitable pour le bétail de l'ouest que la politique adoptée en 1904 soit continuée dans le but d'extirper la maladie en question ;

Qu'après mûre considération et une enquête soigneuse il a été décidé que la période entre le 1er de juin et le 15 août est la plus convenable et la plus facile pour le traitement dans le but susdit,—

A ces causes, il plaît au Gouverneur général en conseil, en vertu des dispositions de l'article 28 de la Loi des épizooties, chapitre 75 des Statuts revisés du Canada, 1906, d'ordonner que la région du pays ci-dessus décrite sera et elle est par le présent déclarée lieu infecté, et que toutes personnes possédant ou ayant la charge de bestiaux dans la région ci-dessus décrite, devront, durant la dite période, immerger ou autrement traiter les dits animaux à la satisfaction des officiers du ministère de l'Agriculture, pourvu que dans le cas où il sera démontré à la satisfaction des dits officiers que des animaux gardés enclos dans une étendue ou district bien défini dans la dite région ne sont pas atteints, et n'ont pas été exposés d'une façon quelconque à la contagion de la gale, ou ont été durant la dite période traités d'une manière satisfaisante et ensuite isolés de tous autres bestiaux, le directeur vétérinaire général pourra, en étant informé des faits, exempter cette étendue ou district du traitement compulsoire, mais cette disposition ne s'appliquera en aucun cas aux animaux gardés sur des ranches ouverts, ou sur du terrain non clôturé.

Un traitement satisfaisant consiste—

(a) En l'immersion pendant deux minutes au moins dans une solution de chaux et de soufre d'une force d'au moins dix livres de chaux et vingt-quatre livres de soufre pour cent gallons d'eau préparée d'après les prescriptions des officiers du ministère de l'Agriculture ; le fluide devant être appliqué à une température d'au moins 105 degrés et d'au plus 110 degrés Fahrenheit, et le traitement devant être renouvelé après un intervalle d'au moins dix et d'au plus quinze jours.

(b) En une immersion complète, ou saturation efficace au moyen de l'arrosage ou autrement, à la satisfaction de l'inspecteur en charge, d'une émulsion de pétrole cru, d'eau douce et de savon dur, préparée par le mélange préalable de ces ingrédients dans la proportion de—

Pétrole cru.....	2 gallons.
Eau douce chaude.....	$\frac{1}{2}$ gallon.
Savon dur	$\frac{1}{2}$ livre.

Le mélange ainsi formé sera subséquemment dilué dans au moins sept et au plus quinze fois son volume d'eau douce.

Le traitement de pétrole cru ou de kérosine sous toute forme, autre qu'une émulsion telle que ci-dessus décrite, ne sera pas reconnu par le ministère.

Lorsque la chose sera approuvée par l'inspecteur en charge du district dans lequel sont gardés les animaux à traiter, les personnes possédant ou en charge de troupeaux d'au plus 30 têtes, pourront traiter leurs bestiaux à la main, et dans ce cas soit l'émulsion décrite plus haut soit la préparation ci-dessous sera employée :

Soufre.....	2 livres.
Huile de goudron.....	8 onces.
Huile de graine de lin crue	1 gallon.

Si un propriétaire manque de traiter ou de faire une préparation satisfaisante pour le traitement de ses bestiaux le ou avant le 1er août, les dispositions de l'arrêté en conseil établi le 27 juin 1904, concernant le traitement compulsoire tel que décrit plus bas, sera mis en vigueur.

" Chaque inspecteur vétérinaire, et chaque personne dûment autorisée par un inspecteur vétérinaire, aura plein pouvoir d'ordonner que les animaux atteints de la gale ou soupçonnés en être atteints soient rassemblés pour inspection, et, si la chose est nécessaire, être détenus, isolés et traités en conformité des instructions de l'inspecteur vétérinaire."

Les frais encourus par ce rassemblement, isolation et traitement seront à la charge des propriétaires des animaux, et si l'inspecteur ou autre personne autorisée les a avancés, ils resteront, jusqu'à ce qu'ils soient payés, prélevables sur les dits animaux, sans préjudice toutefois du recouvrement de toute amende imposée pour violation des présents règlements.

Si ces frais ne sont pas payés sous vingt jours de la date où ils ont été encourus, l'inspecteur ou autre personne dûment autorisée pourra faire vendre les dits animaux à l'enchère publique, après avoir signifié au propriétaire dix jours d'avis par écrit de son intention de vendre, cet avis sera effectivement donné, si le propriétaire est connu, en le lui donnant en personne, ou en le lui envoyant par la poste à sa dernière adresse connue. Si le propriétaire est inconnu, cet avis sera effectivement donné en la publiant une fois dans un journal publié ou circulant dans le district où ces animaux sont détenus. Les produits de cette vente seront appliqués d'abord au paiement des dépenses raisonnables du rassemblement, de l'isolation, du traitement, de l'avis et de la conduite de la vente, et la balance, s'il y en a, sera remise au propriétaire des dits animaux à sa demande. Toute balance restant impayée sera remise au Ministre, et si elle n'est pas réclamée sous douze mois de la date de la vente, elle sera versée au crédit du Receveur général.

Il plaît en outre au Gouverneur général en conseil d'ordonner que nul bétail autre que celui consigné à Winnipeg ou à des endroits du Canada à l'est de Winnipeg, ne sera déplacé ni ne sera sorti de la région ci-dessus décrite, à moins d'être accompagné du certificat d'un inspecteur du ministère de l'Agriculture, énonçant que ce bétail a été examiné par lui et trouvé exempt de contagion de la gale, ou qu'il peut être expédié pour abatage immédiat tel que prescrit plus loin. Tout tel bétail, toutefois, sera, si l'inspecteur le juge à propos, détenu, immergé, arrosé ou autrement traité de la manière que le directeur général vétérinaire prescrira de temps à autre.

Nulle compagnie de chemin de fer n'acceptera ni ne chargera un envoi d'animaux à un point dans la dite région pour aucun endroit à l'ouest de Winnipeg ou pour être exporté aux Etats-Unis ou ailleurs vià aucun point sur la frontière internationale à l'ouest de Winnipeg, à moins que cet envoi ne soit accompagné du certificat d'un inspecteur.

Les animaux provenant de l'ouest de Winnipeg, que ce soit dans la région ci-dessus décrite ou non, consignés à Winnipeg ou à des endroits à l'est de Winnipeg, seront inspectés à Winnipeg, et nulle compagnie de chemin de fer ne relâchera ces animaux à Winnipeg ni ne chargera ces animaux pour être réexpédiés de là, avant que ces animaux n'aient été soumis en plein jour à un inspecteur du ministère de l'Agriculture et prononcés par lui exempts de la gale des bestiaux, et d'autres maladies contagieuses ou infectieuses.

Les animaux qui après inspection seront trouvés atteints de la gale des bestiaux ou autre maladies contagieuse ou infectieuse seront traités selon que l'ordonnera l'inspecteur.

Aux endroits où des bestiaux du dit district sont déchargés, ils seront placés dans des cours spéciales, et ces cours ne serviront à nulle autre fin et seront nettoyées et désinfectées quand un inspecteur l'ordonnera.

Tous les wagons et autres véhicules employés au transport de ces bestiaux seront nettoyés et désinfectés à la satisfaction d'un inspecteur aussitôt que possible après avoir été déchargés et avant d'être employés à un autre envoi.

Toutes les factures et connaissements qui accompagnent des envois de bestiaux provenant du dit district porteront à leur face lisiblement écrit ou étampé, un avis à l'effet que les dits wagons doivent être nettoyés et désinfectés immédiatement après avoir été déchargés.

Les animaux qui sont atteints ou ont été exposés à la contagion de la gale peuvent être expédiés pour abatage immédiat à des endroits dans la région plus haut décrite aux conditions suivantes :

A moins qu'ils ne soient chargés dans des cours spéciales et chutes réservées exclusivement à ces envois, toutes les cours et chutes employées par eux seront déclarées lieux infectés et ne seront pas une seconde fois employées à l'envoi de bétail sain sans avoir été nettoyées et désinfectées à la satisfaction de l'inspecteur ; on ne les laissera pas venir en contact avec d'autres animaux ; ils seront directement consignés qu'aux abattoirs dans la région plus haut décrite qui sont munis de cours et chutes privées ; ils ne seront pas déchargés à aucun point en route et ne seront pour aucune raison que ce soit déplacés vivants de l'abattoir ou des cours et lieux qui y sont attachés.

Les wagons qui transportent ces animaux seront nettoyés et désinfectés à la satisfaction d'un inspecteur immédiatement après avoir été déchargés.

Le transit d'animaux dans la dite région sera permis aux conditions suivantes :—

Les animaux pour transit par rail dans la dite région d'une partie du Canada à une autre partie, seront, aux endroits où le déchargement est nécessaire, placés dans des cours réservées à leur usage exclusif, et on ne devra pas permettre qu'ils viennent en contact avec des animaux qui proviennent de la dite région.

Les animaux importés des Etats-Unis dans la dite région, et en destination de points en Canada en dehors de la dite région, en conformité des règlements de quarantaine, et en vertu des dispositions de l'article immédiatement précédent, pourront passer sans délai inutile dans la dite région directement à leur destination sans autres restrictions. 50-2

87. (1) Les pétitions pour bills privés ne sont reçues par la Chambre que pendant les six premières semaines de la session, et tout bill privé sera présenté à la Chambre dans les deux semaines à compter de l'époque où l'Examinateur ou le comité des ordres permanents auront fait un rapport favorable sur la pétition, et nulle motion à l'effet de suspendre cette règle ne sera acceptée, à moins qu'au préalable le comité des ordres permanents n'ait présenté un rapport recommandant cette suspension et exposant les raisons la motivant.

2. Qu'il soit enjoint à tous les comités sur bills privés, dans le cas où les promoteurs ne seraient point prêts à procéder avec leurs mesures quand celles-ci auront été appelées deux fois en deux occasions différentes devant le comité pour y être discutées, de rapporter ces mesures à la Chambre sans délai, faisant connaître les faits, et avec la recommandation que ces bills soient retirés.

SÉNAT.

Substance des règles et formes de procéder du Sénat concernant les bills de divorce.

Telles que revisées et mises en vigueur le 22 mars 1906.

Tout pétitionnaire en divorce doit annoncer son intention de demander un bill de divorce, par un avis spécifiant contre qui et pour quelle cause le divorce sera demandé ; il fait insérer cet avis, pendant trois mois au moins avant la prise en considération par le comité des divorces de sa pétition pour obtenir le bill, dans la Gazette du Canada et dans deux journaux—du district où il avait sa résidence habituelle à l'époque de sa séparation d'avec son conjoint, s'il résidait alors dans la province de Québec, le Manitoba, la Saskatchewan, l'Alberta, la Colombie-Britannique ou les Territoires du Nord-Ouest,—ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, s'il résidait dans une autre province ; et à défaut de ce nombre de journaux, l'avis doit se publier dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Dans les provinces de Québec et du Manitoba, les insertions doivent se faire dans un journal anglais et un journal français, s'il en existe des deux langues dans le district ; autrement, elles se font en anglais et en français au même journal. Si l'avis donné pour une session expire trop tard pour qu'il puisse être statué sur la pétition pendant cette session, la pétition pourra être présentée et accueillie à la session suivante sans nouvelle publication d'avis.

Une copie de cet avis et une copie de la pétition qui sera présentée doit, à la diligence du pétitionnaire et au moins deux mois avant la prise en considération de la pétition par le comité, être signifiée en main propre si cela est possible, à la personne contre laquelle le divorce sera demandé, ci-après appelée "partie défenderesse".

Si la résidence de la partie défenderesse n'est par connue, ou que la remise de l'avis ne peut être faite en ses mains, s'il est prouvé, d'une manière jugée satisfaisante par le comité, que tous les efforts raisonnables ont été faits pour opérer la signification en main propre, et, en cas d'inutilité de ces efforts, pour porter l'avis et la pétition à la connaissance de la partie défenderesse, ces diligences peuvent être tenues pour une suffisante notification.

Aucune pétition en divorce n'est reçevable après l'expiration des soixante premiers jours de la session.

Toute pétition en divorce doit être écrite lisiblement et porter la signature du pétitionnaire. Elle énonce sommairement le fait du mariage, en indiquant les noms au long, l'âge et l'état des parties, en quel temps, en quel lieu et par qui a été faite la célébration ; le domicile et la résidence de chacune des parties à l'époque du mariage, leur domicile conjugal, leur résidence et tout changement qui en aurait eu lieu ; les faits essentiels sur lesquels est fondée la demande de redressement et la nature du redressement demandé.

Les allégations de la pétition doivent être appuyées d'une déclaration du pétitionnaire, faite conformément a l'Acte de la preuve en Canada, 1893.

La copie de la pétition signifiée à la partie défenderesse portera en endos ou en annexe les renseignements suivants :

(1) La résidence du pétitionnaire à l'époque de la signification.

(2) Une adresse postale en Canada à laquelle les lettres et avis pour le pétitionnaire puissent être délivrés.

(3) Le nom et l'adresse de l'avocat, s'il y en a un, agissant pour le pétitionnaire.

(4) Si cet avocat n'a pas d'adresse à Ottawa, le nom et l'adresse de quelque agent le représentant à Ottawa, à qui tous avis et pièces puissent être signifiés.

(5) Si la partie défenderesse veut s'opposer à la demande en divorce et être entendue par le comité des divorces du Sénat, elle doit adresser un avis à cet effet au greffier du Sénat aux édifices du Parlement, Ottawa, dans les deux mois de la signification faite à la partie défenderesse et donner dans cet avis au greffier du Sénat :

(a) La résidence de la partie défenderesse à l'époque de l'envoi de l'avis.

(b) Une adresse postale en Canada à laquelle les lettres et avis pour la partie défenderesse puissent être délivrés.

(c) Le nom et l'adresse de l'avocat, s'il y en a un, agissant pour la partie défenderesse.

(d) Si cet avocat n'a pas d'adresse à Ottawa, le nom et l'adresse de quelque agent le représentant à Ottawa, à qui tous avis et pièces puissent être signifiés.

(6) Si la partie défenderesse ne notifie pas ainsi le greffier du Sénat, la pétition peut être prise en considération, et un bill de divorce basé sur cette pétition peut suivre son cours sans autre avis à la partie défenderesse.

(7) Lorsque la pétition est présentée par un mari pour obtenir le divorce contre sa femme, si celle-ci fait voir au comité d'une manière satisfaisante qu'elle peut opposer et qu'elle est prête à produire sous serment de bons moyens de défense contre les accusations portées dans la pétition, et qu'elle n'a pas l'argent nécessaire pour faire valoir ces moyens, le comité peut rendre un ordre que son mari ait à lui fournir la somme nécessaire pour qu'elle puisse présenter sa défense en retenant les service d'un conseil, payer ses frais de voyage et de séjour et ceux des témoins assignés de sa part à Ottawa.

La pétition en obtention d'un bill de divorce n'est prise en considération par le comité que lorsque le pétitionnaire a versé au bureau du greffier du Sénat une somme de $210.

La pétition, au moment de sa présentation au Sénat doit être accompagnée de la preuve de la publication d'avis et d'une déclaration établissant qu'une copie de l'avis de la pétition a été signifiée.

Une copie de toute pétition en obtention d'un bill de divorce, ou relative à quelque demande de divorce,—et une copie de tous documents et papiers accompagnant cette pétition, ou à produire devant le comité, devra être fournie par la personne au nom de laquelle la pétition, les documents ou les papiers seront présentés ou produits.

Greffier du Sénat.

Avis de bills privés.

EXTRAIT DES RÈGLES DU SÉNAT.

107. Toute demande au Parlement, pour obtenir un bill privé, de quelque nature qu'il soit, doit être annoncée par avis inséré à la Gazette du Canada ; cet avis doit indiquer d'une manière claire et précise la nature et l'objet de la demande être signé par les pétitionnaires ou en leur nom et contenir l'adresse des signataires ; et si elle a pour objet l'obtention d'un acte constitutif, il faut donner aussi dans l'avis le nom de la compagnie projetée.

Outre l'avis à insérer dans la Gazette du Canada, il doit en être publié un semblable, comme il suit :—

A. Lorsque la demande a pour objet l'obtention d'un acte constituant en corporation,—

1. Une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal,—dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité ou ville ou le principal village de chaque comté ou district par où passerait le chemin de fer ou le canal dont la construction est projetée ;

2. Une compagnie de télégraphe ou de téléphone,—dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité ou ville de chaque province ou territoire où elle se propose d'opérer ;

3. Une compagnie pour la confection de travaux quelconques, dont la confection ou l'exploitation intéresserait spécialement telle localité particulière ; ou une compagnie tendant à obtenir des droits ou privilèges exclusifs, ou l'autorisation de faire une chose dont l'opération pourrait porter atteinte aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui,—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit ou des endroits que l'acte demandé intéresse ;

4. Une compagnie de banque ; une compagnie d'assurance ; une compagnie de crédit ; une compagnie de prêt, ou une compagnie industrielle, sans pouvoirs exclusifs,—dans la Gazette du Canada seulement ;

5. Et si les travaux d'une compagnie (constituée ou à constituer) doivent être déclarés d'utilité générale pour le Canada, cette intention sera spécifiquement mentionnée dans l'avis ; et les requérants feront envoyer par lettre enregistrée une copie de cet avis au secrétaire de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale spécialement intéressée dans la construction ou l'exploitation de ces travaux, ainsi qu'au secrétaire de la province dans laquelle ces travaux sont ou seront situés ; et la preuve de l'accomplissement de cette prescription par les requérants devra s'établir par une déclaration statutaire.

B. Lorsque la demande a pour objet de modifier un acte existant,—

1. Afin de prolonger une ligne de chemin de fer ou un canal, ou de construire des embranchements qui s'y relient, l'avis sera le même, mutatis mutandis, que celui pour l'obtention d'un acte constituant en corporation une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal ;

2. Afin de proroger le délai fixé pour la confection ou l'achèvement d'une ligne de chemin de fer, d'un canal, d'une ligne télégraphique ou téléphonique, ou d'autres travaux quelconques déjà autorisés,—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit où la compagnie a son siège ou est autorisée à avoir son siège ;

3. Afin d'étendre les pouvoirs d'une compagnie (sans attribution de pouvoirs exclusifs) ; d'accroître ou de réduire le capital-actions d'une compagnie, ou d'augmenter ou modifier sa faculté d'émettre des obligations ou de faire des emprunts, ou d'effectuer des changements pouvant porter atteinte aux droits ou intérêts des actionnaires, obligataires ou créanciers de la compagnie,—dans un des principaux journaux du lieu de la situation de son siège.

c. Dans tous ces cas, les avis insérés soit à la Gazette du Canada ou dans les journaux, doivent se publier au moins une fois par semaine pendant cinq semaines consécutives ; et, lorsqu'ils se publient dans les provinces de Québec et du Manitoba, ils doivent être en langue anglaise et en langue française. Il faut envoyer au greffier du Sénat des exemplaires marqués de chaque numéro de tous les journaux contenant l'avis, avec, sur le pli de la feuille, les mots : "Avis de bill privé" ; ou l'on peut transmettre, au lieu des journaux, une déclaration statutaire que l'avis a été dûment publié.

Tout avis par lettre enregistrée sera déposé à la poste à temps pour parvenir au Secrétaire de la province et au greffier de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale cinq semaines au moins avant la considération de la pétition par le comité des Ordres permanents ; et une déclaration statutaire établissant le fait du dépôt à la poste sera transmise au greffier du Sénat.

108. Nulle pétition pour la constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou d'une com-

pagnie de canal, ou pour l'extension de la ligne d'un chemin de fer ou d'un canal existant ou autorisé, n'est prise en considération par le comité des Ordres Permanents, à moins qu'il n'ait été déposé devant le comité une carte ou un plan indiquant le tracé proposé des travaux ainsi que les comtés ou les districts par où doit passer le chemin de fer, le canal, l'embranchement ou le prolongement qu'on veut construire.

109. Avant d'adresser au Sénat la pétition pour en obtenir la permission de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, la ou les personnes qui ont l'intention de faire cette pétition doivent, en donnant l'avis prescrit par les règles précédentes mentionner en même temps et de la même manière, les péages qu'elles se proposent de percevoir, l'étendue du privilège, la hauteur des arches, l'espace libre entre les culées ou les piles pour le passage des trains de bois et des bateaux ; en outre, mentionner si le pont sera mobile ou non, et indiquer les dimensions de la partie mobile.

110. Aucune pétition en obtention d'un bill privé n'est reçue par le Sénat après les trois premières semaines de la session ; aucun bill privé ne peut lui être présenté après les quatre premières semaines de la session ; aucun rapport d'un comité permanent ou spécial sur un bill privé n'est reçu après les six premières semaines de la session.

114. Toute personne qui voudra obtenir un bill privé, si elle se propose de le présenter au Sénat, devra déposer entre les mains du greffier de cette Chambre, huit jours avant la réunion du Parlement, une copie du bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme d'argent suffisante pour en payer la traduction, laquelle sera faite par les traducteurs du Sénat, et payer l'impression de 600 exemplaires anglais et de 200 exemplaires français ; elle aura pareillement à verser entre les mains du greffier du Sénat, aussitôt après la deuxième lecture du bill, et avant la prise en considération par le comité auquel il aura été renvoyé, une somme de $200, avec les frais d'insertion de l'acte au corps des Statuts ; et elle remettra au commis-greffier du comité un reçu constatant le versement de ces sommes.

Greffier du Sénat.

ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

[Ref. 533,695]

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Wednesday, the 1st day of May, 1907.

PRESENT :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

ON a Report, dated 11th April, 1907, from the Minister of the Interior, stating that John Thomas Cooper, of Nanton, submitted on the 11th February, 1903, a memorial and plans in connection with his application to divert water from Mosquito Creek on the north-west quarter of Section 2, Township 15, Range 26, west of the 4th Meridian, for the purpose of irrigating 39·4 acres of the north-west quarter of Section 34 ; 116·7 acres of the north-east quarter of Section 34 ; 103·2 acres of the south-east quarter of Section 34 ; 30·8 acres of the south-west quarter of Section 35, all in Township 13, Range 26, west of the 4th Meridian ; 9·6 acres of the north-west quarter of Section 2 ; 27·7 acres of the south-west quarter of Section 2 ; and 20 acres of the south-east quarter of Section 2, all in Township 15, Range 26, west of the 4th Meridian ; and on the Chief Engineer of Irrigation furnishing a certificate as required by The North-west Irrigation Act that notice of application had been advertised as required by the Act and recommending that the construction of the works should be authorized, authorization was accordingly issued by the Deputy-Minister of the Interior on the 6th of July, 1903.

The Minister further states that Mr. Cooper has now made application to the Department of the Interior to be permitted to purchase the west half of Section 2, Township 15, Range 26, west of the 4th Meridian, and the north half and south-east quarter of Section 34, Township 14, Range 26, west of the 4th Meridian, comprising an area of 800 acres. Of these lands the area to be irrigated as shown by the memorial submitted by the applicant is 296 acres. The area to be irrigated is therefore larger than one-quarter of the total area applied for, which is the proportion required to be irrigated before lands are sold under The North-west Irrigation Act.

The Minister, therefore, recommends that he be authorized to sell the lands applied for to Mr. Cooper upon the completion of the works as certified by the Commissioner of Irrigation, at the regulation rate of $3 per acre, but that the cost of the works necessary to irrigate the lands in question as certified to by the Commissioner of Irrigation be allowed as part payment of the purchase money, but not so as to reduce the price below $1 per acre.

The Committee submit the same for approval.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,
52-4 Acting Clerk of the Privy Council.

[Ref. 1,409,966]

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Wednesday, the 12th day of June, 1907.

PRESENT :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

ON a Memorandum dated 3rd May, 1907, from the Minister of the Interior, stating that in 1886 a settlement was effected by Mr. William Pearce, then a member of the Dominion Land Board, with certain squatters in the Morleyville settlement situated at the junction of the Bow and Ghost Rivers, in the Province of Alberta, whereby such squatters were permitted in accordance with the general practice in such cases to homestead 160 acres of the lot claimed by them, and to purchase the remainder at the rate of $1.00 per acre, and that under this arrangement the following squatters, among others, were permitted to purchase at $1.00 per acre, the lands specified, less the area to be acquired under homestead entry :—

David McDougall...	Lot	1 A.	1102 acres.
" " ...	"	1.	946 "
" " ...	"	5 A.	356 "
John McDougall	"	4.	943 "
Augusta M. Adams..	"	5.	985 "
William Graham....	"	9.	990 "

The Minister submits that The Dominion Lands Act restricts the area which may be disposed of by the Minister of the Interior to 640 acres to any one person, and the area of the said lots exceeds the statutory limit.

The Minister therefore recommends that authority be granted to sell the squatters above mentioned the lots in question less the area they have been granted under homestead entry, and less the area they may acquire under a second homestead entry, if they are eligible to receive that privilege.

The Committee submit the same for approval.

F. K. BENNETTS,
52–4 Asst. Clerk of the Privy Council.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Friday, the 3rd day of May, 1907.

WHEREAS it is provided by subsection (a) of subclause 6 of The Dominion Lands Act, chapter 55, Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, that the Governor in Council may withdraw from the operation of this Act, subject to existing rights as defined or created thereunder, such lands as have been or are reserved for Indians ;

And whereas the following reserves have been surveyed by Dominion Land Surveyor J. Lestock Reid, in 1905, and copies of the plans of survey of the said reserves are on record in the Department of the Interior, viz :—

Reserve Number 151A for the Peace River Landing Band, containing eight square miles.

Reserve Number 151B, on the Peace River, containing two hundred and ninety-four acres and three-tenths of an acre.

Reserve Number 151C, on the Peace River, containing one hundred and twenty-six acres and fifty-six one-hundredths of an acre.

Reserve Number 151D, on the Peace River, containing ninety-one acres and sixty-five one-hundredths of an acre.

Reserve Number 151E, on the Peace River, containing one hundred and eighteen acres and sixty-eight one-hundredths of an acre.

Reserve Number 151F, on the Peace River, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres and two one-hundredths of an acre.

Reserve Number 151G, on the Peace River, containing five acres and sixty-seven one-hundredths of an acre.

Therefore, His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to order that the lands comprised within the said reserves, as defined by Mr. J. Lestock Reid's survey, shall be and the same are hereby withdrawn from the operation of The Dominion Lands Act, subject to existing rights as defined or created thereunder and reserved for the said Indians as provided by the subclause above cited.

PRESENT :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

ON a Report dated 30th May, 1907, from the Minister of the Interior, stating that Jane Ledoux, formerly wife of Thomas Quinn who was killed at Frog Lake in 1885, when in the employ of the Indian Department, and now is wife of Napoleon Ledoux, has made application to share in the half-breed grant of scrip as sole heiress of her deceased daughter Marguerite Quinn.

The Minister further states that the applicant was unable, owing to her absence, to present her claim before the Commissioners who were appointed to investigate claims of this nature, but as evidence has since been furnished in support of her claim and he is of the opinion that such claim should receive special and favourable consideration, he the Minister, recommends that an issue of scrip for 240 acres of land be authorized in her favour as sole heiress of her deceased daughter Marguerite Quinn, by her first husband Thomas Quinn.

The Committee submit the same for approval.

PRESENT :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

ON a Memorandum dated 5th June, 1907, from the Minister of the Interior, stating that in the month of January, 1905, an application was made by the Town of Battleford, the application being based on the fact that the Canadian Northern Railway Company had not built its main line through this Town, for a grant of the undisposed-of lots in the Battleford townsite, and that the then Minister of the Interior, with a view to granting the application, called for a report from a Homestead Inspector in order to ascertain whether or not any of the lots applied for had been occupied and improved.

The Minister further states that such report was duly received but it appeared therefrom that some of the survey posts had been obliterated, making it a difficult matter to identify the lots, and a survey was, therefore, ordered for the purpose of restoring the obliterated survey posts. This survey has now been made, and a supplementary report received from the Homestead Inspector showing the undisposed-of lots in the townsite which are unoccupied and unimproved.

The Minister therefore recommends that a grant be authorized to the Town of Battleford for such of the undisposed-of lots in the townsite of Battleford as have been reported as unoccupied and unimproved and as are otherwise available for the purpose.

The Committee submit the same for approval.

52–4 Asst. Clerk of the Privy Council.

Classification as it reads at present :	Classification as it is proposed to read :
Page 5.--Rule 1, clause (5). Long palace horse cars not exceeding 50 feet in length, if used in the transportation of merchandise, will be considered as a 40 foot car. If exceeding 50 feet to be subject to the additional percentage as per clause (3).	This section of Rule 1 has been eliminated entirely.
Rule 2*a*,—Special Ruling Circular No. 1 : Mixed freight will not be forwarded at C. L. rate, but each description must be weighed and charged for as per Classification, except as otherwise provided for herein ; but when a number of different articles of the same class in C. L. (except live stock, petroleum oil, in bbls., crude or refined, including lubricating oil, benzine, gasoline, naphtha and varnish, in bbls. ; also turpentine in bbls.) are shipped at one time, by one shipper to one consignee and destination, on one bill of lading, in carloads, they shall all be taken at the rate per 100 lbs. for such class in carloads. If the articles provided with an L.C.L. and C.L. classification are of more than one class, the carload weight and minimum carload weight of the article in the highest class shall apply on all the articles that make up the carload—actual weight to be charged if over the minimum weight—excepting that when any straight shipment of one class equals or exceeds the minimum C.L. weight, C.L. rate for such lot may apply, and the other articles take the L.C.L. class rate to which they belong. In cases of mixed cars of 5th class and higher freight, having a minimum of less than 20,000 lbs., such as furniture or vehicles, the minimum for the mixed car will be 20,000 lbs. at the highest class rate.	Rule 2.—Section (b). When a number of different articles of the same class in carloads (except petroleum, lubricating oil, benzine, gasoline, naphtha, varnish and turpentine in barrels—unless enumerated under one distinctive heading—and live stock) are tendered on the same day by one consignor or owner to one consignee at one destination on one bill of lading, making up a full carload, they shall all be taken at the rate per 100 lbs. for such class in carloads. When the articles shipped are provided with a carload rating and are of more than one class, the highest carload rate and highest minimum weight shall apply on all the articles that make up the carload—actual weight to be charged if over the minimum weight—excepting that when any straight shipment of one class equals or exceeds the minimum C.L. weight, then the C.L. rate for such lot will apply, and the other articles will take the L.C.L. class rate to which they belong. In the case of a mixed carload of 5th and higher class freight, having a minimum of less than 20,000 lbs., the minimum weight for the mixed car shall be 20,000 lbs. at the highest class rate.
Page 1.—Supp. 8, Rule 2, Section 1 : When any straight shipment of one class, or a shipment under one distinctive heading, equals or exceeds the minimum C.L. weight, C.L. rate for such lot will apply, and the other articles will take the L.C.L. rate of the class to which they belong.	Page 3, Class 13.—Rule 2, Section (c) : When a shipment of one commodity, or a shipment of different articles under one distinctive heading and subject to the same carload rating, equals or exceeds the minimum carload weight, then the C.L. rating for such lot will apply, and any other article not of the same class, or not under the same distinctive heading, loaded in the same car (or cars), will take the L.C.L. rate of the class to which it belongs.
Page 7.—Rule 7 : All articles marked at O.R. in this classification, must be so receipted for by Agents, and the words Owners' Risk written in full on the shipping notes and receipts. Articles marked Released must also be so receipted for and shippers or owners must duly execute a release in duplicate on the company's forms. Provided, however, that in cases where shippers decline to accept such receipts endorsed "owner's risk ", or to sign such releases, the goods may be received for shipment on ordinary shipping notes and receipts without above endorsation at 50 per cent in addition to the rates which would be charged if shipped at owner's risk and (or) released, with the exception of plate or mirror glass, which will be as specified herein.	Page 4,—Rule 7 : (a). Articles by this Classification shown as to be carried at Owner's Risk of Weather (i.e., O.R.W.), of Breakage (i.e., O.R.B.), or otherwise, as the case may be, shall, unless otherwise required by the shipper, be carried at owner's risk as so specified and defined, and no special notation to that effect shall be necessary on the bill of lading, but no such limitation, expressed or otherwise, shall relieve the carrier from liability from any loss or damage which may result from any negligence or omission on the part of the company, its agents or employés. (b). Should the shipper decline to ship at "Owner's Risk " as specified and defined in this classification any article shown as to be so carried, the articles will be carried subject to the terms and conditions of the bill of lading approved by the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada, in which case twenty-five per cent over and above the rates which would be payable if such articles were shipped at "Owner's Risk", will be charged ; (c). Articles marked to be released will be accepted for carriage at the rates specified only when a release in the form approved by the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada has been executed by the shipper ; (d). Provided that this rule shall not apply to live stock which will be carried only on the terms and conditions specified in the classification.
Page 7.—Rule 10 : Any shipment which, in the judgment of the receiving Agent, would not bring, at forced sale the amount of the freight charges at destination, must be prepaid, or charges guaranteed.	Page 5.—Rule 10 : Charges must be prepaid on any shipment which, in the judgment of the agent at shipping station, will not realize the amount thereof at forced sale.
Page 8, Rule 15 :— When fruit, vegetables and other property liable to damage by frost, are shipped in winter (Nov. 1st to April 30th, except as per note below) one man will be passed free with one or more cars to care for the fires and protect the property from freezing. No return pass to be given. The stoves, if returned, to be charged same as "empties returned." When shippers put stoves in cars, agents must see that all reasonable precaution is taken against damage to the car or train, and receipts in all such cases must be given at "owner's risk of fire." Passes will not be given to men in charge of trees or shrubbery. NOTE—Perishable freight for Manitoba and the Northwest must be prepaid between October 10th and May 20th.	Page 5, Rule 14 :— When fruit, vegetables and other perishable property, in carloads, liable to damage by frost, are shipped between November 1st and April 30th, and stoves are placed in cars by shippers to protect the property from freezing, one man may be passed free with one or more cars to care for the fires. No free or reduced return transportation will be given. Agents must see that all reasonable precaution is taken against damage to the car, and receipts in all such cases must be given at "owner's risk of fire." Page 6, Rule 15 :— The following clause has been added :— "The transportation company reserves the right to refuse to accept shipments in insecure packages."

Classification as it reads at present:	Classification as it is proposed to read:
(a) Agents at points of shipment will take careto assure themselves that contents of packages or cars are actually what they purport to be; if they have reason to suspect that an attempt is being made to deceive the carrier, or avoid proper classification, they will require an examination of the goods, or other sufficient evidence that they are correctly described, before or after receipting for same.
(b) When articles are shipped under false names in order to deceive the carrier, or to avoid this classification, agents at destination will collect charges according to proper classification, plus fifty per cent in addition to the rate which would have been charged had the property been correctly described.	(b) If upon inspection it is ascertained that the articles shipped are not those described in the bill of lading, the charges must be paid upon the articles actually shipped, and at the rates and under the rules provided for by this classification, and subject to the provisions of subsection "c" of this rule.
	(c) If any person or company shall knowingly or wilfully by false classification, false weight, false representation of the contents of any package, or false report of weight, or by any other device or means, whether with or without the consent or connivance of any agent or agents of the transportation company, with the intention of obtaining transportation for goods at less than the regular tolls then authorized and in force, such person or company shall, in addition to the regular tolls then authorized, or in force, be liable to pay to the transportation company a further toll of fifty per cent of the regular charge. (See section 400 of the Railway Act, Chap. 37, R.S.C. 1906.)
Page 9, Rule 16:— Freight on flat cars must not be loaded to exceed eleven feet six inches in extreme height above the top of the rail, and nine feet in extreme width (except by special authority) and should be well secured by iron rods, wire, or wooden bars passing over the load and connecting the upper ends to the stakes in such a manner as to prevent spreading. When these conditions are not complied with the company reserve the right to either refuse the freight, or to remove any excess from the car and forward it on another car, at full rates as per classification.	This rule has been eliminated.
Page 10, Rule 22:— Prepayment of freight charges must not be accepted upon any shipment, unless the agent is satisfied that the article upon which the payment is tendered is correctly described in the shipping note.	This rule has been eliminated.
Page 11, Rule 26:— All property shipped in carloads or less, handled by shippers or consignees, will be subject to the car service, car storage and switching charges of the forwarding and delivering carriers.	This rule has been eliminated.
Page 3, Supp. 8, Rule 30:— Small consignments of one class, or including articles of several classes, will be charged at actual weight, according to the classification of each article, but no single shipment will be taken for less than 100 lbs., first class, minimum charge 35 cents.	Page 7, Rule 20:— Small consignments of one class, or including articles of several classes, between two stations on one line, will be charged at actual weight according to the classification of each article, but no single shipment will be taken for less than 100 lbs., first class, minimum charge 35 cents.

THE SENATE.

Substance of Rules of the Senate relating to Notices and Applications for Bills of Divorce.

As Revised and brought in force 22nd March, 1906.

Every applicant for a Bill of Divorce shall give notice of his or her intended application, and shall specify therein from whom and for what cause such divorce is sought, and shall cause such notice to be published during at least three months before the consideration by the Committee on Divorce of his or her petition for the said Bill, in the Canada Gazette and in two newspapers published in the district in Quebec, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia or the Northwest Territories, or in the county or union of counties in other provinces, wherein such applicant usually resided at the time of the separation of the parties; but if the requisite number of papers cannot be found therein, then in an adjoining district or county or union of counties.

Notices given in the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba are to be published in one English and one French newspaper, if there be such newspapers published in the district, but otherwise shall be published in one newspaper in both languages. If a notice given for any session of Parliament is not completed in time to allow the petition to be dealt with during that session, the petition may be presented and dealt with during the next ensuing session, without any further publication of such notice.

A copy of the said notice and a copy of the petition to be presented shall, at the instance of the applicant, and not less than two months before the consideration by the Committee of the petition, be served personally, when that can be done, on the person from whom the divorce is sought, who is hereinafter called "the respondent."

If the residence of the respondent is not known or personal service cannot be effected, then, if it be shown to the satisfaction of the Committee that all reasonable efforts have been made to effect personal service, and, if unsuccessful, to bring such notice and petition to the knowledge of the respondent, what has been done may be deemed and taken by the Committee as sufficient service.

No petition for a bill of divorce shall be presented to the Senate after the first sixty days of the Session.

The petition of an applicant for bill for divorce must be fairly written and must be signed by the petitioner, and should briefly set forth the marriage, the names in full of the parties thereto, their ages and occupations, when, where and by whom the ceremony was performed, the domicile and residence of each of the parties at the time of the marriage, their matrimonial domicile, residence, and any change thereof, the material facts upon which the petitioner relies as the grounds on which relief is asked, and the nature of the relief prayed for.

The petition should also negative connivance at, or condonation of the wrong complained of and collusion in the application for divorce.

The allegations of the petition must be verified by declaration of the petitioner, under The Canada Evidence Act, 1893.

The copy of the petition served upon the respondent shall have endorsed thereon, or appended thereto, the following information:—

(1) The petitioner's residence at the time of service.

(2) A Post Office address in Canada at which letters and notices for the petitioner may be delivered.

(3) The name and address of the solicitor, if any, acting for the petitioner.

(4) If such solicitor's address is not at Ottawa, the name and address of some agent for him at Ottawa, upon whom all notices and papers may be served.

(5) That if the respondent desires to oppose the granting of the divorce and to be heard by the Senate Committee on Divorce, the respondent must send a notice to that effect to the Clerk of the Senate at the Parliament Buildings, Ottawa, within two months from the date of service upon the respondent, and must in the notice to the Clerk of the Senate give :—

(a) The respondent's residence at the time of sending such notice.

(b) A Post Office address in Canada at which letters and notices for the respondent may be delivered.

(c) The name and address of the solicitor, if any, acting for the respondent.

(d) If such solicitor's address is not at Ottawa, the name and address of some agent for him at Ottawa upon whom all notices and papers may be served.

(6) That, if the respondent does not so notify the Clerk of the Senate, the petition may be considered, and a bill of divorce founded thereon may be passed, without any further notice to the respondent.

(7) When the petition is one by a husband for a divorce from his wife, that, if the wife shows to the satisfaction of the Senate Committee on Divorce that she has, and is prepared to establish upon oath, a good defence to the charges made by the petition, and that she has not sufficient money to defend herself, the Committee may make an order that her husband shall provide her with the necessary means to sustain her defence, including the cost of retaining Counsel and the travelling and living expenses of herself and of witnesses summoned to Ottawa on her behalf.

No petition for a bill of Divorce shall be considered by the Committee unless the applicant has paid into the hands of the Clerk of the Senate the sum of two hundred and ten dollars, ($210.)

The petition when presented to the Senate shall be accompanied by the evidence of the publication of the notice, and by declaration in evidence of the service of a copy of the notice and of a copy of the petition.

A copy of every petition for a Bill of Divorce, or relating to any matter arising out of an application for divorce, and of every document and paper accompanying such petition or produced in evidence before the Committee, shall be furnished to the Committee by the person on whose behalf the petition, document or paper is presented or produced.

87. (1) Les pétitions pour bills privés ne sont reçues par la Chambre que pendant les six premières semaines de la session, et tout bill privé sera présenté à la Chambre dans les deux semaines à compter de l'époque où l'Examinateur ou le comité des ordres permanents auront fait un rapport favorable sur la pétition, et nulle motion à l'effet de suspendre cette règle ne sera acceptée, à moins qu'au préalable le comité des ordres permanents n'ait présenté un rapport recommandant cette suspension et exposant les raisons la motivant.

2. Qu'il soit enjoint à tous les comités sur bills privés, dans le cas où les promoteurs ne seraient point prêts à procéder avec leurs mesures quand celles-ci auront été appelées deux fois en deux occasions différentes devant le comité pour y être discutées, de rapporter ces mesures à la Chambre sans délai, faisant connaître les faits, et avec la recommandation que ces bills soient retirés.

Dépôt de bills et honoraires.

88. (1) Toute personne qui voudra obtenir un bill privé sera tenu de déposer entre les mains du greffier de la Chambre, au moins huit jours avant la réunion de la Chambre, un exemplaire de ce bill en anglais ou en français, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression, la traduction en devant être faite par les fonctionnaires de la chambre, et l'impression par le département des impressions publiques, et si pareil bill n'est pas déposé dans le délai ci-dessus prescrit, le solliciteur devra, en sus des frais d'impression et de traduction, payer la somme de (cinq) dollars pour chaque jour qui s'écoulera entre le dit huitième jour avant la réunion de la Chambre et la date de la présentation du bill ; mais ces taxes additionnelles ne devront pas dépasser en totalité la somme de deux cents dollars.

2. Après la deuxième lecture d'un bill et avant son examen par le comité auquel il a été renvoyé, celui qui en fait la demande doit dans tous les cas verser le prix de l'impression de la loi dans les statuts ainsi qu'un droit de deux cents piastres.

Taxes supplémentaires.

6. S'il est apporté quelque changement dans le capital social projeté d'une compagnie, ou s'il y est fait aucune augmentation à une phase quelconque d'un bill, le dit bill ne passera pas à la phase suivante tant qu'il n'aura pas été déposé un certificat du fonctionnaire qu'il appartient attestant que le versement des taxes résultant de ce changement a été régulièrement effectué,

SÉNAT.

Substance des règles et formes de procéder du Sénat concernant les bills de divorce.

Telles que revisées et mises en vigueur le 22 mars 1906.

Tout pétitionnaire en divorce doit annoncer son intention de demander un bill de divorce, par un avis spécifiant contre qui et pour quelle cause le divorce sera demandé ; il fait insérer cet avis, pendant trois mois au moins avant la prise en considération par le comité des divorces de sa pétition pour obtenir le bill, dans la Gazette du Canada et dans deux journaux—du district où il avait sa résidence habituelle à l'époque de sa séparation d'avec son conjoint, s'il résidait alors dans la province de Québec, le Manitoba, la Saskatchewan, l'Alberta, la Colombie-Britannique ou les Territoires du Nord-Ouest,—ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, s'il résidait dans une autre province ; et à défaut de ce nombre de journaux, l'avis doit se publier dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Dans les provinces de Québec et du Manitoba, les insertions doivent se faire dans un journal anglais et un journal français, s'il en existe des deux langues dans le district ; autrement, elles se font en anglais et en français au même journal. Si l'avis donné pour une session expire trop tard pour qu'il puisse être statué sur la pétition pendant cette session, la pétition pourra être présentée et accueillie à la session suivante sans nouvelle publication d'avis.

Une copie de cet avis et une copie de la pétition qui sera présentée doit, à la diligence du pétitionnaire et au moins deux mois avant la prise en considération de la pétition par le comité, être signifiée en main propre si cela est possible, à la personne contre laquelle le divorce sera demandé, ci-après appelée "partie défenderesse".

Si la résidence de la partie défenderesse n'est par connue, ou que la remise de l'avis ne peut être faite en ses mains, s'il est prouvé, d'une manière jugée satisfaisante par le comité, que tous les efforts raisonnables ont été faits pour opérer la signification en main propre, et, en cas d'inutilité de ces efforts, pour porter l'avis et la pétition à la connaissance de la partie défenderesse, ces diligences peuvent être tenues pour une suffisante notification.

Aucune pétition en divorce n'est reçevable après l'expiration des soixante premiers jours de la session.

Toute pétition en divorce doit être écrite lisiblement et porter la signature du pétitionnaire. Elle énonce sommairement le fait du mariage, en indiquant les noms au long, l'âge et l'état des parties, en quel temps, en quel lieu et par qui a été faite la célébration ; le domicile et la résidence de chacune des parties à l'époque du mariage, leur domicile conjugal, leur résidence et tout changement qui en aurait eu lieu ; les faits essentiels sur lesquels est fondée la demande de redressement et la nature du redressement demandé.

Les allégations de la pétition doivent être appuyées d'une déclaration du pétitionnaire, faite conformément a l'Acte de la preuve en Canada, 1893.

La copie de la pétition signifiée à la partie défenderesse portera en endos ou en annexe les renseignements suivants :

(1) La résidence du pétitionnaire à l'époque de la signification.

(2) Une adresse postale en Canada à laquelle les lettres et avis pour le pétitionnaire puissent être délivrés.

(3) Le nom et l'adresse de l'avocat, s'il y en a un, agissant pour le pétitionnaire.

(4) Si cet avocat n'a pas d'adresse à Ottawa, le nom et l'adresse de quelque agent le représentant à Ottawa, à qui tous avis et pièces puissent être signifiés.

(5) Si la partie défenderesse veut s'opposer à la demande en divorce et être entendue par le comité des divorces du Sénat, elle doit adresser un avis à cet effet au greffier du Sénat aux édifices du Parlement, Ottawa, dans les deux mois de la signification faite à la partie défenderesse et donner dans cet avis au greffier du Sénat :

(a) La résidence de la partie défenderesse à l'époque de l'envoi de l'avis.

(b) Une adresse postale en Canada à laquelle les lettres et avis pour la partie défenderesse puissent être délivrés.

(c) Le nom et l'adresse de l'avocat, s'il y en a un, agissant pour la partie défenderesse.

(d) Si cet avocat n'a pas d'adresse à Ottawa, le nom et l'adresse de quelque agent le représentant à Ottawa, à qui tous avis et pièces puissent être signifiés.

(6) Si la partie défenderesse ne notifie pas ainsi le greffier du Sénat, la pétition peut être prise en considération, et un bill de divorce basé sur cette pétition peut suivre son cours sans autre avis à la partie défenderesse.

(7) Lorsque la pétition est présentée par un mari pour obtenir le divorce contre sa femme, si celle-ci fait voir au comité d'une manière satisfaisante qu'elle peut opposer et qu'elle est prête à produire sous serment de bons moyens de défense contre les accusations portées dans la pétition, et qu'elle n'a pas l'argent nécessaire pour faire valoir ces moyens, le comité peut rendre un ordre que son mari ait à lui fournir la somme nécessaire pour qu'elle puisse présenter sa défense en retenant les service d'un conseil, payer ses frais de voyage et de séjour et ceux des témoins assignés de sa part à Ottawa.

La pétition en obtention d'un bill de divorce n'est prise en considération par le comité que lorsque le pétitionnaire a versé au bureau du greffier du Sénat une somme de $210.

La pétition, au moment de sa présentation au Sénat doit être accompagnée de la preuve de la publication d'avis et d'une déclaration établissant qu'une copie de l'avis de la pétition a été signifiée.

Une copie de toute pétition en obtention d'un bill de divorce, ou relative à quelque demande de divorce,—et une copie de tous documents et papiers accompagnant cette pétition, ou à produire devant le comité, devra être fournie par la personne au nom de laquelle la pétition, les documents ou les papiers seront présentés ou produits.

SAML. E. ST. O. CHAPLEAU,
Greffier du Sénat.

SENAT.

Avis de bills privés.

EXTRAIT DES RÈGLES DU SÉNAT.

107. Toute demande au Parlement, pour obtenir un bill privé, de quelque nature qu'il soit, doit être annoncée par avis inséré à la Gazette du Canada ; cet avis doit indiquer d'une manière claire et précise la nature et l'objet de la demande être signé par les pétitionnaires ou en leur nom et contenir l'adresse des signataires ; et si elle a pour objet l'obtention d'un acte constitutif, il faut donner aussi dans l'avis le nom de la compagnie projetée.

Outre l'avis à insérer dans la Gazette du Canada, il doit en être publié un semblable, comme il suit :—

A. Lorsque la demande a pour objet l'obtention d'un acte constituant en corporation,—

1. Une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal,—dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité ou ville ou le principal village de chaque comté ou district par où passerait le chemin de fer ou le canal dont la construction est projetée ;

2. Une compagnie de télégraphe ou de téléphone,—dans un des principaux journaux de la principale cité ou ville de chaque province ou territoire où elle se propose d'opérer ;

3. Une compagnie pour la confection de travaux quelconques, dont la confection ou l'exploitation intéresserait spécialement telle localité particulière ; ou une compagnie tendant à obtenir des droits ou privilèges exclusifs, ou l'autorisation de faire une chose dont l'opération pourrait porter atteinte aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui,—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit ou des endroits que l'acte demandé intéresse ;

4. Une compagnie de banque ; une compagnie d'assurance ; une compagnie de crédit ; une compagnie de prêt, ou une compagnie industrielle, sans pouvoirs exclusifs,—dans la Gazette du Canada seulement ;

5. Et si les travaux d'une compagnie (constituée ou à constituer) doivent être déclarés d'utilité générale pour le Canada, cette intention sera spécifiquement mentionnée dans l'avis ; et les requérants feront envoyer par lettre enregistrée une copie de cet avis au secrétaire de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale spécialement intéressée dans la construction ou l'exploitation de ces travaux, ainsi qu'au secrétaire de la province dans laquelle ces travaux sont ou seront situés ; et la preuve de l'accomplissement de cette prescription par les requérants devra s'établir par une déclaration statutaire.

B. Lorsque la demande a pour objet de modifier un acte existant,—

1. Afin de prolonger une ligne de chemin de fer ou un canal, ou de construire des embranchements qui s'y relient, l'avis sera le même, mutatis mutandis, que celui pour l'obtention d'un acte constituant en corporation une compagnie de chemin de fer ou de canal ;

2. Afin de proroger le délai fixé pour la confection ou l'achèvement d'une ligne de chemin de fer, d'un canal, d'une ligne télégraphique ou téléphonique, ou d'autres travaux quelconques déjà autorisés,—dans un des principaux journaux de l'endroit où la compagnie a son siège ou est autorisée à avoir son siège ;

3. Afin d'étendre les pouvoirs d'une compagnie (sans attribution de pouvoirs exclusifs) ; d'accroître ou de réduire le capital-actions d'une compagnie, ou d'augmenter ou modifier sa faculté d'émettre des obligations ou de faire des emprunts, ou d'effectuer des changements pouvant porter atteinte aux droits ou intérêts des actionnaires, obligataires ou créanciers de la compagnie,—dans un des principaux journaux du lieu de la situation de son siège.

c. Dans tous ces cas, les avis insérés soit à la Gazette du Canada ou dans les journaux, doivent se publier au moins une fois par semaine pendant cinq semaines consécutives ; et, lorsqu'ils se publient dans les provinces de Québec et du Manitoba, ils doivent être en langue anglaise et en langue française. Il faut envoyer au greffier du Sénat des exemplaires marqués de chaque numéro de tous les journaux contenant l'avis, avec, sur le pli de la feuille, les mots : "Avis de bill privé" ; ou l'on peut transmettre, au lieu des journaux, une déclaration statutaire que l'avis a été dûment publié.

Tout avis par lettre enregistrée sera déposé à la poste à temps pour parvenir au Secrétaire de la province et au greffier de chaque conseil de comté et de chaque corporation municipale cinq semaines au moins avant la considération de la pétition par le comité des Ordres permanents ; et une déclaration statutaire établissant le fait du dépôt à la poste sera transmise au greffier du Sénat.

108. Nulle pétition pour la constitution en corporation d'une compagnie de chemin de fer ou d'une com-

pagnie de canal, ou pour l'extension de la ligne d'un chemin de fer ou d'un canal existant ou autorisé, n'est prise en considération par le comité des Ordres Permanents, à moins qu'il n'ait été déposé devant le comité une carte ou un plan indiquant le tracé proposé des travaux ainsi que les comtés ou les districts par où doit passer le chemin de fer, le canal, l'embranchement ou le prolongement qu'on veut construire.

109. Avant d'adresser au Sénat la pétition pour en obtenir la permission de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, la ou les personnes qui ont l'intention de faire cette pétition doivent, en donnant l'avis prescrit par les règles précédentes mentionner en même temps et de la même manière, les péages qu'elles se proposent de percevoir, l'étendue du privilège, la hauteur des arches, l'espace libre entre les culées ou les piles pour le passage des trains de bois et des bateaux ; en outre, mentionner si le pont sera mobile ou non, et indiquer les dimensions de la partie mobile.

110. Aucune pétition en obtention d'un bill privé n'est reçue par le Sénat après les trois premières semaines de la session ; aucun bill privé ne peut lui être présenté après les quatre premières semaines de la session ; aucun rapport d'un comité permanent ou spécial sur un bill privé n'est reçu après les six premières semaines de la session.

114. Toute personne qui voudra obtenir un bill privé, si elle se propose de le présenter au Sénat, devra déposer entre les mains du greffier de cette Chambre, huit jours avant la réunion du Parlement, une copie du bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme d'argent suffisante pour en payer la traduction, laquelle sera faite par les traducteurs du Sénat, et payer l'impression de 600 exemplaires anglais et de 200 exemplaires français ; elle aura pareillement à verser entre les mains du greffier du Sénat, aussitôt après la deuxième lecture du bill, et avant la prise en considération par le comité auquel il aura été renvoyé, une somme de $200, avec les frais d'insertion de l'acte au corps des Statuts ; et elle remettra au commis-greffier du comité un reçu constatant le versement de ces sommes.

SAML. E. ST. O. CHAPLEAU,
Greffier du Sénat.
